When the matter first became known the sanitary authorities moved to have of victims were drowned in the open the body taken away and buried. It was thought the last had been heard of the affair, but the hotel proprietor has so far successfully resisted the action of the sanitary officials, maintaining that, as the body is in a her-metically sealed coffin, its presence in the hotel does not constitute a nuisance under the public health act. The city health department is now considering what further action can be taken. Meantime it is trying the effect of a threat to divulge the name of the hotel. It seems the hotel owner purposes to visit America shortly and in-tends to take the body over for interment there.

Because He Attends a Scotch Kirk—High Church People Concerned.

London, Sept. 29.-The High Church party in England is greatly concerned for the salvation of its King. His majesty and other members of the royal family now at Balmoral persist in worshiping every Sunday at Crathie Kirk The Church party recks not that the King is only following, as he vowed he would, in the footsteps of his mother. The High Church party seems more concerned now that the King should repeat what in High Church eyes is an offense, evidently forgetting that the King is the head of the Church of Scotland as well as of that of England, and every year the King appoints a lord high commissioner to represent his majesty at the general assembly of the Church of Scotland. Two amusing incidents happened last Sunday, when the King was present at the service at Crathie Church. On his arrival his majesty took a seat at the top of the pew which fronts the royal aisle. He was immediately fol lowed by Prince Arthur of Connaught. who seated himself next to his uncle. He was at once, however, told to move, which he did, blushing very much. The Princess of Wales then took his place, the Prince of Wales sitting next to her. Then in order came Prince Edward of

TO RELIEVE CANADIANS.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 28.-The troopship Aurania, from Southampton, with the Fifth Royal Garrison Regiment on board, and which is to replace the Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax, arrived here this evening. The trooper left on Sept. 20 and had a good passage. There are 997 officers and men on the trooper. They are all dressed in khaki. There was one suicide, one death and a birth during the passage. The steamer also brought 100 Royal Artillerymen for the garrison at Esquimalt, B. C. The new regiment will disembark on Tuesday morning. The first detachment of the Canadians left for their homes in New Brunswick tonight. Those for Western Nova Scotia leave in the morning, and also the men from Cape Breton, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland. The men for Quebec, Montreal and the west will leave for their homes

McKeesport, Pa., Sept. 29. — Eight men, with charred faces and terribly burned bodies, were taken to the McKeesport hospital as the result of an explosion at a furnace of the Carnegie blast furnace plant, Duquesne, Saturday night. Two of the victims have since died and there is little hope that any of the others will The dead are: Jos. Lisha and Steve Sculle. The injured are: George Caspewik, Mike Misho, Frank Kister, Mike Floskey, John Freshke, and John Adams, all Slavs, and all of Duquesne. All of those injured were caught in the fierce blast of flames and ashes which followed the blowing out of a bell while the men were at work. They were sent up to the dangerous place about one hour be-fore. Something had gone wrong with the working of the furnace, and these eight were ordered to make the necessary repairs.

KILLED BY ICE WAGON. Toronto, Sept. 29. — Gordon Gardiner, of No. 138 Willis street, an 8-year-old lad, was run over and killed by an ice wagon Saturday afternoon. The two children were playng in the muddy roadway, when the ice wagon came along, and young Gardiner ran in front and was knocked down, the heavy wheels passing over and crushing him so badly that death resulted shortly after reaching his home, where he was taken.

BOY ELECTROCUTED. Flint, Mich., Sept. 29.—A telephone wire charged with deadly current by Senator R. C. Johnson. The lad, with other little fellows, was on his way The ed by crossing a live electric wire. An DOSE WAS FATAL. Princeton, N. J., Sept. 29. - Dr. Wilthe next few weeks to perfect itself lard Humphreys, head of the department of German in Princeton University, who on Sunday night took an overdose of chloral hydrate, in an effort to gain relief from a severe toothache, died on Friday. death.

Mary Walker's Adventure. Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 29. — Dr. Mary Walker, of Oswego, strolled into the women's waiting room of the New York Central Railway. Martha, the negro attendant, not knowing her, approached her and said:

herself.

"Why" asked Dr. Mary. ''Cause men ain't allowed here." was the answer. "Well, I want you to distinctly understand that I am not a man," said the doctor with a stamp of her foot. The other women in the room, thinking she was an impostor, left, and Dr. Walker soon had the whole room to Identity of "Quida."

New York, Sept. 29. — Mrs. Mary Gliddon, of 89 Second Place, Brooklyn, gives some remarkable informaabout "Ouida." whose novels have been read by many hundreds of thousands of the present generation. Mrs. Gliddon says that "Ouida" is her sister-in-law-that is, the sister of her husband, George Ray Gliddon, who died about twenty years ago. She says further that "Ouida" is not an English woman, born at Bury St. Ed-munds, 59 years ago, of a French father and an English mother, as all the world heretofore has supposed. "Ouida," according to Mrs. Gliddon, is an American woman, in spite of the fact that common report has it that mericans, both men and women, as well as everything American, are her particular and pet antipathies.
