

he shall set the dials at zero and show the box to such persons as are present, and he shall then cover the dials, lock the box and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent it being opened without breaking the seal and he shall then place the machine in position for the casting of votes.

11. Immediately after the machine is locked and placed in position, the deputy returning officer shall call upon the electors to vote. Calling voters.

12. Not more than one elector shall at any one time enter the room where the poll is held, and each elector upon so entering shall declare his name, surname and addition, which shall be entered or recorded by the poll clerk in the poll book provided for the purpose, which shall be kept in form F in the schedule to this Act, and if the same are found on the list of voters for the polling district of such polling station he shall receive from the deputy returning officer a voting pellet. Regulations for voting.

2. Such elector, if required by the deputy returning officer, the poll clerk, one of the candidates, or one of their agents, or by any elector present, shall, before receiving the voting pellet, take the oath of qualification in the form G in the schedule to this Act, which oath the deputy returning officer and poll clerk are each hereby authorized to administer. Oath to be taken by voter if required.

13. The elector, on receiving the voting pellet, shall forthwith proceed into the voting compartment and shall deposit the pellet in the circular opening through the lid of the box in the section containing the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. Mode of voting.

14. Immediately after the elector has deposited his pellet he shall return into the presence of the deputy returning officer, and such officer shall forthwith turn the shaft or crank holding the voting pellet so that it may be released and enter the tube provided, thus causing a vote to be registered. Duty of deputy returning officer.

15. While the elector is in the voting compartment for the purpose of casting his vote no other person shall be allowed to enter the compartment or to be in any position from which he can observe the voter cast his vote. Secrecy in casting vote.

16. Every elector shall vote without undue delay and shall quit the polling station so soon as the voting pellet shall have been returned from the machine to the deputy returning officer. Despatch to be used.

17. The deputy returning officer, upon the application of any voter who is unable to read or who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed in this Act, shall assist such voter by causing his vote to be cast in the manner directed by such voter in the presence of the sworn agents of the candidates or of the sworn electors representing them in the polling station and of no other person, and the deputy returning officer shall require the voter making such application before voting to make oath of Voter unable to read, etc.