

his instructions, to Barrackpore, where he was making arrangements to commence his work among the soldiers.

Mr. Brindley, himself, after visiting Poonah, Bombay, Kurruck, Ahmednager, and other places, has been led to fix his headquarters at Kurruck, where he arrived in October, and found nearly three thousand European soldiers.

At the date of the last advices the work had extended to Kurruck, a place about five miles from the camp.

Obituary Notices.

JOSEPH DOGGERT, the subject of the following brief notice, died at Whisp Point, in the 52nd year of his age, on the 30th April 1860.

For more than sixteen months Mr. Doggert had suffered from that wasting disease, consumption; during which time he conducted himself with exemplary patience. He had lived an industrious, obliging neighbour, a kind husband, and affectionate father; but up to within a few months of his death he had not obtained an assurance that his peace was made with God.

He was enabled to rejoice in hope of the glory of God through the world's Redeemer. Many of his neighbours quickly assembled and heard from his own lips the new songs of praise God had put in his mouth.

A prayer-meeting for that morning had been appointed in his brother's house near by. To it he was assisted, being very weak, and as others were rising and declaring the goodness of the Lord, the arose scarcely able to stand, and with low but thrilling accents he told what great things Jesus had done for him.

He departed our brother, leaving a sorrowing widow and seven children to mourn his loss. But they mourn not as those without hope. May God bring them all to meet him again where parting is no more.

Provincial Wesleyan

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1860.

In consequence of the official relation which this paper bears to the Wesleyan Missionary Society, it is necessary that it should be published under the authority of the Board of the Society.

British and Foreign Bible Society.

A friend has furnished us with a copy of the London Record, containing a full account of the most interesting meeting held in Exeter Hall on the 22nd ult. Compelled by the limited space at our disposal to defer the remarks which we had intended to offer upon the present position of the Society, we must be content with placing before our readers a brief summary of the Report given in the Record, which will richly repay perusal, and to the encouraging statements in which it is not improbable we may refer in a future number.

dured the labour of the colporteur doubly important. The distribution was 19,080 copies, making a total of 22,477. In Central Europe the circulation of the year reached the unprecedented amount of $79,187 copies.

The General Conference.

From the Central Christian Advocate we draw the following statements regarding the proceedings of this important body: THE WORK OF GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Progresses slowly. An immense number of petitions have been presented on various subjects, but chiefly on slavery, and against a change of rule.

Letter from Rev. W. Burt.

MY DEAR BROTHER,—It has been highly gratifying to me through your kindness to have had the continued opportunity of perusing the Provincial Wesleyan, and to mark the progress of the work of God among you, and especially in those parts the names of which are familiar to me, and to find that several of my old friends ministers and people, are still continued in the vineyard of the Lord.
