DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, Hardware, Drugs, &c. The DRY GOODS in par icular, comprising a large and varied asso tment of Fancy Goods, Muslin and Balege, Dresses, Prints, Shawls, Bonnets and Hats, Ribbons, Flowers, &c., were purchased before the late advance. in the Tariff of Duties, and will consequently be found MUCH CHEAPER than any that can now be brought in.

He would also take this opportunity of sincerely thanking his friends for the liveral patronage with which they have favoured him for these last lew years; and at the same scription of Goods can be purchased in any conducting his business on an en irely different A Large Stock of Fresh GROCERIES principle from formerly. All goods will now be marked at the Lowest Cash Price, and credit Customers will therefore buy their good at Cash Prices, but will also have to pay interest of one per cent. per month upon their purchases so long as they leave them unpaid. This he feels convinced will be by far the best mode that could be adoped, a it obvia es the necessity of having I wo Prices, and consequently avoids all difficulty which may rise fom one Customer bei g charged m re than another, for both Cash and Credit Cutomers will receive their Goods at the same Price, only that the Credit Customer pays uterest for his accommodation. lo accordance with this determination of carrying on his business in this method, he has RE-MARKED the whole of his to mer Stock, in order that the old may be as cheap
