Defensive Measures in South Africa Proceed Apace---Volunteering Brisk---Unique Feature of Kitchener's Fighting Scouts.

London, Jan. 17.-The important re- is enthusiastic competition to enroll port received from Johannesburg that Gen. Dewet has crossed the Vaal and joined forces with the Transvael commandos, if true, probably means the concentration of 7,000 Boers, with several guns, for another big attack.

There is a rumor current in Cape Town that several Boer leaders are urging an attack upon the mines. It has been long understood that Gen. Dewet has been anxious to join the invaders in Cape Colony, and this rumor may be spread to cover an attempt to break southward.

A small Boer commando entered Sutherland, cut the telegraph wires, looted the stores and then proceeded northward. According to the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, the Boers occupied Aberdeen, 40 miles south of Graaf Reinet, Tuesday.

THE CAPTURED CONVOY. Pretoria, Jan. 16.-The Boers have captured a convoy of twelve wagons with provisions for the troops at Rhenoster kop. They killed two of the Brit-ish guards and wounded eleven. The remaining nine surrendered. The Boers apparently fearing the approach of other troops abandoned the wagons and prisoners.

An additional big gun year. been mounted on Table Mountain. to enroll in the fresh contingent of 1.000 men for service in South Africa. As soon as the lists were opened 1,500 men rushed to the recruiting office, and struggled to get enrolled. Troops had to be summoned to control the applicants, many of whom were men who had returned from South Africa.

MATABELES IN IT. Cape Town, Jan. 17 .- A unique feature of Kitchener's fighting scouts is the enrollment of 300 Matabele camp followers for riding and leading the spare horses. This is likely to renew the color agitation. Many foreigners are arriving at Durban from Johannesburg without any means of support. Their consuls refuse to help them, and the corporation objects to being burdened with their support. The question of caring for them presents many difficulties. Two thousand recruits have been secured in Natal in two months. A government notice has been promulgated in Pretoria prohibiting civilians from wearing khaki and notifying all persons who wear this costume, which is likely to be mistaken for the British uniform, that they will render themselves liable to arrest and imprisonment.

The Home-Comers. WARM WELCOMES.

Sarnia, Ont., Jan. 16 .- It was nearly half-past one o'clock before the special train bearing the two returning soldiers, Harry Mackenzie and Alex. Hume, arrived at the Cromwell street depot. When the soldier boys stepped from the car to the station platform they were greeted with cheer upon cheer, and it was with difficulty the two young men pressed through the crowd of people to their carriage on Front street. The procession was then formed, and, headed by the Sarnia band, marched to the Boys' Brigade

Hall, where the presentation ceremonies took place. Aylmer's demonstration was most enthusiastic, although but one of her two South African heroes W. A. Hare, reached home yesterday. No sooner had he struck the ground than he was seized and carried to the horse waiting to receive him, and the procession took up the route of march to the town hall, along which he was received with continuous cheering. At the town hall an address was read by Mayor Glover, and handed to Driver Hare, accompanied by a purse containing $50 in

At Stouffville one of the most successful banquets in the history of the town was given last evening in honor of Nelson Nendick, one of the returned heroes from South Africa.

At Port Rowan, Ont., a large and enthusiastic gathering of the people met Trooper Bert Richardson at the station on his arrival.

The last of Elora's returning soldiers from South Africa, Lieut. Campbell. Trooper Bryan and Pte. Walsh, arrived home at noon yesterday and were warmly received. Besides those named there were present Sergt. Wells, wno arrived home on Christmas Day, and Pte. Barrett, who, with Troopers Bryan and Pte. Walsh, enlisted in Manitoba, Corp. Blythe, of Belwood, and Sergt. Aitken, of Fergus, were also present.

A monster procession, headed by the Citizens' Band, escorted the soldiers from their homes to the hall. The building, the largest in the town, was packed to the doors, and numbers were turned away. Lieut. Campbell was made the recipient from the people of Elora of a sword and cross-belt, Sergt. Wells a gold watch and chain, and Trooper Bryans and Pte. Barrett each who have recently returned from South Africa. A banquet will be given at Petrolis on Friday in honor of Sergt. C. F. Col-ter. Several officers of the 27th Regiment will be present, as well as these African contingent boys, viz.: Sergt Gorman, Ken. Johnson, J. B. Parde, of Sarnia, and Ernie N. Dolman, of Windsor. The latter named gentleman participated in every engagement with the first contingent. Among the arrivals at Winnip eg from the east on Wednesday were Surgeon-Major Devine, Ptes. McNeil, Sammon Kerr and Barry, of Moosom in; Pte. Smart, of Swift Current; Pte. Clarke, of Prince Albert; Ptes. Sharpe, Traverse and Lumley, of Edmonton; F tes. Leach and Carson, of Battleford, and Pte. Millie, of Maple Creek, all of the second Canadian contingent.
