LOCAL. Some of the finest looking rhubarb ever seen in Alberta, in the opinion of Mr. Fisher, was through to the Board of Trade offices Thursday. The rhubarb was grown in the garden of J. W. Kennedy, of this city, and the base was over five inches in circumference. It will be exhibited at the Edmonton Exhibition.

LICENSE GRANTED. The application for a license by the Pembina Hotel company for their hotel at Entwistle was considered at a meeting of the board of license commissioners, held on Thursday morning. The commissioners decided to recommend that the license be granted.

COUNTERFEIT COINS. An Edmonton barrister Thursday discovered a brand of counterfeit five-cent pieces among his small change. The coin is of pure cobalt silver and so cleverly counterfeited that it would be almost impossible to distinguish it from genuine money. The counterfeiter, however, made the extraordinary mistake of making the lettering and figures on the reverse side stand the same way up, instead of in opposite directions, as in the case of all coins issued from His Majesty's mint. A large number of these counterfeit five-cent pieces are said to have been struck by a clever forger in Cobalt. This one had travelled the wrong way.

CHARGED WITH INSANITY. Bartholomew Bartolo and wife and six small children, at the option of R.N.W.M.P. barracks Thursday morning on a charge of insanity. Bartolo is an Italian who was employed on a farm about twenty miles from St. Albert. Some days ago neighbors noticed something strange in the behavior of the Italian couple. They seemed to be afflicted with religious mania and were in the custom of keeping the six small children up to all hours of the night praying and going through different religious exercises. Last night a police officer was sent to effect their arrest. He found the whole family going through a decidedly unique religious exercise which consisted of rolling on the floor and groaning as if in great agony. They will come up for trial tomorrow.

To Juliana Rens and Karl Samuel, Annie and Amy, children of the deceased, and Mrs. Robert Lendrum, of Riviere Qui Barre, a daughter, the residue of the estate is left, to be divided in the proportion of one-third to the widow and two-fifteenths to each of the children. BROUGHT SETTLERS TO ALBERTA. F. McKay Dickson, who has been doing immigration work for the Provincial government in the States of Michigan and Ohio, returned to the city Wednesday evening after two months' absence. As a result of the trip, Mr. Dickson reports that the Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine out of ten cases of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and administered, it is pleasant to take. Sold by all dealers.

RECEPTION TO LAURIER. Another meeting was held Friday morning to further discuss the details of the civic reception to be tendered Sir Wilfrid Laurier upon his visit to Edmonton on August 14th. The latest arrangement is that the presentation of the civic address shall take place in front of the Yale Hotel on a platform erected there. The presentation will take place between ten and eleven o'clock and will follow the parade.

WORK AT EXHIBITION GROUNDS. There are 200 men working the saw and hammer, the pick and the shovel at the exhibition grounds. Work on the new grand stand is proceeding satisfactorily, although some delay has been occasioned by the lack of heavy timber which has been held up in shipment. It is expected to reach the city in the course of a few days. The finishing work on the other buildings is being put on. The manager Harrison thinks all the buildings will be completed by August 15th. The race track is in excellent condition.

TEN CENTS HIS ASSETS. With only ten cents in his pocket, a young rock drifter from Quebec arrived at Immigration Station on Friday morning. On starting from Quebec he had money galore, but high living and travelling in parlor cars soon ran away with the cash. He started to an immigration official that it was his intention to "beat it" to the Rockies, where he would be able to get employment at his trade. He was received at the immigration hall, however, he decided to work with a farmer for a month or so, in order to get the necessary money to make his journey on the cushions.

A. Dewar, who has just returned from a six months' sojourn at Ft. McMurray, in the Bulletin yesterday afternoon. "It is a great country up there. The greatest in the world, bar none. The mineral resources are boundless and there is a vast tract of the prairie land about forty miles wide and two hundred miles long from the Pelee River right down to Great Slave Lake."

STOLEN FROM HOTEL GUESTS. Inordinate love for other people's property led to the undoing of J. W. Robson, a young Englishman, just lately arrived in this country. Last week Robson registered at the Queen's Hotel, and immediately after his arrival guests at the Queen's began to misappropriate articles, such as brushes, ties, cuff links, etc. Sergeant Detective Brooks, of the city police, was notified and after a few Sherlock Holmes stunts succeeded in tracing the thefts to Robson, who was arrested Thursday and his room searched. The search resulted in the finding of many stolen articles ranging from hair pins to safety razors. Robson was sentenced to six months' hard labor at Fort Saskatchewan. A. E. Dunham was charged with assaulting his wife, Mrs. Dunham, the plaintiff, stated that on the evening of the 29th she and her husband had had a quarrel. Just afterwards the brother of the defendant came up to the house with his automobile and asked Dunham to take him for a ride. Witness objected to her husband going out with the result that he came into the house and beat her for almost ten minutes and then went off with his brother. Witness was hurt so seriously that a doctor had to be called in to attend to her wounds. Dunham and his brother, Harry Dunham, denied under oath that any assault had taken place. The magistrate's judgment on the case will tomorrow. W. B. Fritchard was fined two dollars and costs for leaving his team idle in the street on Victoria avenue yesterday. One drunk was also fined the usual $4 and costs.

