Personals.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. Munro is able to be at church again. We hope for a fuller restoration to health.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. R. Fewster as members with us at Town Line. They hail from Dover. Also to Mr. Goodyear and family, from Highgate, we extend cordial greetings.

Bro. C. Saywell is much interested in S. S. Work and is as "punctual as lovers to the moment sworn." He is surrounded with good helpers who never weary in the service.

Mrs. M. Hunt deserves a thankful recognition of her services in caring for the weekly envelopes and general finances. Paul makes grateful mention of "Those women which labored with me in the gospel."

Mrs. Mills, whose name appears in the list at Town Line, has reached the advanced age of 109 years and is still able to meet with us occasionally in church fellowship, for which we are all truly grateful.
