

136493

April 30, 1928.

Mr. Wm. S. Bennett,
100 West Monroe St.,
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Judge Bennett:

It would be most ungrateful of me if I did not put in writing my sense of appreciation of the splendid treatment which you gave me in Chicago. Absolutely nothing was left undone to make the trip pleasant and worth while in every way, and this was owing to the generosity of yourself and the Edward Hinds Company.

Visits of this kind were more or less common to me up until my retirement from public life, but the Chicago venture is the first I have indulged in since, and the memory will remain with me as long as I live. I thank you very much indeed.

Kindly extend an expression of gratitude to Mr. Hinds and his sons.

Yours very truly,

AM/E.

Arthur Meighen.