

I Had Colic

Colic swellings in the neck since I was 10 years old, and now 52. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared. It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so discommodated with the colic and rheumatism I felt that I would soon be dead. When I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and I can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie Bigelow, now of Fremont, Mich., asking if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; I replied it was, and sent her a bottle. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Pepper being a close second choice at 7 to 2. Pepper led the way until within a sixteenth from the finish, which was reached with Tammany first by a length and a half. The stake is worth $35,000, the owner of the third horse $2,000. ## Dominion Parliament

The House Holds a Saturday Session.

At Least Four Government Bills To Be Dropped.

Second Reading of the Voters' List Bill—Measure to Provide for the Inspection of Cheques at Montreal.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, July 2.—The House of Commons held its first Saturday session this morning. The approaching of prorogation was marked by a question of Mr. Laurier's as to what measure, if any, the Government intended to drop.

Mr. Foster, in the absence of Sir John Thompson, continues to leave the House (although the rule of seniority would place that duty upon Mr. Bowell), replied that there were at least four bills to be dropped, but he would leave the Minister of Justice on Monday to designate them.

In concurrence with the vote for a number of Canadian immigration agents, Mr. Foster moved that the items be disagreed with. This he said was in accordance with the policy of dispensing with useless immigration agents. The list of useless agents dispensed with is as follows:

Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Port Arthur, Winnipeg, Brandon, Calgary, Victoria. The House remained in concurrence without debate all morning.

Premier deBoucherville arrived here today. He will urge upon the Government that a French-speaking representative of Canada be appointed for the Columbia World's Fair.

Mr. Foster announced that pending the negotiation of a treaty between Great Britain and Spain, Canada will take advantage of the minimum tariff of Spain and the Spanish West Indies for lumber and fish, the same as Norway, which is our principal competitor.

Mr. Patterson moved the second reading of the bill with respect to voters' lists, which corrects some irregularities on the last revision, as well as providing that there shall not be a revision of the lists this year.

Mr. Laurier called his attention to the fact that one of the particulars of the petition against the election of Mr. Lowell in Montreal is that he was named on the list that ought to have appeared on it, and that there were irregularities in the revision.

Mr. Patterson agreed with Mr. Laurier that it would not be right to hold Mr. Lowell responsible for irregularities for which the Government's officers were responsible, and promised that this bill shall be made to protect Mr. Lowell in that particular.

The bill to amend the General Inspection Act, which is to provide for the inspection of schools, caused a sensation.

Mr. Costigan moved to add a clause that cheques shall be also inspected at Montreal according to standards and regulations to be fixed by the Governor-in-Council.

Messrs. McMillan and McMullen, both members of the Opposition, opposed this because the Dairymen's Association had not asked for it, and because any system of cheque inspection anywhere than at the factories would be a mistake.

The proposal was defended by Mr. Costigan and his friends, on the ground that inspection at Montreal was necessary for the protection of sellers against buyers where sales were made on cheques.

After considerable discussion the bill with the amendment was passed through committee, and the House adjourned at 9 o'clock.

THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE.

Conclusion of the Prohibition Convention.

Proceedings of the People's Party Delegates at Omaha—Rattling Speech From Ignatius Donnelly.

CINCINNATI, O., July 3.—In the Prohibition National Convention Dr. J. F. Cranfill, of Texas, was nominated for Vice-President. The names presented to the convention were Samuel Small, of Georgia; William Skitterles, of Minnesota; Joshua Leavering, of Maryland; J. E. Cranfill, of Texas; and Thomas R. Carskadon, of West Virginia.

Small withdrew before a vote was taken, saying he was no man's fool, and knew before he was here many days that the ticket had been made up.

General Singleton offered a resolution expressing disapprobation of a certain hotel in refusing services to negroes. General Singleton's resolution was adopted and the convention adjourned sine die.

