

to the trip. In it is really great fun on these splendid roads and with all the conveniences that travel in America affords.

Dyon is working hard and I expect will be increasingly busy as the final steams draw near.

He has succeeded at last in getting a print on a historical scene - his particular bete noir.

Whatever the ultimate outcome, he has worked as faithfully as a boy could. Mr. Malcolm Scott Dennis saw him in Toronto a few weeks ago, and brought me a wonderful report of how well and happy he is.

Again with many thanks for all you thing at I we and mine and with best wishes for the present session
