Stratford Presbytery.

A pro re nata meeting of the Presbytery of Stratford was held in Knox church, Stratford, on Tuesday, Oct. 14, for the disposal of the call to the Rev. David Perrie, of Nissouri, from Geneva church, Chesley. The representative from the Bruce Presbytery, Rev. Donald McKenzie, and those from the congregation of Chesley being heard, and also those from Nissouri, the call was put into the hands of the Rev. D. Perrie and accepted. His brethren of the Presbytery having expressed their regret at the loss of one who was so highly esteemed by them all, moved that his translation take place after the 26th inst., that his pulpit be preached vacant on the 2nd of Nov., and that Rev. John Campbell, of Granton, act as Moderator during the vacancy. That ended the business.

Perth Chancery Sittings.

The fall term of the Perth Chancery circuit was opened on Monday, Oct. 13, by Mr. Justice Robertson whose impaired hearing was a source of discomfort to solicitors and witnesses.

MCGRATH VS JONES, ET AL.—This was a North Easthope case against the estate of the late William Jones to recover money loaned to Mr. Jones. Decree against executors for $371.50. Idington & Palmer for plaintiff; McPherson & Davidson for defendants.

ZILLIAX VS DEANS.—The parties to this suit reside in Listowel, and it was brought to have certain conveyances of land declared fraudulent against the creditors of John Deans. Judgment reserved. Mr. Mabee and Mr. Darling (Listowel) for plaintiff; Idington & Palmer for defendants.

DORFLING V. BANK OF HAMILTON.—Action to set aside a transfer of land in Manitoba. Postponed. Mabee & Gearing for plaintiff; Mr. Scott (Hamilton) for defendants.

PETHICK V. CORRIE.—Action by the widow against the executors of the estate of the late Wm. Pethick. Decree for plaintiff by consent. Mabee & Gearing for plaintiff; McPherson & Davidson for defendants.

The other cases were the following: Bank of Hamilton v. J. W. Scott et al.
T. E. P. Traw v. Peter Lilloco et al.

Perth County Notes.

James Keefe an 85-year-old resident of Biddulph is dead.

The gate and hall receipts on the Mitchell fair day this year were nearly $50 in excess of last year.

A. F. Smith, who has been running the Millbank woolen mills for some time, has removed to Chesley.

Wm. Martyn, Mitchell, has purchased R. O. Smith's house and lot in the south ward. The price paid was $900.

W. B. Harrison, formerly of the St. Marys Argus, has relinquished journalism for the more lucrative calling of organizer for the Independent Order of Foresters.

St. Marys will get out plans for an $8,000 town hall. Messrs. Jones, Peters and McBride, of London, Alex. Hepburn, of Stratford, and H. Dixon, of St. Marys, will be asked to get out plans in competition.

The creditors of Chas. Pollner, Mitchell, met in Mr. Ormiston's office on Wednesday afternoon of last week, but no definite conclusion was arrived at. The liabilities are something in the neighborhood of $900 and the stock in hand about $500.

Rev. John Scott, of Wingham, will preach the anniversary sermons in Trafalgar street church, Mitchell, on Sunday, Nov. 2. Trafalgar St. Methodists are preparing to give a big dinner on Thanksgiving day under the auspices of the Sabbath school.

The Hibbert Agricultural Society are much encouraged by the result of their fall show held the other day. The receipts are about $25 in excess of any former year, and the exhibits in most lines were much superior to what was seen at the Mitchell show.

Miss Annie Kirby, of the 4th line, Blanshard, was presented with a silver tilting pitcher by her friends in the Methodist Sunday school on the occasion of her marriage to John Shears, of Durham. An address read by Rev. John Kenner accompanied the presentation.

James Watson, a prominent farmer of the 14th con. Logan, died very suddenly on Tuesday morning of last week from the effects of a paralytic stroke. Deceased was a faithful adherent of the Presbyterian church and a good neighbor. He leaves a wife and grown up family to mourn his departure.

The Fullarton collector will soon be on his rounds, and it will be well for people to be ready for him, as the council have passed a by-law imposing 5 per cent. on all taxes unpaid by Dec. 14. The council found it necessary to do so as so much of the taxes is late in being paid, some even as late as the last of February, so that in common with other townships they have adopted this plan for the more speedy collection of the taxes.
