VETERAN BANKER QUITS HIS POST

Col. John Ballachey of Sioux City Retires After 23 Years Service

KNOWN IN BRANTFORD

Is Uncle of Late Major Ballachey and Other Local Residents

(Sioux City Tribune.)

When Colonel John Ballachey, for the past 23 years manager of the real estate department and loan examiner for the Farmers Loan and Trust company, severs his connections September 1 with the interests with which he has so long been identified and harks to the call of California, the land of sunshine and flowers, Sioux City will lose one of her oldest and most revered citizens.

Colonel Ballachey is not giving up his work because of ill health, but simply because he feels the need of a rest. "I've been in harness a long time," he declared to-day, "and I want to see what it seems like to be a loafer for a time." Colonel Ballachey the real estate department home on Jennings street has been leased by Ralph Haley, who has already taken possession. Colonel and Mrs. Ballachey will depart the first of the month for an extended trip through the Canadian Rockies, after which they will proceed to Long Beach, Cal., where they have leased a bungalow for the winter.

"I can't say whether I shall remain in California permanently or not," Colonel Ballachey said. "I am afraid that I shall get restless doing nothing and want to get back into harness again. It is altogether possible that I shall return next year when I am thoroughly rested and take up my work in Sioux City again.

"It is a source of great satisfaction to me," Colonel Ballachey declared, "to know that not once during all the years that I have been connected with the Toy interests has this institution repudiated a contract, foreclosed a farm loan mortgage or met with an undertaking too large or too small for it to handle.

In reminiscing upon his early experiences in Sioux City, Colonel Ballachey commented upon the rapid growth the city has made in the past few years and predicted for it a still brighter future. "When I first came to Sioux City in August, 1890," he said, "I alighted from the train at the Northwestern station, which was then a small place connected with the Cheyney hotel, an establishment noted here at that time for its excellent meals and low prices. As I walked up Jackson street that day for the first time, I noticed a gang of workmen pumping out water for pile driving on the southeast corner of Fourth and Jackson. This was the commencement of the seven-story building built by Mr. Toy and afterwards known as the Toy block. It was one of the offices to be destroyed in the great fire of December 24, 1904. I little thought that first day that I was so soon to become so intimately connected with the Toy building and the Toy interests.

Although Colonel Ballachey, who gained his title through service in the Canadian army, is too old to take part in the present conflict, he is well represented by his descendants. One niece, Mr M. G. Ballachey, has been serving as a nurse in France for the past three years, and one nephew, Maj. P. P. Ballachey, lost his life to the cause and lies buried in Belgium. One grandson, L. R. Gaynor, Jr., of Des Moines, was recently appointed a second lieutenant at the conclusion of the officers' training school at Fort Snelling, and another John Ballachey Lyon, of Sioux City, is a midshipman in the naval training school at Annapolis, and during the past summer has been in service on the U.S.S. Louisiana.

Colonel Ballachey's successor as agent for the Toy real estate interests and examiner for loans has not yet been named.

CONSUL THREATENED

By Courier Leased Wire.

Odessa, Aug. 23.—During a manifestation here yesterday a member of the Balsheviki attacked American Consul Ray and knocked off his hat where upon a number of Hooligans surrounded the consul and declared they would shoot everyone who failed to take off their hats in their presence. The public intervened in defense of the consul and the disturbers disappeared.

HARD OR SOFT OR ANY KIND OF CORN

You reckless men and women who are peppered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply shrivel the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

Rippling Rhymes
by Walt Mason

Jim Brick was hewing wood for me, a wholesome, cheerful fellow, so husky he was good to see, without a touch of yellow. And while, to earn a shining bone, he plied the ax, stout-hafted, his father called him up by phone, and said, "My boy, you're draftd!" An instant Jim looked rather sick; perhaps he thought of mother, and all the family of Brick, the sister and the brother. A sweat stood out upon his brow, I saw his pale lips quiver, and thought, "Alas, this young man, now, has got a chicken's liver." A moment Jim looked full of care then raised a cheer ful holler: "I'm glad I'm called to do my share, you bet your bottom dollar! So for this day my labor ends —he news this fact determines—I want to go and tell my friends that I'll be potting Germans. I want to tell a certain girl that I have been elected to make the kaiser's whiskers curl, and make the prinz dejected." I handed Jim a bunch of flowers and said, "Go, do your playing; I'll only dock you seven hours when come the time for paying." When he was gone my eyes grew dim with patriotic fervor. "The country's safe while boys like Jim," I said, "are here to serve her!"

Tired Mothers. It is hard work to take care of children and to work, sweep, wash, sew and mend besides. Tired mothers should take Hood's Sarsaparilla—it refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, assures restful sleep, and helps in many ways.

Are You an Asset to Canada— or are You a Liability?

ARE you helping to win the War? Or could Canada put up a better fight without you?

Are you working—saving—paying—to back up the men at the front? Or are you loafing—wasting—spending on selfish indulgences the money that should be loaned to the Nation?

Man-power is at a premium! The time and strength of every man in Canada should be devoted whole-heartedly to really useful work—work that will help, directly or indirectly, in the Struggle.

Food is short the world over! Every housewife in Canada should devote herself earnestly to the problem of conserving it—of feeding our people well, yet economically and without waste.

Everyone should save—and lend the savings to the nation!

Canada needs every dollar you can invest in War Savings Certificates, and for every $21.50 you loan now, she will repay you $25.00 at the end of three years—or you can get your money back at any time. Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, which may be purchased at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.
