Death of Col. Jarvis at Chatham.
Chatham, Ont., July 3.—Col. Salter M. Jarvis, a retired lawyer and a most worthy and popular citizen, lost his life by a rad accident yesterday. Col. Jarvis was for years interested in prometing sanitation in Chatham, and had constructed a model water service and closet system at his own residence. It was while making an inspection of the huge cistern in the basement of his house yesterday that he lost his life. How the fatality occurred is not known, but it is supposed he fell into the water while suffering from a weak spell, the result of his recent illness. Deceased was a retired officer of the Queen's Own Rifles and a member of Holy Trinity Church. He had an ample fortune, and spent his means freely for charitable and philanthropic purposes. The whole community is deeply grieved over the deplorable event, and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved widow and two children.

At Least Four Government Bills To Be Dropped.

Second Reading of the Voters' List Bill -Measure to Provide for the Inspection of Cheese at Montreal,

(Special to the ADVERTISER.) [Special to the ADVERTISER.]
OTTAWA, July 2.—The House of Commons held its first Saturday session this morning. The approaching of prorogation was marked by a question of Mr. Laurier's as to what measures, if any, the Government intended to drop.
Mr. Foster, who in the absence of Sir John Thompson, continues to lead the ment intended to drop.

Mr. Foster, who in the absence of Sir John Thompson, continues to lead the House (although the rule of sessiority would place that duty upon Mr. Bowell), replied that there were at least four bills to be dropped, but he would leave the Minister of Justice on Monday to designate them. In concurrence on the votes for a number of Canadian immigration agents, Mr. Foster moved that the items be disagreed with. This he said was in accordance with the policy of dispensing with useless immigration agents. The list of useless agents dispensed with is as follows: Ottawa, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Port Arthur, Winnipeg, Brandon, Calgary, Victoria. The House remained in concurrence without debate all morning. Premier DeBoucherville arrived here to-day. He will urge upon the Government

The bill to amend the General Inspection Act, which is to provide for the inspection of appeals, caused a sensation.

Mr. Costigan moved to add a clause that cheese shall be also inspected at Montreal according to standards and regulations to be fixed by the Governor-in-Council.

regulations to be fixed by the Governor-in-Council.

Messrs. McMillan and McMullen, both members of the Opposition, opposed this because the Dairymen's Association had not asked for it, and because any system of cheese inspection anywhere than at the factories would be a mistake.

The proposal was defended by Mr. Costigan and his friends, on the ground that inspection at Montreal was necessary for the protection of sellers against buyers where sales were made on cheese boards.

After considerable discussion the bill with the amendment was passed through committee, and the House adjourned at 9 o'clock.
