At The Trenches.

If you met somebody with sand on the hat of shoulders in town yesterday afternoon you did not have to be a Sherlock Holmes to guess where they had been. Many people took the East St. John cars and paid a visit to Egbert street, near which the 69th Battalion have dug wonderful trenches. Flags of the Allies were flying at the gate, and "Boy Scouts were eager and willing to sell you "pops," which cost the small sum of ten cents. Members of C Company, 69th Battalion, with Captain Gagnon in command acted as guides and made most efficient ones. Few people followed the ladies of the trenches for the whole quarter of a mile length. Indeed as they are rather narrow one stout gentleman was heard playfully demanding his money back as he could not get through! However, you can see the trenches from the outside looking in, though you cannot fully appreciate how well they are planned. The dug-outs do not look very comfortable, but then we have read the boys' poems on the subject, and did not expect palaces. The wind from Courtney Bay blew chill yesterday afternoon, if you remember, and the visitors were very glad to walk over to where the field kitchen stood. This was in charge of Sergeant Alphonse Cloutier of D Company, 69th Battalion, who made a genial host, and Miss Beatrice Penney, assisted by Miss Hilda Marish, Miss Constance McGivern, Miss Dorothy Culver and Miss Jean Leavitt. Here were large kettles of steaming hot tomato bouillon, most grateful and comforting. It was interesting to see the field kitchen in action and it made everyone realize what a blessing it must be to be able to get hot drinks or soups after a long cold march. Mrs. Kuhring, president of the Women's Canadian Club, had planned this exhibition, and Col. Danvers and his men have been most kind in working to make it a success. Mrs. Kuhring welcomed the visitors, Mrs. Richard O'Brien took the tickets, Mrs. Melrose, Mrs. H. Peck, Miss Clara McGivern, Mrs. P. R. Warren, Miss Ethel Jarvis and other members of the club assisted in various ways. Visitors during the afternoon were Brigadier-General McLean and Lieutenant-Col. Powell. The Boy Scouts were from the troops of St. Paul and St. John's (Stone) churches. Before leaving the men of the 69th, who had been treated to refreshment and thanked in a short speech by Mrs. Kuhring, gave three hearty cheers for the Women's Canadian Club. Special thanks were due also to Sergeant Cloutier and his men who looked after the field kitchen. As the field kitchen drove off it made quite a gala appearance, profusely decorated with flags. Thanks from the club are also due Mr. Harry Short, who rendered great assistance. This exhibition, with the field kitchen in evidence, will be open tomorrow, the following days the trenches may still be visited. The proceeds are for the Women's Canadian Club Soldiers' Welfare Fund.

St. Monica's Society.

The St. Monica's Society held their last meeting of the season in the Knights of Columbus hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, let vice-president, was in the chair in the absence of Mrs. Dever, the president, who was unable to be present. There was a large attendance of over sixty ladies. Miss Amelia Haley read an excellent report showing a large amount of work accomplished. The charity committee under the direction of Mrs. Scully had worked very hard and done much good work. The sewing committee, under Mrs. Joseph Ritchie, had made and distributed 271 garments. One day every week had been devoted to Red Cross sewing. A committee had visited the Home for Incubables. Donations were voted to the Blue Cross Fund and the fund to provide a gramophone for the 69th Batt. There is a junior branch which teaches sewing one afternoon a week to about eighty children. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc addressed the society congratulating them on the fine progress of their society and the splendid results achieved. Miss Gailvan delighted those present with a most beautiful solo.

Ladies' Aid, St. Andrew's Church.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church held a meeting yesterday afternoon to arrange for a six o'clock tea to be held on Friday, April the 7th, to celebrate the opening of the new parlors and kitchen. Ladies in charge of tea-tables will be Mrs. Clarence Ferguson, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. H. Fielding, Mrs. Robert Cowan, Mrs. Horace Cole, Mrs. Hedley Bridges, Mrs. F. H. White, Mrs. Beverly Maculay, Mrs. Charles Christie, Mrs. J. A. Christie. The Ladies' Aid are noted for the good things they can provide and a delicious tea is sure to be served by them. This society, with the energetic president, Mrs. Charles W. Bell, has been very active since war started working both for the Red Cross and Soldiers' Comforts Association besides giving a substantial donation to the Patriotic Fund and helping with church improvements.

