witnessed by nearly six hundred people. The best event of the evening was the 440 yard handicap race, when Brown and Sterling ran a dead heat. The one-mile race was also exciting, Stubbs and Sterling running a very close race, but Stubbs won out on the last lap. The three-mile race, which was expected to be the greatest event. THE TURY

RACES AT TORRYBURN TODAY.

The scene of interest to horsemen has for today been shifted from Millidge-ville to Torryburn, where there will be a couple of interesting races held. An excellent half-mile track has been prepared, and the class of horses entered ensures exciting contests in each case.

In the free-for-all the following horses are expected to stert: Katrina, G.. Frank Mullin; Walter K., Louis King; Little Egypt, R. J. Green, and Belfry Chimes, Thomas Hayes.

In the 2.40 page the following entries have been received: Al. McGregor, Philip Carter; Little Dolly, Thomas Short; Black Diamond, James Flood.

Close race, but Stubbs won out on the last lap. The three-mile race, which was expected to be the greatest event of the evening, was not as good as was anticipated on account of Stubbs taking ill and having to drop out on the fourth lap. After Stubbs dropped out Sterling had things his own way, but Jennings and Logan ran an exciting race for second place.

An unfortunate event, which was deeply regretted by all concerned in the meet, was the collapse of Fred Brookins, from an attack of heartfailure while competing in the 220 yards handicap. The ambulance was summoned and he was removed to his home in the North End. The sports were not delayed, but the Marathons decided that in future all intending competitors should submit to a physical examination before being allowed to start.

The heats were run off as follows:

animal in this section of the state for many years.

Rudyard Kip, according to the Boston papers, has a mark of 2.04% and out of nineteen races which he has been entered in, he got sixteen firsts and in the other three succeeded in winning other money for his owners.

Mr. Trites has the animal stabled on Larkin street and he is being worked every day to keep him in good condition. Mr. Trites intends to race him this summer, but another year will use him for breeding purposes. Billy Cummings has charge of Rudyard Kip. The horse has been in Bangor some time and has been much admired.

Champion Wood will be here for the Maritime Skating Championships on March 7th. The following dispatch was "Long Branch City, N. J., March 1.

'To Wm. Gillespie, Sec. M. S. A.:

"Will be on hand, sure, for the seventh.

"MORRIS WOOD."

The enterprise shown by the M. S. A. in bringing Morris Wood and other skaters of note to compete in this city speaks well for the quality of racing they intend to furnish at their first enhangionship sports. Mr. Wood is without doubt the greatest indoor skater in the world today, and with Fred Logan, the outdoor champion, and Hilton Belyea, who is recognized as the local champion, some new records should be established.

Any records made at this meet will be recognized by the International Skating Association.
