

32333

435 Mackham Street,
Ottawa, April 27, 1917.

Dear Mr. King.

My physician has advised me today that I should not resume work until at least the first of June.

I only wish I could have informed you many weeks ago of this possibility, but until today I had confidently looked forward to a much earlier return to the office.

Under the circumstances -