RED STOREKENTVILLE
Aug. 8th, 1918.Wreck Flour

We have bought 450 BAGS flour taken from wreck off Yarmouth coast.

Owing to the scarcity of Bran and Middlings which are unobtainable at the present time, and the demand for pig feed at this season of the year being heavy we expect this flour to sell rapidly. Many bags are probably fit for family use.

WEAVER'SChautauqua Has Gone

The whole week of Chautauqua has passed and on Tuesday evening after the closing performance the big brown tent was taken down to return to Maine until next year.

While there were some who criticized the bringing of Chautauqua here in a war year when money seems so necessary for the purpose of carrying on the conflict yet generally the public was delighted. The large audience showed their appreciation from the opening day to the close. The lecturers were all men of repute and had a message worth while. Dr. Coan while not eloquent carried his hearers along with him as he recited his harrowing tale of Armenia. None failed to be interested in his discourse. Dr. Harmon's lecture was argumentative, scholarly and of deep interest and on the closing night Mr. Frank Dixon maintained the greatest interest throughout as he unfolded the story of democracy in this war with particular reference to the efforts of the United States.

The Old Homestead drew a large crowd for the third evening over 1600 people were present and several hundred had to stand. The play was strongly rendered and was pleasing throughout. The Brooks Musical Club excelled in the music it rendered both on Sunday evening and Monday afternoon.

Dr. Wood as Superintendent gave vigorous, instructive and interesting talks on all occasions and was delighted with Chautauqua's reception in Kings County.

The Opera Robin Hood was the strong musical feature of the program and an audience of 2000 people faced the performers and went away pleased. The singers were artists of high rank and many who heard it thought it with The Old Homestead worth all of the price of a season ticket. The closing musicale was the concert of the Pietro Mordelia Co., and the audience could hardly be satisfied with having several recalls. "Liberty's Torch" presented by the Company and the children of the town who had been trained each morning was a most pleasing occasion and excellent program.

That the people were satisfied was evidenced by the fact that on the evening of the fifth day, Dr. Wood was able to announce that sixty guarantors had been obtained for the return of Chautauqua next year and the number has still further been increased. The program for next year will be a stronger one than this year and the price of a season ticket will be $2.50 for the twelve performances.

People who paid 50 and 75 cents for single admissions this year should take a warning now and place their order for season tickets well in advance before the supply is exhausted.

PUBLIC ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

On Sunday evening nearly 1500 people gathered in Chautauqua tent at 8.15 o'clock and listened to a most eloquent address by Dr. Wood on the Fourth Anniversary of the War. He traced historically the events leading up to and since the war started. He was followed by Dr. Coan, who gave but a short address, and a resolution moved by Mayor J.
