VIEWS OF WASHINGTON CONVENTION.

In another hour of intercession Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, of Princeton, held the audience spellbound as he recited the great missionary passages of the New Testament, woven together into one narrative, ending with a new Hallelujah chorus of the Redeemed from every land and nation.

The Washington convention reminded one of the words of Count Zinzendorf. Ich habe nur ein passion es ist er und er allein. "I have only one passion, it is He and He alone." The chief strength of the Washington convention was that there Jesus Christ was given His rightful place of preeminence.

Samuel M. Zwemer, of Cairo.

A THOUSAND YEARS OF MEDICAL SCIENCE

In 1819 Rev. John Scudder, M.D., sailed, with his wife, for India beginning his work in Ceylon early in the year 1820. The story of the Scudders is a marvelous one. Children, grandchildren, and great grand-children have followed in the steps of John Scudder, this one family giving in four generations a thousand years of Missionary service for the greater part of India. The great outstanding need of all our Foreign Mission Boards today is for medical men and women, to carry on this work of compassion in foreign lands, in the name of our Master.—Centenary of Medical Missions.

TO GIVE IS TO LIVE

To give is to live,
He is dead whose hand is not open wide
To help the need of a human brother,
He doubles the length of a life long ride,
Who gives his fortunate place to another;
And a thousand million lives are his
Who carries the world in his sympathies.
To give is to live.

J. R. Lowell.
