

Through various fund raising ventures (Sneaker Day, Car Wash, Hot Tub Giveaway and Dunk Tank), we were able to raise a total of $2,433.90 to contribute to Camp Easter Seals. By far, our most successful venture was the dunk tank. It seems that a lot of cadets were more than anxious to contribute once they found out that the dunkees were the Drill Staff!!

COMMUNITY CONSTABLES COURSE — JUNE 23-JULY 17, 1996. Troop 104 from the Northwest Territories was the second group to attend training at the RCMP Training Academy. The Candidates came from all over the N.W.T. and all successfully completed the course. Kudos to Cst. Lew Philips and S/Sgt. Chris Bergman of "G" Division for co-ordinating this course and congratulations to all for a job well done.
