PLAYED CARDS ON COFFIN LID

a Funeral Passed Through London Streets.

London, Sept. 29.—A most remarkable sight, one which startled and shocked the reverend and made the ribald who saw it, smile, was witnessed in the street the other day. The scene was laid inside a funeral hearse. Squeezed between the coffin and the glass sides of the hearse were four mutes, playing cards and using the coffin for a table. They seemed perfectly happy, though rather pressed for room. As men have often expressed strange wishes regarding burial, it is possible that some Londoner desired that at his funeral a game of cards should be played on his coffin. Talking about coffins, the presence of a human body, even though in a her-metically sealed coffin is not exactly an ing in the hotel.

When the matter first became known the sanitary authorities moved to have of victims were drowned in the open the body taken away and buried. It was thought the last had been heard of the affair, but the hotel proprietor has so far successfully resisted the action of the sanitary officials, maintaining that, as the body is in a her-metically sealed coffin, its presence in the hotel does not constitute a nuisance | cyclone is expected to amount to over under the public health act.

The city health department is now onsidering what further action can be taken. Meantime it is trying the effect of a threat to divulge the name of the hotel. It seems the hotel owner pur-poses to visit America shortly and in-tends to take the body over for interment there.

The fact that the Allens would dispatch the steamer Ontario from Montreal on Oct. 18 and the Elder-Dempster the steamer Melville on Nov. 18, from the same port, with full cargoes, means much. Canadian ministers in London, he said, lost no time in providing this service, but as it is largely an experiment, it rested with the dian people to make it profitable to the steamship companies engaged. SHIPBUILDING COMBINE. New York, Sept. 29.-W. J. Pierrie. of the Harlan & Wolff Shipbuilding Company, of Belfast, Ireland, has confirmed the reports that the details of the great trans-Atlantic shipbuilding ombination is now practically completed. I sail for Europe on the Celtic on Oct. 3, and I believe by that time every arrangement will be perfected." "Will the Harlan & Wolff Shipbuilding Company be included?" he was asked. "No, it will not be interested in the combination further than it will have specific tracts to build boats for the Englis. part of the company. The English companies will remain intact, and their boats will continue to fly the English flag. Our company will build ships for that part of the combination. Possibly we may build for the American lines, but that will depend upon the exigencies of our trade." The Commercial Advertiser prints the following: "It was learned today on the highest authority that all the details of the Atlantic steamship combination, which has been arranged by J. Pierpont Morgan, are now practically completed. George W. Perkins, who was at the French Line pier Saturday to meet Robert Bacon, of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., confirmed this in an interview to a reporter of this paper."

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 29.—The fight of Laura Biggar, a former ctress, for the millions of Henry M. Bennett, came to a sudden and dramatic ending before Justice Heishley here. The claimant, through counsel, abandoned the suit, and announced she would be satisfied with the 60 cent, of the estate given her by the will. Hardly had this been done than counsel for the heirs opposing the Biggar claim, showed that they had been more than prepared for this move, and warrants charging conspiracy were served on Samuel Stanton, the former justice of the peace of Hudson county, who testified that he had performed the marriage ceremony between. Miss Biggar and the Pittsburg millionaire, as may be needful.

LORD DUDLEY'S RICH STRIKE. Lord Dudley, who has just entered upon his duties as Viceroy of Ireland, has no need to trouble his head about the lavish expenditure which is incumbent upon the King's representative in Ireland. ARE WORRIED OVER THE KING

Kirk-High Church People Concerned.

London, Sept. 29.-The High Church for the salvation of its King. His majesty and other members of the royal King is only following, as he vowed he would, in the footsteps of his mother. The High Church party seems more concerned now that the King should repeat what in High Church eyes is an offense, evidently forgetting that the King is the head of the Church of Scotland as well as of that attraction in any hotel, yet one lies in a Glasgow hotel, and the proprietor refuses to have it interred in the ordinassembly of the Church of Scotland. Two amusing incidents happened last Sunday, when the King was present at the service at Crathie Church. On been recovered at Modica. Hundreds of victims were drowned in the open the top of the pew which fronts the royal aisle. He was immediately followed by Prince Arthur of Connaught, who seated himself next to his uncle. He was at once, however, told to move, which he did, blushing very much. The Princess of Wales then took his place, the Prince of Wales sitting next to her. Then in order came Prince Edward of Wales and Prince Arthur. At the end of the service, when the red bag was presented to the King, he couldn't find his offering until he had searched in several pockets, smiling broadly all the while. Queen Victoria always brought her offering wrapped in a small piece of white

Little Boy Electrocuted by Taking Hold of Crossed Wire.

McKeesport, Pa., Sept. 29. - Eight nen, with charred faces and terribly ed bodies, were taken to the McKeesport hospital as the result of an explosion at a furnace of the Carnegie blast furnace plant, Duquesne, Saturday night. Two of the victims have since died and there is little hope that any of the others will recover. The dead are: Jos. Lisha and Steve Sculle. The injured are: George Caspewik, Mike Misho, Frank Kister, Mike Floskey, John Freshke, and John Adams, all Slavs, and all of Duquesne: All of those injured were caught in the fierce blast of flames and ashes which followed the blowing out of a bell while the men were at work. They were sent up to the dangerous place about one hour before. Something had gone wrong with the working of the furnace, and these eight were ordered to make the necessary repairs. KILLED BY ICE WAGON. Toronto, Sept. 29. — Gordon Gardiner, of No. 138 Willis street, an 8-year-old lad, was run over and killed by an ice wagon Saturday afternoon. The two children were playing in the muddy roadway, when the ice wagon came along, and young Gardiner ran in front and was knocked down, the heavy wheels passing over and crushing him so badly that death resulted shortly after reaching his home, where he was taken.

J., Sept. 29. — Dr. Willard Humphreys, head of the department of German in Princeton University, who on Sunday night took an overdose of chloral hydrate, in an effort to gain relief from a severe toothache, died on Friday. Three physicians exerted all their skill to save and artificial respiration was carried on continuously for thirty-six hours. The heart, however, failed to respond properly, and he was unconscious for many hours prior to his

Mary Walker's Adventure. Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 29. — Dr. Mary Walker, of Oswego, strolled into the women's waiting room of the New York Central Railway, Martha, the negro attendant, not knowing her, approached her and said: "You must get out of heah, sah." "Why" asked Dr. Mary. "'Cause men ain't allowed here," was the answer.

"Well, I want you to distinctly understand that I am not a man," said the doctor with a stamp of her foot. The other women in the room, thinkng she was an impostor, left, and Dr. Walker soon had the whole room to herself. Identity of "Quida." New York, Sept. 29. — Mrs. Mary Gliddon, of 89 Second Place, Brooklyn, gives some remarkable informaabout "Ouida," whose novels have been read by many hundreds of thousands of the present generation.

Mrs. Gliddon says that "Ouida" is her sister-in-law-that is, the sister of her nusband, George Ray Gliddon, who died about twenty years ago. She says

further that "Ouida" is not an English woman, born at Bury St. Ed-munds, 59 years ago, of a French father and an English mother, as all the world heretofore has supposed. "Ouida," according to Mrs. Gliddon, is an American woman, in spite of the fact that common report has it that Americans, both men and women, as well as everything American, are her particular and pet antipathies.
