Quebec" diverges from the main line. Proceeding, we pass through a beautifully picturesque country to the city of Sherbrooke, and on to Island Pond, Vt., which lies in a pass through the eastern range of the Green Mountains of Vermont, on the summit of the divide between the Connecticut and St. Lawrence River system, 1,250 feet above sea-level, where mountain peaks raise their stately heads to a height of 4,000 feet. The surrounding mountains temper the heat of summer to agreeable coolness and produce unrivalled scenery. The high altitude insures purest air and consequent freedom from pulmonary and catarrhal affections. The stream and lakes surrounding are alive with trout and black bass, many of the waters being stocked annually by the State government. The drives through the country are unexcelled, and with first-class hotel accommodation it is a
