EASTER SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES ATTENDED BY LARGE NUMBERS

Exceptionally Fine Weather Greeted the Citizens Yesterday — Churches Decorated with Beautiful Plants-Special Music and Sermons the Order of the Day-Large Easter Offerings in Many of the Churches.

St. David's Presbyterian.

Knox Presbyterian.

Centenary Methodist.

The exceptionally fine weather of yesterday brought out large congregations at all the churches to celebrate the most joyous feast of the Christian relation, that which commemorates the resurrection of the Christ from the dead to become the living head of the church. Special music and sermons were the order of the day and in many churches special offerings were taken.

St. Lukes's

At St. Luke's special music was furnished by the choir at both morning and evening services and the Easter offering reached the magnificent total of $2,130. In the afternoon at three o'clock a special service for the children was held at which about six hundred children received pictures of the Christ as rewards of merit for perfect aftendance at the children's lantern services held on Friday afternoons during Lent.

St. Mary's Church.

At the evening service at St. David's Rev. J. A. MacKelgan hased his sermon on the words of Mary in the tomb: "They have taken away My Lord and L know not where they laid Him." The speaker pointed out that many times since then Christians had gone through this experience and thought Christ had been taken away away but was always found that while He might himself in a new way it was the same Christ. He then turned to the present situation of the Empire and said it had been said the teachings of Christ had failed but he contended that the nation would have proved to have lost the true teaching if they had not taken part in this war for the overthrow of militarism.

Knox Presbyterian. The Easter services at St. Mary's church were well attended, the larg-est congregation in the history of the church was present at the evening service. Special Easter music was rendered. The Rector R. Taylor Mc-Kim preached a very able sermon on "The message of Easter." The col-lection for the day amounted to-$646. 32 with more to come in.

The congregations at Stone were large at both services and the sumber of communicants was particularly large. The special offerings for the month amounted to about $800 and the receipts for the local work of the parish for the year were very nearly $10,000 the largest in the history of the church.

St. Jude's.

The Easter services at St. James were well attended and the number of communicants was the largest in the history of the congregation. In the afternoon there was a special service for the children at three o'clock.

At Centenary Methodist.

At Centenary the morning service was marked by the baptism of an infant and the reception of eighteen members into the fellowship of the church. Rev. H. A. Goodwin the pastor, gave his special Easter message. He said the resurrection of Jesus indentified Him with his people and made the Gospel preached by Him a living force in the World. At the evening service he referred to the triumph of song in its relation to the resurrected Christ as contrasted with song in other religions. The choir rendered special Easter music at both services and this added much to the beauty and solemnity of the worship.

Knox Presbyterian.

The services at Knox were largely attended and the evening service was a full choral one. The choir rendered a number of anthems and carols and solos were suns as follows: Mrs. Godsoe, "Hosanna"; Mrs. Fraser, "Fear Ye not O Israel"; Mr. Shaw, "Open the Gates of the Temple": Mr. Stenhouse, "Come see the place where Jesus lay"; Quartette, Mrs. Godsoe, Miss McArthur, Mr. Shaw and Mr. Stenhouse, "The Lord is Risen." Much of the success of the service was due to the work of the organist Miss Wilson. Next Sunday the first anniversanry of the church will be held.
