

MANY NOMINATIONS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED IN STANDARD'S $10,000.00 PRIZE CONTEST

Being Nominated as a Prospective Candidate is a High Tribute to One's Popularity and Ability and Those Nominated Should Prove to Their Friends That They Are Made of the Stuff Which Spells Success by Sending in Their Application and Setting Out to Win a Share of Prizes Offered.

THE FIRST TO START IN THE CONTEST WILL BE FIRST AT THE FINISH.

Last Saturday, The Standard announced its intention to give away more than $10,000.00 worth of valuable prizes to people of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The prizes include automobiles, pianos, phonographs and cash and are offered in return for ten weeks' effort on the part of the public in assisting The Standard to increase the circulation and also to get renewals on their present subscription list. In all sections of the contest territory, there are many people who are already taking The Standard and would gladly renew their subscription if approached by a candidate for one of the valuable prizes offered, these renewals of subscriptions are easy to secure and give the voter their subscription card in large numbers are allowed on these collections. There are also many people not taking The Standard for the very reason that it has not been placed before them with the request that they subscribe, these people when approached by candidates will also be pleased to subscribe and give the voter their subscription card. It takes votes to win the prizes and votes are secured in two ways, viz., by securing subscriptions to The Standard and by clipping the daily vote from the paper. The big results are to be gained by getting subscriptions and those desirous of winning the big prize will go after the subscriptions. Subscriptions will be easy to get if the candidate plans his or her campaign in a businesslike manner and gets started at once in rounding up their friends for their support. Nominations Coming in Fast. Many nominations have been received since the first announcement of the contest and as fast as people are placed in nomination, they are notified by letter with an application blank enclosed for their signature in case they wish to participate in the contest. To be nominated in a contest of this kind is a high tribute to a person's ability and popularity for the person who nominates a candidate sees in that candidate the stuff that makes winners, they are popular and have a way of getting what they go after. If you have received a letter telling you that your name has been nominated, you may rest assured that someone is interested in seeing you win and not only that but they will do all in their power to help you win. If there is a spark of life in you and you can use an automobile or any of the other prizes offered, you should send in the application at once and prove to the people who admire your ability that you can get in and win. There is no district in the contest territory in which there is not room for many more candidates. Those thinking it over should send their applications in at once to the Contest Manager, St. John Standard, St. John, N. B., on or before the expiration date above. Balots must be received flat, not rolled or folded. A list of 62 names of prospective candidates has been received. Every day a prospective candidate hesitates may mean many votes lost, votes which would make them a big winner at the end of the contest. So if you have been notified that your name has been nominated, send your application in at once, tell your friends you have entered the contest and you will find that they will admire you and do everything in their power to make you a winner. No Special Vote Offers. As announced in The Standard, THREE TIMES THE REGULAR NUMBER OF VOTES will be allowed on the first subscription received for a candidate and on the next five subscriptions, twice the regular number of votes will be allowed and credited to a candidate. If the first subscription received for a candidate is for four years by carrier, 12,975 votes will be allowed and credited to a possible vote any candidate can secure on any one subscription, so make your first subscription large ones. There will be no special vote offer during the contest other than on the first six subscriptions.

MR. FOSTER'S PROPOSITION TO ELECT FOUR DELEGATES FROM ST. JOHN DEFEATED

convention road, but Mr. Hennessey said he had left it with the defeated candidates.

The Premier asked what they would do about Albert, and suggested that Albert be authorized to elect two delegates. A motion to this effect was passed.

The Gage of Battle. Mr. Harrington moved that the meeting endorse the action of the convention held a few weeks ago. Mr. Foster—"I don't think you are in order."

Another delegate wanted the call for a convention read. Surely Mr. Foster had authority to show his authority for calling the meeting.

Mr. Foster then read the section of the constitution authorizing the election of delegates in co-operation with the chairman of the Liberal Association to summon local conventions.

A delegate—"You have only read the section. There is another section dealing with the time of the convention July 13th."

Mr. Foster said this had been discussed at the conference of Provincial Premiers, and he had decided that it would be in order to hold conventions at a later date. Many conventions were being held in July.

A delegate—"What is the defeated candidates notified about that, or the chairman of the Liberal Association?"

Mr. Foster—"I don't think so. A voice—"Why not?"

The Legal Question. At this point Michael Kelly arose and said he wanted to say a few words on the legality of the whole proceedings. He held in hand a document from a high official, saying the Premier and Premier had acted properly. He was not altogether satisfied with the recent convention, but he had never questioned the legality of the action of the defeated candidates. The instructions to Drs. Broderick and Emery had never been countermanded. It stood to reason the candidates knew more than the promoters, who were only expected to exercise general supervision. Would the premier have been satisfied if two Catholics and two Protestants had been elected?

