SEE THEM FOR YOURSELF.

If we covered every page in this paper with words we could not begin to tell you all about D. D. Shoes. There are so many points in their favor we cannot enumerate them.

Pictures and words would fail to convey to you any sort of an idea of their beauty and style. It's a case of come and see for yourself. And we hope that will be soon.

No better range has ever been stocked than the 1914 Styles now ready for inspection.

Ulster Situation Much Easier.

The King Intervenes—No Further Resignation of Officers—Situation Will be Discussed in Commons.

LONDON, To-day.—The dreaded Sunday passed without the slightest disturbance of order in Belfast or Ulster. The King has thrown his influence earnestly on the side of conciliation, and seems to have made a personal appeal to the officers who had resolved to resign, rather than face the possibility of being called upon to fight in Ulster, and may be taken for granted that the King is equally exerting his influence with his Ministers in the same direction. Proofs are not wanting of desire on both sides that everything possible should be done to avoid any chance of conflict. Nationalists have abandoned their proposed parade at Londonderry and Carson continues to urge his desire to do his utmost to avoid provocative acts. The Government announces that all the intended movements of troops in Ireland have now been completed, but this may be a decision necessitated by the threatened resignation of officers. Apparently no further actual resignations have been offered. As a result of the meeting of party leaders, Bonar Law will move the adjournment of the

The Girl of The Farm.

The girl of the farm—God bless her, God bless her cheerful face, And the song that trips from her rosy lips.

As she toils with a willing grace, God bless her bright eyes, smiling, Aglow with a wondrous charm, And her voice, so sweet and cheery—God bless the girl of the farm.

The girl of the farm—God bless her, God bless her willing hands, That never shirk the hourly work, Which the good of the farm demands.

In spite of the many duties That tax her brain and arm, She still has time to be happy—This precious girl of the farm.

The girl of the farm—God bless her, God keep her loving heart Free from the faintest shade or taint, Of pride and guile and art, Make her to triumph always, O'er sorrow and toil and harm, And all the world will love her, As we love the girl of the farm.
