be hoped that the society will soon be in a position to support a missionary, and who better than one of our own graduates?

INTEREST IN MISSIONS.

Lord Cairns relates this incident:—In Belfast, a little chimney-sweep happened to be attracted by missions, and contributed two-pence, no small sum for a chimney-sweep. One afternoon, a friend met him going along the street in an unusual condition; face and hands washed clean, and he dressed in his best. "Hallo! where are you going?" "Oh! I am going to a missionary meeting." "A missionary meeting! What for?" "Well," said the sweep, "you see I have become a sort of partner in the concern, and I a n going to see how the business is getting on."

Let us be partners in the concern, and let us see how the business is getting on! At least once a month let us look into its affairs, remembering we are not only partners, but fellow-workers with those in the field, and with the Master Himself.—From Advantages of Missionary Literature.