Wanted Home Rule. Mr. Kelly did not care what a man's religion was if his character was all right. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Kelly said it would save time and trouble if they endorsed the action of the old convention.

A voice—"It will split the party." Another voice—"It is split already." Mr. Kelly said he was in favor of union, and did not want dissension in the face of the common foe. They could not win an election if they squabbed among themselves. Ireland was without Home Rule, and he was an ardent home ruler, though a Baptist. (Laughter.)

Repudiating the Leader. A. P. Bentley said the Liberal Unionists who went out on the convention quest gave the Borden government a new lease of power. It was for this reason the Provincial Premiers were authorized to call conventions. It was hoped they would be able to avoid a split in the party—the thing that has happened here. At the convention Mr. Foster had been practically repudiated by the party.

A voice—"That is in your estimation." Continuing Mr. Bentley said that with the party the province was leaderless. Mr. Foster had taken a thankless task, won an election, and given them decent government. If they took action, they should be able to avoid a split in the party—the thing that has happened here. At the convention Mr. Foster had been practically repudiated by the party.

Some disorder followed. Voices assented that the Liberal Unionists should have attended the primaries. A delegate rose and said—"There's no split in the Liberal party; the split is in the party that left the Liberal party. If they want to come back, they can. The Premier expects to come back and put it all over us."

Hopeless Plight. Glenon Allen begged for harmony. There should be some possibility of agreement, or they would be defeated. The opposition group was trying to lead the Liberal Unionists, so as to make breach hopeless.

A delegate—"What about the motion to elect a chairman?" Mr. Foster—"I said I would preside if there was no objection."

A voice—"Are you a self-appointed chairman?" Mr. Foster—"The motion is carried."

There was more disorder and cries of "question." J. Fred Belyea said he hoped they were all Liberals, but some were not. He thought the meeting would have a right to vote.

A voice—"Well, how will we get a chairman?" Mr. Belyea said he was not sure but Mr. Foster had not carried out his instructions to consult with the chairman of the local Liberal Association. He thought the meeting would get nowhere and should adjourn.

After Mr. Foster had several times urged the meeting to proceed to business, and was countered by cries of "question," on the motion to elect the chairman, he appointed Mr. Magee and J. O'Brien to act as scrutineers.

A voice—"The Standard will be four cents in the morning." A standing vote was then taken, the scrutineers announcing that the motion was carried, but not giving the vote.

Rebuked Premier. J. A. Barry then reviewed the action leading up to the old convention, and contended that the defeated candidates and Mr. Belyea had acted in good faith. The men who attended the convention were decent citizens and representative of the Liberal politics.

A voice—"What is your politics?" Mr. Barry—"I've never turned my back on Laurier." Continuing Mr. Barry took exception to the Premier's statement that the convention was not representative. If four Catholics were elected, what of it? He would not object if it had been four Protestants.

Mr. Foster—"I would protest." Mr. Barry said they had left Albert an opportunity to elect two Protest-

BOLSHEVIK NEST LOCATED AT THE CAPITAL CITY

The Attorney General's Department Carefully Watching Those Supposed to be Connected With Spreading Bolshevik Teachings.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, July 10.—There are two nests of radicals with strong Bolshevik tendencies in Fredericton and district, according to information gleaned in the course of enquiry into circumstances surrounding the distribution of Bolshevik propaganda here.

One of these nests has its headquarters here, and it is said that but few, if any, of the alien population of the city, have any connection with the combination. The other gathering is located in Sarny County and recently it was reported that a public meeting for Orancton, but for some unknown reason the meeting did not take place.

In fact the attorney general's department has been carefully watching every move which has been made by those supposed to be connected with the promotion of Bolshevik propaganda for some time, and consideration has even been given the proposal of taking criminal action against one of the leaders of the radicals.

A voice—"Why should Ottawa select our delegates for us?" After further discussion a motion to proceed to the election of delegates was put and a standing vote taken.

Mr. Foster—"The scrutineers declare the motion lost." The standing order of the meeting on the question was not announced, but it was about in the proportion of 2 to 1. The meeting then adjourned.

SITUATION AT SYDNEY BORDERS ON THE SERIOUS

Miners March to the City Council Chamber and Demand Either Positions or Relief be Given Them.

Sydney, N. S., July 10.—Due to the closing down of the collieries at Sydney Mines a serious situation is reported to exist in that town. Last night hundreds of steel workers and miners marched to the City Council chamber, and a committee of the men laid their case before the councillors, demanding that either positions or relief be given them immediately. This afternoon, according to a report received here, the men held a great demonstration at which J. B. McLaughlin, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers, was one of the principal speakers. The men were in an extremely determined mood, and threatened drastic action if the situation was not relieved immediately. Already telegrams have been sent to the Prime Minister and to Hon. Gideon Robertson, Minister of Labor, informing them of conditions and demanding that the Government take action to reopen the mines and steel works, the latter are entirely closed down. The Sydney Mines workers are especially bitter against the Government. They claim that the Government has failed to take any action to reopen the mines and steel works, the latter are entirely closed down. ## THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

What It Is and How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Many Instances

SHOULD BE PRESCRIBED BY EVERY DOCTOR AND USED IN EVERY HOSPITAL Says Editor of "Physicians' Who's Who."