DIVISION OF DIOCESE. The division of the Diocese of Calgary, which now comprises all of the province of Alberta, into two separate dioceses, to be known as the Diocese of Edmonton and the Diocese of Calgary, will be the most important question to be discussed at the meeting of the Provincial Synod of the Anglican Church of Western Canada at its annual meeting at Albert on August 1st. Seven clergy and seven lay delegates will be present at this meeting to represent the Diocese of Calgary. Archbishop Gray and Canon Robson, of the Edmonton clerical representatives. All the western provinces and the McKenzie River and Athabasca districts will be represented. It is understood that the division of the Calgary diocese will be opposed by the Alberta representatives on the ground that this is not yet ready to provide a large endowment fund required to sustain the bishop of a diocese.

The offices of the Exhibition association will remain open in the evenings from August 1st to the 15th in order to receive entries. Syndicate D'Elvegas de la Race Hippique Percheronne, a syndicate of Percheron horse breeders in France, will offer a prize of ten dollars for the best Percheron stallion of any age exhibited at the Edmonton exhibition and another prize of nine dollars for the best Percheron mare at the fair.

DISCUSS PUBLICITY. A committee of the city council, composed of Mayor Lee and Aldermen McNelis and Lundy, waited upon the Board of Trade Friday to urge that something more be done to make known the good crops of the Edmonton district. The question was discussed for some time and further action was deferred until the resumption of the Board of Trade, which will be held on Wednesday evening after two months' absence. As a result of the trip, Mr. Dickson reports that the Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine out of ten cases of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and administered, it is pleasant to take. Sold by all dealers.

TWO MISSIONARIES FOR GRAND PRAIRIE

Superintendent of Methodist Missions, T. H. Work, being home by train in Northern Part of the Province. Rev. T. C. Buchanan, superintendent of Methodist missions for the Province of Alberta, has been making Edmonton his headquarters for the last few days. He is on his way to the Grand Prairie as far as Edmonton, where he thinks of establishing a mission station. "We already have a mission station at Wolf Creek," said the superintendent to a Bulletin reporter, this morning. "and we contemplate establishing others along the Grand Prairie. The mission at Wolf Creek lives and conducts services in a tent. He also has been doing good work among the different railway camps in his district. "Last year," he continued, "we found that our work was mostly confined to the southern part of the province, but this year we are extending our work north and north of our attention. We have missionaries at Athabasca Landing, Lesser Slave Lake and other northern points. Only a short time ago two of our missionaries left for Grande Prairie, where, by this time, they are doubtless doing splendid work among the new settlers who have poured into that country this spring. We have all kinds of territory to work in," he concluded, "and the only thing which hampers us is lack of money and men."

RADFORD WILL FIGHT FOR HIS BISON SKIN

Department of Agriculture Has Taken Possession of Numerous Hides Under Penalties Issued to Radford Last Year—Naturalist Wants the Skin. Harry V. Radford, the hunter of milk chocolate fame, has come down from the north to contest with the Department of Agriculture the possession of the skin and skeleton of the enormous wood-buffalo which was shot at Fort Smith on Slave river, north of Lake Athabasca, last winter. Radford argued in the city last night and is a guest at the Castle Hotel. In May of last year the New York naturalist went into the north country with the intention of studying the habits and life of the wood bison, and to secure if possible a specimen of the species which has puzzled naturalists. In order that he might kill one of the animals he secured a special permit from the Lieutenant-Governor. This permit, it is claimed by the Department of Agriculture, was given on the express understanding that the skin of the animal should become the property of the provincial government. When the hide and bones were shipped down from the north a short time ago by Radford, the government took possession. The hide, which is large enough to carpet a study room, measuring thirteen feet in length and eight feet in width, now lies in the taxidermy establishment of Wolfe and Hine on Second street, awaiting disposition by the government. Now H. V. Radford has come down to Edmonton to continue his buffalo hunt which began last winter in the north. He wishes to express the remains of the animal to the American Bison Society at New York. The Department of Agriculture raises objections. The outcome remains to be seen. Mr. Radford intends to remain several years longer in the north and will return to Fort Smith in the course of a week or two. On his return he will prepare a formal report for the American Bison Society on the wood bison. This completed, the intrepid explorer will venture into the barren lands lying toward the Arctic to hunt the musk-ox.

