HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

Extraordinary Cure of a Case

By GUY, the Metropolitan, King's College and Charing Cross Hospitals.

Wm. BROOK, Messenger, of 2, Union street, Southwick, London, modestly and with pride, in this column, relates the following case:

My name four years ago, and to beguile the tedious but fast flowing hours of imprisonment, I wrote the brief record of my life; and through the kindness of the editor and publisher of this column, it has been published in your issue of the 10th inst. I have been a prisoner in the Metropolitan Prison, since the 10th inst. of the month of April, 1844, when I was committed for nearly four weeks. Unable to receive a cure, either the hospital, King's College Hospital in May for five weeks, at Guy's Hospital in July, for six weeks, and at St. George's Hospital at the end of August, for some weeks more; which do not seem to have done me any good, I was sent to the Metropolitan Prison, where, at HAINSBY COOPER, and other medical officers of the establishment, had told me that the only chance of saving my life was to have a surgical operation performed upon me. I was then, I believe, called upon by Mr. Dr. Bright, chief physician of Guy's, who, on viewing my condition, kindly advised me to have a surgical operation performed upon me. I was then, I believe, called upon by Mr. Dr. Bright, chief physician of Guy's, who, on viewing my condition, kindly advised me to have a surgical operation performed upon me.

NARRATIVE OF S. VAN SCROUWELZ

who was Executed during the late Rebel War, and found in his Prison, and supposed to have been written by himself.

TRANSLATED BY MRS. JENNIE BROWN.

I am aware that there are few persons who will feel any interest in my fate. An exile and a stranger, I found in his Prison, and supposed to have been written by himself.

My family claimed alliance with the ancient nobility of Poland. My father was descended from a family whose adherence to the fortunes of the happy Stanislas had left him little for his inheritance, save his good sword, and his loyal name.

After my father's death, my mother, retired, and in a small estate, on the banks of the Vistula, she lived in quietude and domesticity, my youth was nurtured by the tender and pious hands of my affectionate and devoted parent.

Commercial HOTEL

Head of King street, ST. JOHN, N.B.

THE subscriber here has to announce to his numerous Friends and the Public generally, that he has leased the above Establishment for a term of years.

The Hotel has recently undergone a thorough repair, and neither price nor expense has been spared to render it equal to any in the Province. The parlours of the past have been torn down and new ones substituted; besides which every extensive addition has lately been made to the Establishment, and the new rooms have just been thrown open, finished and furnished in a superior style.

The subscriber pledges himself that no effort on his part shall be spared to render the stay of those who visit the Commercial Hotel, as pleasant and agreeable as possible. Travelling Public and others are respectfully invited to call and make trial for themselves.

Particulars respecting the Hotel can be had on application to the subscriber, or to Messrs. ROBERT WETMORE, and JOHN KINNEAR, Commercial Hotel, Head of King street, St. John, N.B.

ROBERT WETMORE, Proprietor.
