Sacrifice Sale Of Holiday Left-Overs.

We have had a phenomenal holiday trade this year, but with as big a stock as we had we expected to have part of it left over. This we now want to dispose of as rapidly as possible.

We Need the Room

We have not sufficient space to display our regular lines and have no place to store holiday goods.

We Can Use the Money

We never sell old goods at the price of new and prefer to make this sacrifice now and have the use of the money.

Too Many to Invoice

We do not want to have to invoice this holiday remnant line and in the frequent handling of them there would be sure to be breakages, so we cut the price to make it an object for you to take them off our hands.

We Want all New Goods

for next year's trade. Buying a big new stock we can take advantages in the matter of price and besides, we prefer to have a brand new stock each year.
