HOME, SWEET HOME.

I turned an ancient poet's book,
And found upon the page:
"Stone walls do not a prison make,
Nor iron bars a cage."
Yes, that is true, and something more.
You'll find wher'er you roam,
That marble floors and gilded walls
Can never make a home.
But every house where Love abides,
And friendship is a guest,
Is surely home, and home sweet home,
For there the heart can rest.

WHAT THE SANDWICH WAS FOR.

A stately old professor was approached by a young student one day in one of the Western colleges. Trying hard to keep back a smile, the young man asked:
"Professor, you say you are an expert at solving riddles, don't you?"
"I claim that I am, my boy."
"Well, then, can you tell me why a man who has seen London on a foggy day and a man who has not seen London on a foggy day are like a ham sandwich?"
The professor studied for a long time, venturing several answers, which proved to be wrong. Finally, at his wit's end, he said:
"I give it up."
"Give it up," repeated the professor.
"Why," was the reply, "one has seen the mist and the other has missed the scene."

"Ha ha! Catch on!"
"Of course, I do, you lunatic." But what has the sandwich to do with it?"
After the youngster had recovered from a spell of laughter, he chuckled:
"Oh, that's what you bite on."

IN A KITCHEN GARDEN.

"Pray tell me why," the onion asked,
"In all this blazing sun,
I should be wrapped in seven coats
When I don't need but one?"
"I cannot see you, all my friends,"
The corn said, "I am blind;
But as for ears, no better ones
Than mine you'll ever find."

Up jumped a little vegetable
Whose face was round and red,
"I'd like to see the man alive
I could not beat," he said.

"Your faculties," the pea-vine cried,
"Dear friends, I won't dispute;
But my bud has grown a pistol,
And I think it's going to shoot."

"I never," said a carrot small,
That grew beside the walk,
"Heard anything in all my life
The way these stem-beans osstalk."

For fear that I should laugh aloud,
I had to run away
I met those merry folks again
At dinner time next day.

Cecilia Channing Ward

WHY THE
BISSELL
IS BEST

Because the "Bissell" is built for business it lasts for years and gives satisfactory service all the time. It is made strong and durable to stand any strain. Steel drums with solid pressed steel heads well riveted; axle of 2 in. solid steel, frame of hardwood reinforced with double truss rods and steel angles make it rigid and stout. Bearings are large anti-friction rollers fitted with rollers which reduce friction to the minimum. The "Bissell" is the lightest draft roller ever built. Nothing flimsy or shoddy about it. Free Booklet tells why you should buy the "Bissell." Write today.
