SAWLOGS WANTED.
LARGE QUANTITY OF ELM, MAPLE AND ASH SAWLOGS WANTED. For particulars and prices apply ADAM BECK, Albert Street, London.

Mayor Little's Latest Service to the Whole People.

Moderate-minded Liberals and Conservatives alike uphold Mayor Little in his determination, as representative of the whole city by acclamation, to be no party to any proposed arrangement by which one-half of the City Council—representing considerably more than one-half of the population, the businesses, and the tax-paying of London—shall be gerrymandered into anything less than exactly one-half of the representation on the principal committees of the Council.

Mayor Little is upheld by public opinion, because the taxpayers know that the civic interest cannot be served by the perpetuation of partisanship. It is not the one-half of the City Council to whom fair play is being denied who have introduced partisanship. It is not they who have seized on practically every position in the city service.

Mayor Little has dealt a staggering blow for all time to political partisanship in the management of municipal affairs in London. His last year's occupancy of the Mayor's chair was a record of able and brilliant achievement. We venture to predict that his record for 1896, when it is completed, will be not less useful and brilliant, nor less in the interest of citizens as a whole.

Among these services, none is likely to be more useful, or far-reaching in future good to the city, than the crushing blow he has administered to the spirit of unfair play which has led an exact one-half of the City Council, to presume to demand that the other half, fully as worthy of public confidence as themselves, should consent to be gerrymandered out of their rights, their self-respect, and their duty to those by whom they were elected.

As to the fear of some that a policy of obstruction may be followed throughout the year by the deniers of fair play, there need be no apprehension. The conditions for successful obstruction do not exist.

THE CUBAN CONFLICT.
Cubans Said to Have Lost 200 Men at Havana.

Havana, Jan. 22.—Gomez has arrived at Guayabal, which is only 15 miles south of Havana, and near the line of Pinar del Rio Province. The movements of Gomez westward again are believed to be due to a call from Maceo for help to relieve him from a critical situation in Pinar del Rio. The Spanish troops are reported to have won a complete victory over the guerrillas of Fort Flor at La Guira. The Cubans are said to have lost 200 killed. The bodies of 170 dead insurgents were found afterwards. It is reported, in different parts of the ground abandoned by the insurgents.

Advices from the province of Matanzas say that Col. Vicens met the insurgent Perez and 1,200 Cubans near Pedrosio yesterday. There were losses on both sides, but the insurgents, it is said, were defeated.

The Japanese Gazette says three Koreans, tried for complicity in the murder of the Korean queen were found guilty Dec. 23, and hanged the same evening. Pak Sen, one of the trio, was found guilty of having cut down the queen's body, pouring oil upon her, and then cremating the body.

NEW GUNS FOR CANADA'S MILITIA.
London, Jan. 23.—Lieut.-Col. Lake, quartermaster-general of Canada, is here in close consultation with the Colonial and War Offices. It is understood the Dominion Government is negotiating for English rifles. The weapons combine the Martini lock with the Enfield barrel.

NO WALKOVER THIS TIME.
London, Jan. 23.—The election to fill the seat in the House of Commons for North Belfast, made vacant by the death of Sir Edward James Harland, Bart., Conservative, resulted in the return of James Haslett, the Conservative candidate, by a vote of 2,556 to 2,438 for Adam Turner, Independent. At the last election Sir Edward James Harland was returned without opposition.

NEW ZEALAND'S POSITION.
Wellington, New Zealand, Jan. 23.—Hgn. R. J. Seddon, Prime Minister of the colony, in a recent speech, said that New Zealand was specially interested in the Venezuelan and Transvaal disputes, owing to the American and German interest in Samoa. The colony, he added, was thoroughly British, and the practical way to strengthen the Home Government was to begin at once to defend the colony's rights and to prepare for the worst.

TO RIVAL BRITAIN'S NAVY.
London, Jan. 23.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says 18,000,000 roubles has been appropriated by the Russian Government for naval construction during 1896. The main object of Russia, according to the dispatch, is that for every new warship, especially of the cruiser class, which England shall add to her fleet, Russia will produce one equally as good or superior. The dispatch adds that seven vessels are now in course of construction for the Russian navy.

NOT BELIEVED.
London, Jan. 23.—A report from Rio de Janeiro that the Brazilian Government has dispatched the cruiser Benjamin Constant to occupy the Island of Trinidad, concerning the possession of which a dispute has existed for some time past between Great Britain and Brazil, is not believed at the Brazilian legation here or in other official quarters. It is stated that on the contrary the negotiations between Great Britain and Brazil are continuing on the most friendly basis. RUMOR OF BISMARCK'S DEATH.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—Although the mischievous rumor of Prince Bismarck's death proved to be untrue, the report emanated from such reliable persons that even President Von Koeller, of the Prussian Landtag, was impelled to telephone to the Emperor's Cabinet, the Foreign Office and the Chancellerie inquiring for particulars, and was surprised to learn that nothing was known of the reported death of the ex-Chancellor at any of those places. This is the third rumor of Prince Bismarck's death that had been circulated in Berlin within a week.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.
London, Jan. 23.—The Brazilian legation in this city has made public the following dispatch, received from the "Brazilian Government."

"Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 22.—The Brazilian Government denies officially the reports spread in Europe during the past few days by telegrams from Rio de Janeiro and New York. The relations of the Brazilian Government with the Minister of Great Britain are of a friendly character, and the claims of Italy are in course of settlement. The cruise of the Benjamin Constant has no connection with the Island of Trinidad."

DIED IN THE MOUNTAIN SNOWS.
Christiania, Jan. 23.—Lieut. Eyvind Astrup, the Arctic explorer who took part in Lieut. Peary's Greenland expedition, was found dead on Tuesday in the Lilleveid valley, near Jerkin, which he left shortly before Christmas on an expedition into the mountains. He had not been seen since, and 25 men on snowshoes started in search of him on Sunday last, with the result just announced. In the spring of 1894 he undertook a sleigh journey from the headquarters of the Peary expedition in Ingfield Gulf, round the Prudhoe peninsula, which separates that gulf from Melville Bay. This peninsula is the home of so-called Arctic Highlanders, who were discovered in the beginning of the century by Sir John Ross.

JAMESON.
London, Jan. 23.—A dispatch from South Africa says that Dr. Jameson and the officers who accompanied him upon his invasion of the Transvaal have embarked for England.

The Times prints a report of an interview with Dr. Jameson, in the course of which the ex-administrator of the British South Africa Company said he thought the appeal of the Uitlanders justified him in the course he pursued in invading the Transvaal territory. He also said he looked upon the clause in the appeal promising to defray the expenses of the expedition as absolving him from responsibility to the Chartered Company.

A dispatch from Pretoria says it has been decided that the trial of the persons in custody there for having taken part in the raid into the South African Republic, led by Dr. Jameson, should take place April 21.

BRITISH MILITARY SAGACITY.
London, Jan. 23.—The whole Ashantee campaign was splendidly arranged and admirably executed. In fact from the moment the expedition was first organized there has not been a single hitch in the arrangements, and it has not been necessary to fire a shot. Every provision which it was possible to make for the health, provisioning and accommodation of the troops was made with the most perfect system. At each halting place huts were erected for the accommodation of the British troops, and advance parties were sent forward daily to prepare refreshments. The troops have suffered very little from sickness considering the unhealthy climate, and, strange to say, it was the men of the East India regiment and those of the British regiment stopped at Gibraltar on their way home from India after many years' service in that hot country, and sent to Cape Coast Castle to take part in this expedition, who suffered the most from sickness, and who also proved less able to sustain fatigue on the march in the hot weather prevailing in Ashantee.

A fire in the Hotchkiss rapid-fire gun factory, at Etampes, France, caused damage to the extent of 1,000,000 francs.

The Mohammedan rebellion in the Chinese Province of Kansu has been entirely suppressed and the country pacified.

A dispatch from the Cameroons says that several days' fighting has taken place near the station of Jaunde, between the garrison and the insurgent natives of the German territory. Four German officers were wounded, and seven native troops were killed.

The Mohammedan rebellion in the Chinese Province of Kansu has been entirely suppressed and the country pacified.

The practical cable isolation of South Africa is expected to result in the addition of a South African delegate to the Pacific cable conference.

Mr. Chamberlain is giving his attention to the extension of the Halifax-Bermuda cable to the West Indies. The opinion prevails at the British embassy at Constantinople that the relief which is being afforded by the missionaries is sufficient for the Armenians without assistance from any outsiders. The Porte has not yet reached a decision in the matter.

DR. FENWICK DEAD.
Kingston, Jan. 23.—Dr. R. N. Fenwick, one of Kingston's most able medical men, died on Tuesday night of blood poisoning, contracted last Thursday by cutting his finger while performing an operation for septic paronychia. Dr. Fenwick was 44 years of age, professor of obstetrics and gynecology in the medical branch of Queen's University, and leading benefactor of the general hospital. A widow, daughter of Lieut.-Col. Pennington Macpherson, Ottawa, whom he married only last August, survives, along with three children by previous marriage.

The Dead Prince.

Preliminary Provision for the Care of His Remains.

Universal Sympathy Expressed for the Queen's Widowed Daughter.

Lord Aberdeen's Message of Sympathy Acknowledged by Her Majesty.

London, Jan. 23.—It is now said that when it was finally decided, against the wishes of the commander-in-chief, Gen. Lord Wolseley, that Prince Henry of Battenberg and Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, a grandson of Queen Victoria, were to accompany the expedition under Sir Francis Scott, the question arose as to whether the bodies of the princes should be brought home if they were killed, or if they succumbed to the terrible fevers peculiar to that part of Africa. The Queen decided in the affirmative, and remembering the difficulty experienced in bringing home the remains of the Prince Imperial of France, who was killed by