To Mothers.

"Plant patience in the garden of thy soul. The roots are bitter, but the fruits are sweet; And when, at last, it stands a tree complete, Beneath its tender shade the burning heat And burden of the day shall lose control— Plant patience in the garden of thy soul." First Aid Examinations. We regret that we omitted to state Miss Marion Magee tied for second place in the first aid examinations, making eighty-eight for her excellent papers.

According to Dr. Caroline M. Purcell, a woman can remain an efficient worker until she is eighty years.

Letters Received by Uncle Dick From His Boys and Girls

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

Teacher—"It is a well known natural phenomenon that heat expands and cold contracts. Now give me an instance of this?" Pupil—"Please, sir, the holidays. In summer they last ten weeks; in winter only two."

Heard of Others, Writes Also.

Dear Uncle Dick. I thought I would write to you. I heard of people writing to you so I thought I would send you a letter too. I am not going to school this winter but I am going in the Spring. My sister is going right along. Mamma has been sick for a few days but she is up again. Well I guess that will be all for this time, so good by. BEATRICE ALBERTA PAISLEY.

Getting Her Playmates to Join.

Dear Uncle Dick. I am sending you the answer of course. I have got one of my playmates to join your corner and I think I can get another one. I enjoy Uncle Dick's stories and the letters too. I will close with best wishes. From your loving niece, LILLIAN TRUITS.

Loves to Read.

Dear Uncle Dick. I am trying to get the prize again but I am sure I will not. I saw my name in the paper two times today. I am going to school now. I am in the second book. I love to read. I am not a good hand at writing or drawing. I remain, your loving niece, MARION HOLST.

The Imperial yesterday afternoon had those Paramount travel pictures and Pathe Weekly which are a great attraction to many people. They fill a great want and are truly educational but information supplied in a most entertaining form. There were, besides the South American travels, views of Canadian troops guarding C. N. grain elevators, La Provence, the ship which sank in the Mediterranean, a large U. S. army searchlight, 60 inches in diameter and the large carbons and reflectors used, dugouts in France with the men watchfully waiting, and a pathetic picture of most cheerful lame soldiers making shoes for their more fortunate brothers.

News Of The St. John Theatres Told In The Right Way

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage --- Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

A Law Unto Himself at the Lyric. Action moves quite briskly in this western melodrama which presents Crane Wilbur in a dual role. The story of "A Law Unto Himself" is good as a vehicle for Mr. Wilbur, who enacts both parts with as much effectiveness as he usually does. The picture should appeal greatly to Mr. Wilbur's many admirers. It is a Mutual masterpiece. Robert Broadwell produced "A Law Unto Himself" from the scenario by Lillian V. Brockwell. The direction is satisfactory in all details. Atmosphere has been obtained and the action throughout is realistic.

Crane Wilbur is Allen Dwight, sheriff, and Jean Belleau, a surveyor. Both live in Circle City, where their resemblance causes one to be mistaken for the other occasionally. Belleau's brother is accused and lynched for another's crime. This fills Belleau with hatred and he is eager for revenge. The first thing he does is to kill the man for whose crime Paul was lynched. He carries the body to the town and boasts of his deed to the people, who in their astonishment allow him to go his own way unmolested. He then forms a band of rough characters and for his daring deeds is known as "the devil." How the story ends you'd best see for yourself. It is very effectively staged in beautiful mountain scenery. Included in the cast are Virginia Kirtley, Carl Von Schiller and three newcomers to Horsley productions, Louis Durham, the former big league ball player, who comes from the New York Motion Picture Company; Steve Martin, who was last with the Universal in the "Graft" serial, and Francis Ray, Chas.
