

known and understood as such, and not to troops or military pensioners and their families who are carried in transports or at the expense of the Imperial Government: the 5 word "Quarantine" shall apply to Grosse Isle or other places at which such Quarantine shall be directed to be performed; and any word importing the singular number shall include a plurality of persons or things, unless 10 there be something in the context inconsistent with such interpretation.