WHAT THEY SAID

At a recent meeting of the members of the Fourth Estate a Telegram read by the Herald conveyed the News that we should advocate for a Star bi-monthly publication to Review the Trade throughout the Diocese. Being of a Standard size and full of Enterprise and Plain dealing, it was Gazetted the Guardian of the Workman. The Cadet gave notice of the next Quarterly meeting. Greetings were being exchanged as the Sun was setting and the Western Star appeared on the horizon. The Convent Bell struck out, announcing the arrival of the Newfoundland Magazine.
