DEATHS.

GREEN.—At Summerside, P. E. I., on Sunday, the 23rd of Dec., Mrs. Joseph Green, peacefully entered into rest. Although not a member of the Baptist church, she gave good evidence that she was a child of God. She took delight in the reading of the Bible and Moody's sermons. May the comfort that Christ gives abide with the bereaved family.

LANE.—Died on Dec. 28, 1894, at Prospect Brook, Elgin, A. Co., N. B., Deacon Samuel K. Lane, aged 57 years. Bro. Lane was baptised eight years ago, by Rev. I. W. Carpenter. He ever maintained a steady growth in the christian life and service. One year ago he was chosen to the honorable office of deacon of the 2nd Elgin church. For some time his health has been failing, and at last heart failure caused his death. He will be sorely missed in his home by the widowed one, and sons, and daughters. The place left vacant in the church, will ever be remembered by his last testimony, "I am now ready to be offered, and my departure is at hand," etc. A large company came to sympathize with the bereaved. We commend all who mourn to the Great Comforter.

COOPER.—At Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 11, '94, of typhoid pneumonia, George R. Cooper, aged thirty-four years. Bro. Cooper was the eldest son of Bro. William Cooper, deacon of the Fredericton Baptist church. He was engaged in the carriage manufacturing business and was widely esteemed and respected. Until a few days before his death he was in the enjoyment of perfect health and his sudden taking off is a crushing blow to the family. A little over a year ago a beloved sister died by drowning. It seems as though God were leading this doubly bereaved family by the cloud. But He leads and they sorrow not without comfort or hope. The deepest sympathy of the church and community goes out to the stricken family.

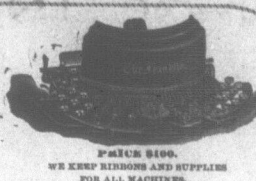

MUNN.—At North Sydney, Dec. 26, of inflammation of the lungs, Jas. Munn, in the 69th year of his age. Death came suddenly like a stealthy foe, but it had no alarms for our good brother. We are sorry that he has been removed from us. He was one of the strong pillars of our church. We regret to see his name removed from our membership, but we rejoice that he has overcome, and we read: "He that overcometh; the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father and before His angels." During the last eighteen years our brother was a deacon of our church and he filled the office very creditably to himself and to us. However we do not propose to submit to paper his manly and christian merits. Those who know him need no such aids to memory; and they would be void of much meaning for others. Already we miss his presence at the Sabbath services, and his voice and genial hand on other occasions. His christian wife, his children, his grandchildren, his neighbors and friends, and the church of which he was a faithful member for nearly half a century greatly miss his presence and regret his removal.

ARMSTRONG.—At Rosette, Annapolis Co., N. S., Dec. 28, Sarah S. Armstrong, aged 65, wife of T. A. Armstrong, and daughter of the late Arthur W. Murphy, of Wolfville, whose widow for so long kept the Village house in that place. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong resided for thirty years in Massachusetts and at the time of her death was a member of the Stoughton St. Baptist church, Boston. She has two sons in Boston and a daughter in New York.

The CHANCE OF A LIFETIME.

YOU CAN'T HELP

It. Everytime you pick up this paper, you look to see what we've got today about Clothes, don't you?

Things do get into a persons head. Remember Mark's Twain's "Punch boys, punch with care," how that ran through your head.

Remember how you always wanted to say "Have you used Pears Soap" when you said "good morning?" How a popular air does annoy you when they begin whistling it on the street? When a man talks of "Scouring" the country you often wonder if he "used Sapolio."

Buying those Boys Cape Overcoats that we're selling, is like losing a dollar bill and finding a two dollar one. We want to get that fact into your head. We want to make you understand that these Overcoats are a BIG THING.

For $1.50.

A lot (about 20) Overcoats, without Capes, tweed and nap cloths, to fit children 4 to 7 years of age. Many's the boy would be glad to wear one if he only had it, they're $1.50

For $2.00.

A lot (about 30) Overcoats, without Capes, tweed and nap cloths, to fit boys 8 to 12 years of age. You'd think nothing of paying that for the bare cloth. You should be glad if your boy is the right size for one of these $3.00 Coats.

For $2.25.

A lot (about 35) Cape Overcoats. Four patterns, of a cheap tweed cloth, part cotton, made to wear well. The prices cut to less than cost, which means your choice of Cape Overcoats to fit boys 9 to 12 years of age for $2.25. These coats were $3.40 and $3.85 when we made a profit.

For $2.50.

A small lot of 10 Cape Overcoats to fit boys 9 and 10 years of age, all wool tweeds, dark shades. $5.00 was the price, now they're $2.50. You're lucky if your boy will fit one of these.

For $2.90.

A lot of 50 Cape Overcoats to fit boys 12 to 16 years of age, same cloth as the $2.25 ones just mentioned. They used to sell at $5.50 and now are $2.90. No need to be cold, is there?

We can give you a fine all wool Overcoat, with a hood (hood silk lined) fastens with cord and frogs, all wool lined. These Coats are "plums." They cost us from $5.90 to $7.00; will fit boys 8 to 12 years of age; they're yours for $3.00.

For $3.90.

For $4.90.

We have about 60 Cape Overcoats that will fit boys 12 to 16 years of age.

Say! people! this is a bargain. These $4.90 Coats represent the very cream of what was the height of fashion a year ago. Not one of them but what cost us at least $8 and the retail price of which was as high as $12. They're all shades of cloth and very handsome patterns $4.90 now.

We have been selling a heavy tweed Ulster all this winter at $6.50, the regular retail price of which was $9.00. We've 100 left and will take $5.00 each for them. It's a regular storm Ulster; long, high collar and all that.

For $2.10.

A man's Overcoat for $2.10. Just suits some people for what they want it for. May be you'd like it. Come and see. Same coat for boys $1.75. Now, we will do just the same with these bargain coats as we do with all others—your money back if they don't suit.

Please send your money if you can't get here yourself and if our choice is not your choice, send it back and we will return your money. Use us to your best advantage.
