McMurdo's Store News.

TUESDAY, Nov. 28, 1912. Colgate's Cold Cream, as is the case with all of Colgate's preparations, reaches a very high standard and will likely be one of the leaders in its line. The Cream may be used as a direct application or for massage, and in any case it protects and nourishes the skin and opens the pores. The perfume is especially fine. Price (large pot) 50c. We have had several requests lately for White Vaseline in bottles. These we shall now be able to supply, having lately imported some put up in that convenient form. Price 20c. a bottle.

Narrow Escape.

One of the crew of a schooner coming from Bay de Verde had a narrow escape from being drowned on Tuesday night in the Narrows. As he helped work the vessel along the boom "jibed" and hitting him in the face knocked him over the side. The vessel shot ahead when he went in the water but he managed to grasp the gunwale of the boat towing behind and was taken on board by his comrades. He was badly cut and bruised about the face.

A New Hotel.

The preliminary work on the new hotel to be built by Mr. Prampton at Big Pond, Bay Bulls, will commence next week and the structure will take six months to complete. It will be in readiness for next season's tourist traffic. Big Pond is a favourite resort and large numbers of health-seekers and visitors are sure to visit the new hotel. Its dimensions as told in the Telegram some time ago, are large and the building when completed will not be inferior to the best we have in St. John's.

You can almost eat it without butter. What? NOT BREAD, as the flavour is delicious, most appetising and wholesome.—nov25.6f

THAT STRANGE SICKNESS.—The strange disease reported to have shown itself at Flower's Cove in the Straits may be either diphtheria or scarlatina according to Dr. Brehm's opinion.

Bell Island Case.

The infant found at Bell Island yesterday so people in the city from that place to-day say was a male. It was discovered by a boy who had lost a water pail in a deep brook near the Wabana mine. While reaching for the pail with a jigger he brought the infant to the surface. This same boy, it is stated, saw the girl who is under arrest go to the brook, and when he asked her why she did not get the water which she was taking from the river, from the well near her own home she made an evasive answer. When he found the body he became suspicious of this girl and reported what he had seen to the police. The testimony of the woman with whom the prisoner lived is being taken.

Reported Missing

Men who arrived from Renewes to-day report that P. Jackman, of that place, left here in his craft, Sunday last, with three hands on board and the boat heavily laden with supplies. A gale of N. E. wind with rain raged all that evening and night, and the last seen of the vessel was when she was seen off Bay Bulls North Head at dusk and making bad weather. Up to the time our informants left Renewes yesterday the craft had not arrived, though some schooners which left here since have reached Fermanuse. There is uneasiness at Renewes over the protracted absence of the craft.

Casino Theatre.

NEXT WEEK.

The celebrated Milano production of Dante's immortal series of cantos, "The Inferno," will be presented at the Casino Theatre, as a special offering, next week. The fame of this work is world-wide; the task of the film producers has been stupendous, and it has been Herculean work to present faithfully a graphic reproduction of this classical essay on human love and fallings, with their consequences in the hereafter. The Milano Company's rendition has been presented with remarkable success in Montreal and the large cities in Canada where the press have acclaimed it as a marvelous subject. The Editor of the Daily Star favorably reviewed the film in a column of praise, and other papers have treated it likewise. We believe that in St. John's it will be equally successful, and that when it is shown at the Casino next week that the theatre will be packed to the doors.
