Will you marry a Curate, Miss Ethel? Will you wed with a Reverend Man!

will you wed with a Revereed Man?
With a huwshed and twenty pounds yearly
And glad to get that if he can?
Will you ever miss Vespers or Matins?
Will you visit the poor in the rain?
Will you give up your silks and your satin
And wear ginghams and mouselines-de-lain

Can you please the entire congregation— Keep all the societies hot.
Barely prais'd if you're fit for the station,
And roundly abused if you're not?
an you disregard succering and scorning Cause at home you're to work like a be DI you help make the beds in the morning and out bread and butter for tea?
