

COUNTIES—

A Warden to be appointed.—sec. 35, p. 31.

Powers and duties of Municipal Councils for Counties.—secs. 36, 37, 38, 39, 40. pp. 31 to 33 inclusive.

Enumeration of purposes for which Municipal Councils may make By-laws.—sec. 41, p. 33 to 38.

Warden shall be the Head of Council.—sec. 108, p. 71.

CROWN : None can vote, or be elected or appointed under this Act who shall not at the time be a natural born or naturalized Subject of the Crown and 21 years of age.—sec. 121, p. 75.

DEBENTURES or Promissory Notes,—Corporation may issue new ones for redemption or gradual extinction of any granted by any Corporation before 1st Jan. 1849.—sec. 182, p. 100. But may not issue any under £25, unless for an express purpose, under the authority of a By-Law sanctioned by the Governor.—sec. 183, p. 160.

DISQUALIFICATIONS of certain persons for election as Aldermen or Councillors.—sec. 132, p. 79.

ELECTION : If person appointed to take the same be dead or absent, electors present on the appointed day may elect a Returning Officer for themselves.—sec. 154, p. 86.

Hours of election to be from 11 to 4 p. m., on the first day— from 10 to 4 on the following day ; but election may be closed on either day if one hour elapse without a vote given.—sec. 159, p. 88.

Duty of Returning Officer at.—sec. 160, p. 89.

If person elected refuse to serve, a Warrant for a new election must issue.—sec. 162, p. 90.

To fill up vacancies in Corporation.—sec. 163, p. 90.

Special, upon vacancy occurring, to have four days public notice.—sec. 164, p. 90.

In case no election shall take place when appointed what shall be done.—sec. 165, p. 90.

EMBEZZLEMENT : what shall be deemed under this Act, and how punished.—sec. 174, p. 93.

EXECUTION : Writ of against Corporation—duty of Sheriff thereon.—sec. 179, p. 96.

EXEMPTIONS from election to Office under this Act, sec. 131, p. 78.

FERRIES : Governor to regulate such as this Act does not place under jurisdiction of Corporations.—sec. 145, p. 83.

GAOLS, belonging to Counties, when used by City or Town Corporations situate within the limits of such Counties or on the borders, compensation, to be awarded by arbitrators, must be paid to the County Corporation.—sec. 200, p. 109.