Take plain bitro-phosphate is the advice of these physicians to thin, delicate, nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of its preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men, women and children who feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and sold by the Ross Drug Co., in St. John, and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly, and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Clinical tests made in St. Catherine's Hospital, N. Y. C., showed that two patients gained in weight 23 and 27 pounds, respectively, through the administration of organic phosphate; both patients claim they have not felt so strong and well for the past twelve years.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

Physicians and hospitals everywhere are now recommending its merits by its use in ever increasing quantities. Frederick Kott, M.D., editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who," says: "Bitro-Phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood." Joseph D. Harrison, Former Visiting Specialist to North Eastern Dispensary, says: "Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, anemic, or run-down, take a natural, unadulterated substance such as bitro-phosphate and you will soon see some astonishing results in the increase of nerve energy, strength of body and mind and power of endurance."

Bitro-Phosphate is made entirely of the organic phosphate compound referred to in the National Standard Dispensary as being an excellent tonic and nerve and a preparation which has recently acquired considerable reputation in the treatment of neurasthenia. The standard of excellence, strength and purity of its substance is beyond question, for every Bitro-Phosphate tablet is manufactured in strict accordance with the U. S. Pharmacopoeia test requirements.

Bitro-Phosphate is therefore a potent medicine and should not be confused with any of the secret nostrums, so-called tonics or widely advertised "cure-alls."

Caution:—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unadulterated for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its tendency to increase weight it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on

Work Accomplished By The N. B. Branch

Comprehensive Report of Canadian Red Cross Activities Shown in Booklet Sent to All Chartered Branches Throughout Province.

The work which was accomplished by the New Brunswick Branch of the Canadian Red Cross in the years of the war is strikingly set forth in a most comprehensive report compiled by Miss Elsie V. N. Clements, secretary of the branch and copies of this booklet are being sent to all the chartered branches throughout the province. Facing the title page is a splendid photo of Lady Tilly, organizing president of the provincial branch, and to whose energy and self-sacrificing activities much of the success of the organization is due.

The work of the epigrammuous, provincial hospitals, provincial Red Cross port committees and that done for the Halifax homeless and during the influenza epidemic is also covered by the report.

A full list of the number of beds covered and the donors, in the Duchess of Cornwall and Princess Patricia Hospitals and for the "Bervery" at the Paris Hospital is given showing that 102 beds in the former and 88 in the latter and the sum of $1,936 for the "Bervery" had been the offering of New Brunswick.

A list of 62 names of prisoners of war to whom the New Brunswick Branch sent parcels while in Germany is given. The financial statement shows that the sum of $100,164.88 was received at provincial headquarters for the general work in addition to large sums sent direct to the Red Cross and the money raised for special objects such as the British Red Cross, France's Day, etc. From New Brunswick there was sent through the Red Cross 11,782 Christmas stockings.

Among the list of articles sent overseas might be mentioned the following: Knitted articles, 170,192; hospital garments, 11,916; surgical garments, 11,689; linen, bedding, etc., 129,466; about 146,000 bandages, dressings, etc., in which is included 35,292 epigrammuous dressings, 1,000 ties, 1,112 pounds of yarn, 360 yards of hospital gauze and many others.

A full list of the chartered branches in the province and a report of their activities is given. The list of life members, totaling 1,076, is also given.

The book is one which will be treasured for the record it contains of the work of those who did their bit at home in looking after the welfare of the boys who did their part so nobly on the battlefields of France and Flanders.

ZDEOSKI VS. PIDGEON.

Hearing in the case of Zdeoski vs. Pidgeon, which was commenced on Wednesday afternoon, was resumed yesterday morning at 10 o'clock before Mr. Justice Wilson in chambers.

This is an action for the rescission of an agreement for sale of a lot of land situated on the corner of Main and Bridge streets, St. John. The plaintiff claims that the property alleged to have been sold was subject to a mortgage of $4,000 to Albert V. Vanwart, which mortgage was then and still remains undischarged and which was recorded at the office of the Registrar of Deeds for the City and County of Saint John. The plaintiff claims that he was not aware of this mortgage at the time of signing the agreement for sale and of the existence of a certain party wall.

M. G. Teed, counsel for the defendant, held that there was no evidence of any party wall agreement and of any search of title had been made. He said that if there was a mortgage, it could be discharged by the time of the trial. H. V. Belyea appeared for the plaintiff.
