JUSTLY CENSURED

The presence of Sir Wilfred Laurier and other public men at a luncheon given in honor of John Redmond and his Irish associates, who are touring North America in the interests of the Boer cause and, incidentally, home rule, is a proceeding which should be deplored by every patriotic Canadian, Liberal and Conservative alike.

Toronto, November 26.—The Evening Telegram's London cable says:—Commenting on the despatch that the Canadian premier and other public men had been present at a luncheon given to John Redmond and co-nationalists by the Irish societies of Ottawa, the Globe says:

"It is with great regret that we read of the presence of Sir Wilfred Laurier and two of his colleagues at a luncheon given to the Irish delegate at Ottawa. The appearance at the same table of the patriot statesman who organized contingents of loyal Canadians for active service in South Africa with the Irishman who has publicly prayed that heaven may bring success to the boers is an anomaly of a mournful type. The blood of those Canadians who fell at Paardeberg and on fifty other stricken fields cries out against such a meeting, and if it be true that the vice royal controller of the household and Earl Minto's aide de camp were present at a subsequent demonstration official notice must be taken of it."

The St. James Gazette says: "We should have thought John Redmond's attitude on the war should have saved us from such an extraordinary spectacle; but whatever the Canadian ministers might do, it is absolutely wrong that officials of the government's household should be allowed to associate themselves with the open enemies of England."

The Average Law Suit

There is nothing more ridiculous than the average law suit. Two men dispute over a few dollars and go to law. Both are sure to lose. Their neighbors are dragged in as witnesses, and the costs amount to 10 or 20 times the amount in dispute. Frequently these lawsuits ruin families and start quarrels that last for years. Some men claim it is "principle" that actuates them in these lawsuits. It is bullheadedness, pure and simple. It is nearly always easy to "split the difference."

Another bad feature about these lawsuits is that the country is put to considerable expense, and men willing to work are compelled to sit on jury. Settle your disputes without going to law. If the man with whom you are disputing is not willing to "split the difference," he will probably accept a proposition to leave it to three neighbors.

The leading features of the new Manitoba Liquor law are: The entire sale of liquor for beverage purpose is prohibited. They are only two classes of licenses provided for a druggist's wholesale license and a druggist's retail license. Only druggists, duly qualified and licensed as such, can dispense alcohol, and only on a doctor's prescription for each and every sale. Liquor cannot even be given in any place whatsoever other than in the private dwelling place of the giver. It can be supplied for churches only to ministers. A record of every sale must be kept open to all. The penalties are exceedingly severe—if enforced practically prohibitive.—Exchange.

KITCHENER'S STRIKING ARMY London, November 28.—A despatch to the Times from Pretoria says there are still seventy recognized commandos and bands of Boers ranging in strength from 50 to 400 men, in the field, of which 23 are in the Transvaal, 31 in the Orange River Colony and 16 in Cape Colony. The task of running them down must necessarily be slow, but it is sure. There is no ground for impatience. Lord Kitchener's striking army at present amounts to only 45,000 men, and the more men he is enabled to put in the field the sooner the end will come.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference. Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion. Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

Kempt Shore

Nov. 30th.—On the morning of Wednesday Nov. 27th, an animal supposed to be a young moose was observed in the meadow of Mr. A. Green, chasing the sheep. A number were soon in pursuit, as it was easy to track in the light snow. On sighting it again it was discovered to be a deer, presumably one of those placed in the woods by the G.M. Society. Later it was seen there were more than one and that they had been freely browsing some young apple trees. One man has also discovered one sheep dead and another badly hurt, for which the deer are held responsible.

Our teacher Mrs. Miller and Miss Desnoere are spending Thanksgiving holiday at their homes.

Mr. J. B. Armstrong is slowly recovering from his severe attack of Typhoid and is expected home soon.

At the time of Nicholas Flood Davin's death it was mentioned that he had recently been at work on a new novel. It now appears that the work which dealt with scenes of his earlier years, had actually been finished. It is called "Dorsal Ray," and may be expected shortly to pass into the printer's hands.