Mr. Cranfill, the non-resident Vice-President, has been the leader of the anti-liquor battle in Texas. He is about 45 years of age. He is editor of the Advance, prohibition and reform paper; also of the Texas Baptist Standard.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

OMAHA, Neb., July 3.—The People's party convention was called to order Saturday morning amid great enthusiasm. A telegram from Judge Gresham earnestly informing Gen. Weaver, the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly and others that he would not accept the nomination on any platform settled all doubt as to Gresham's nomination, and he is no longer mentioned in connection with the nomination. The candidate most freely mentioned is Hon. Jas. R. Weaver, of Iowa, and there is little doubt that he will lead upon the first ballot.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada; Senator Kyle, of the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota; Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada; Mr. Vandevort, of Nebraska, a prominent G. A. R. man, are also mentioned in connection with the Presidential nomination.

Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, made a characteristic speech on the issues of the People's party. In referring to the recent convention at Minneapolis he said: "I had a debate the other day in Minneapolis with a representative of the Republican party and I challenged him to point to a man in the great convention who could be mentioned in one breath with the great philanthropist and humanitarian who founded the Republican party. Where is your Horace Greeley, your Charles Sumner, your Wendell Phillips, your Abraham Lincoln? I asked him to point me out a single friend of labor in the convention, a single friend of the poor mechanic. What was the answer? I was given an example of the philanthropist Fred. Douglass. 'Why,' I replied, 'you have to go out of your own coat to find an example.' (Cheers.) And when I asked for another name I was given the name of Wm. McKinley, jun., (laughter) a man who put up the tariff for the benefit of the protectionist manufacturers to increase the burdens of the people. I want it understood that I am not saying anything against Bear vs. Boy.—Harry Stephenson, a son of W. H. Stephenson, of Norwood, had a narrow escape from being chewed up by a bear which was chained up in the C. P. R. yards at Havelsack on Friday. The bear made a run at the boy and grabbed him by the leg and pulled him down with his teeth. He made 47 cuts in the boy's leg and took out six chunks of flesh. It was only by the presence of mind of another young lad, who took a stick of wood and beat the bear over the head, that he got away.

The Goat Was Not Censurable. TARA, Ont., July 3.—The stationmaster in Tara is the owner of a goat, which frightened a horse belonging to Mr. Pierce. The horse ran away, upsetting the rig, throwing out Mr. Pierce and his sister and damaging the buggy. The case came up in the Division Court on the ground that the smell from the goat frightened the horse. The judge held that the peculiar constitution of the horse made him run away in this case, and that a goat is an animal that will not usually frighten a horse. Mr. Pierce is therefore out of the costs of the trial.

Buffalo Bill recently gave a performance before the royal court at Windsor Castle. William is very popular in London.

Prof. Skeel, who maintains the orthodox belief that the study of Latin and Greek is serviceable for improving a student's style in English composition, thinks also that there is something to be said on the other side. Whatever the study of Latin and Greek might do toward improving the student's style, the study of languages and English literature would do more.

"I have been ill for about five years."

"I have had the best medical advice."

"And I took the first dose in some doubt. This resulted in a few hours easy sleep. There was no further hemorrhage till next day, when I had a slight attack which stopped almost immediately."

"By the third day all trace of blood had disappeared and I had recovered much strength."

"Fourth day I sat up in bed and ate my dinner, the first solid food for two months. Since that time I have gradually gotten better and am now able to move about the house. My death was daily expected and my recovery has been a great surprise to my friends and the doctor. There can be no doubt about the effect of German Syrup, as I had an attack just previous to its use. The only relief was after the first dose." J. R. LOUGHBHEAD, Adelaide, Australia.

THE Lumber Cutting Machine

OF THE FUTURE.

10 Band Mills sold in Canada in 1891 where one was sold in 1890. We predict an equal increase in 1892.

Our present orders indicate it, so place your orders early.

The Circular Saw 22 years ago was as much a novelty and as difficult to run as the Band Saw is to-day. With the experience gained in handling the Circular, knowledge of the Band Saw is much more readily acquired. Special improved tools also facilitate the work. We furnish an expert with each mill to instruct in the use of tools and work on saw.

The adjoining cut illustrates our NO. 1 BAND SAW MILL, capacity 10,000 to 20,000 feet in 10 hours. Our No. 2 mill is much heavier—capacity 20,000 to 40,000 feet per day.
