

would therefore be to give him the receipt of the payment twice.

As you desire to cancel his order by the duplicate cheque, Braant should make an affidavit as to the facts in connection with the cashing or loss of the cheque; and if evidence shows that no one ever received value for the cheque, it would be possible to accept a bond drawn in the usual form and issue a duplicate cheque.

Yours obedient servant

H. T. Lush

for Deputy of the Supt Genl
of Ind<sup>s</sup> Affairs

3