ASPHALT MOUNDS AT FT. McMURRAY

Ben Hursell of Smith's Landing Reached the City With Large Supply of Furs. Ben Hursell, an old-timer in this country, who has been trapping and fur trading in the north country for more than twenty years, arrived in the city Tuesday and is staying at the St. James. Hursell is the forerunner of first arrivals by a large party of northern fur traders who are due in the city today or tomorrow. The party have already disposed of their muskrat skins, but nevertheless much valuable fur will be brought into Edmonton for sale. His home for Twelve Years. Smith Landing, which is sixteen miles south of Fort Smith, one of the most northerly fur trading posts of large size, has been the home of Mr. Hursell for the last twelve years. He has had a large party of northern Indians for furs and at one time could boast of being the only white man in the district. Since that time they have been gradually settling there, but even yet there is periodically nobody without a strain of Indian blood in his veins. In conversation with the Bulletin reporter Mr. Hursell stated that Hon. Frank Oliver remained at his shack for a day and a half in order to retrace his acquaintance. According to Mr. Hursell the minister arrived at Smith's Landing on the 25th of June. He had paddled himself from Fort McMurray to Fort Chipewyan, a distance of over two hundred miles, and his hands were blistered up to some extent. He was in good health and said that he never felt better. Portaged Like Old Trapper. "The way in which he portaged his canoe would make a man of twenty-five years," said Mr. Hursell. "He was clad in a pair of old overalls and had his shirt rolled up to his elbows. Altogether he looked like a typical old Indian trapper. Good Year for Fur. According to all reports last winter was an exceptionally good one for the trappers. Quite a number of silver fox skins were procured by the Indians and halfbreeds. Died From Apoplexy. Quebec, July 27.—Dr. Robitaille, self physician, brother of Hon. Amede Robitaille, brother of Quebec, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday and died today.

FIVE TIMES

This adv. was written July 30th. During the past three weeks the demand for Grand Trunk Stenographers has been just five times the available supply. Suggestive isn't it? Summer season is now on. Fall term will soon be here. You should take our course in shorthand right away. This is the school that teaches Gregg Shorthand. Gregg Shorthand is the fastest in all the world. FIRST OF TRADERS HAVE REACHED CITY

Ben Hursell of Smith's Landing Reached the City With Large Supply of Furs. Ben Hursell, an old-timer in this country, who has been trapping and fur trading in the north country for more than twenty years, arrived in the city Tuesday and is staying at the St. James. Hursell is the forerunner of first arrivals by a large party of northern fur traders who are due in the city today or tomorrow. The party have already disposed of their muskrat skins, but nevertheless much valuable fur will be brought into Edmonton for sale. His home for Twelve Years. Smith Landing, which is sixteen miles south of Fort Smith, one of the most northerly fur trading posts of large size, has been the home of Mr. Hursell for the last twelve years. He has had a large party of northern Indians for furs and at one time could boast of being the only white man in the district. Since that time they have been gradually settling there, but even yet there is periodically nobody without a strain of Indian blood in his veins. In conversation with the Bulletin reporter Mr. Hursell stated that Hon. Frank Oliver remained at his shack for a day and a half in order to retrace his acquaintance. According to Mr. Hursell the minister arrived at Smith's Landing on the 25th of June. He had paddled himself from Fort McMurray to Fort Chipewyan, a distance of over two hundred miles, and his hands were blistered up to some extent. He was in good health and said that he never felt better. Portaged Like Old Trapper. "The way in which he portaged his canoe would make a man of twenty-five years," said Mr. Hursell. "He was clad in a pair of old overalls and had his shirt rolled up to his elbows. Altogether he looked like a typical old Indian trapper. Good Year for Fur. According to all reports last winter was an exceptionally good one for the trappers. Quite a number of silver fox skins were procured by the Indians and halfbreeds. Died From Apoplexy. Quebec, July 27.—Dr. Robitaille, self physician, brother of Hon. Amede Robitaille, brother of Quebec, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday and died today.

EDMONTON NEWS

RECEPTION TO LAURIER. Another meeting was held Friday morning to further discuss the details of the civic reception to be tendered Sir Wilfrid Laurier upon his visit to Edmonton on August 14th. The latest arrangement is that the presentation of the civic address shall take place in front of the Yale Hotel on a platform erected there. The presentation will take place between ten and eleven o'clock and will follow the parade.

WORK AT EXHIBITION GROUNDS

There are 200 men working the saw and hammer, the pick and the shovel at the exhibition grounds. Work on the new grand stand is proceeding satisfactorily, although some delay has been occasioned by the lack of heavy timber which has been held up in shipment. It is expected to reach the city in the course of a few days. The finishing work on the other buildings is being put on. The manager Harrison thinks all the buildings will be completed by August 15th. The race track is in excellent condition.

TEN CENTS HIS ASSETS

With only ten cents in his pocket, a young rock drifter from Quebec arrived at Immigration Station on Friday morning. On starting from Quebec he had money galore, but high living and travelling in parlor cars soon ran away with the cash. He started to an immigration official that it was his intention to "beat it" to the Rockies, where he would be able to get employment at his trade. He was received at the immigration hall, however, he decided to work with a farmer for a month or so, in order to get the necessary money to make his journey on the cushions.

ASPHALT MOUNDS AT FT. McMURRAY

Twenty-Nine Men Down From The Far North For The Winter. The north country swarms with prospectors, and numerous claims of various kinds are being staked out, said R. A. Dewar, who has just returned from a six months' sojourn at Ft. McMurray, in the Bulletin yesterday afternoon. "It is a great country up there. The greatest in the world, bar none. The mineral resources are boundless and there is a vast tract of the prairie land about forty miles wide and two hundred miles long from the Pelee River right down to Great Slave Lake."

EDMONTONIANS AT GULL LAKE. Gull Lake is booming this year and the visitors continue to flock to this popular resort in increasing numbers.
