osal. The seating capacity of the nodating 1500 persons. The pews are planned after the most modern style, they being semi-circular. The crowding or crushing at the time of egress. Then the avenues of exit are so arranged that in case of accident or fire, panic will be averted. To put it in a nut-shell, the entire building displays taste, beauty and common sense. The opening ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Dr. Potts, of Canada. Of the many learned divines that have graced our pulpits none have yet surpassed him. His subject displayed his good judgment and his manuer of treating it showed him as a wise dispenser of the Word. Both his discourses at the morning and evening services were theological masterpieces; and were attentively listened to, and will long be remembered by se who composed the vast congregations of the day. Around him on the platform, and near the rostrum, were the various ministers and lay-men who represent the leaders of Newfoundland Method-Some of the brethren have grown grey in the work, and at times nave felt the burden to be a heavy one; but we feel assured that vesterday's realizations must have touched the deepest chord of exultation. Surely their souls must have rejoiced and they could truly take up the words of the Virgin Mother and say, "My soul not do better this week than doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit lish the report which we wrote opening of the church in 1894.
