NOON AND EVENING DAILY. WESTERN ADVERTISER WEEKLY THE LONDON ADVERTISER CO., Limited, Publishers. 191-193 Dundas Street, London, Ont.

PHONE NUMBERS:

Business Department. 107 Editorial Rooms. 134 and 136 Job Printing Department. 175 TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Readers of The Advertiser are re-quested to favor the management by reporting any irregularities in delivery. SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Advertiser is on sale regularly at the following news stands, where subscriptions may be left:

Suffato, N. Y.—R. J. Seidenburg, Ellicott Square News Stand. Chicago, III.-Chicago Newspaper Agen-

News Company. Montreal, Que.-Peter Murphy, Post-ffice News Stand. Toronto-Troquois Hotel News Stand. Toronto, Rossin House News Stand.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JAN. 22.

THE BRITISH SITUATION. About 200 members of the the Britelected. It is possible, even probable, that the Liberals and their Labor tion recalls the general election of 1885 blazoned in a hundred prints. which gave Parnell and his followers CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND. are resting, that they enjoy little day the balance of power. Gladstone's enemies accused him of introducing his home rule bill as the price of Irish support, but no charge could be more groundless. Like Asquith today, Gladstone before the election of 1885 prom-Ireland, without committing himself to absolute majority over all other parties, including the group of dissident Conservative Government if it would undertake to redress Irish grievances. Lord Salisbury declined the offer, through Lord Carnaryon, who intimat-Great Britain. were disposed to support the Irish claims that Parnell advised the Irish electors in England, Scotland and of conflict between the upper and gratifying. lower chambers. The Nationalists ab- From a perusal of Commissioner stained from voting for the budget in Ray's report it is evident Canadian in- To help his wife he couldn't bear; whiskey duties—on the plea that they opposed on principle any increase increase with the island will find much in the Complain, in accents ne'er so mild; opposed on principle any increase report of value to them. taxation. is incon-Government to be defeated and the a hardy annual. home rule issue thrust into the background again for years through sympathy for the dstilling interests. It is Asquith will permit the Nationalists to dictate the form of the home rule bill as the condition of their support of the other general election. The Irish party butter. has with great difficulty collected the sinews of war for this campaign. Another election at once would mean party insolvency. Fortunately in John Redmond the Nationalists have a moderate and level-headed leader, and they have been able to defeat the Irish insurgents who would split the party again if they had their way. The prospects are that the Liberals, the Laborites and the Irish will work together harmoniously against the com-

IS PROFESSIONAL GAMBLING A NECESSITY?

Some of the evidence given at Ottalaw because it stimulates interest in horse-racing, and horse-racing improves herse-breeding. The Toronto relegram deals with this argument as breeding industry. It is still harder to prove the

and the winner take all—are gone, be a deplorable trimmer to consent to flourishing than it is right now

Money is bet on yacht races, and always will be; but there is attached outfit on the pierhead, in gold lace and brass buttons or sou'westers and sea boots, coresponding to silk hats and sweaters in horse sociologist, Dr. Bolton Ely Flint, in a racing, taking the money of college boys and grocery clerks, with mathematical regularity.

Legislation is not wanted to prevent people betting among themon horse races any more than legislation is wanted to prevent people making peanut-pushing bets on elections, but legislation is needed to protect the public-the wise old public, which calls itself a "Good Sport," when it parts with its own professional money-takers, and expects all the while to get something

The strong opposition to the abolition of race-track gambling comes from those who are making money can a fellow do? If he takes to the roads

Strange to say, there has not been a very noticeable outburst of indignation from the public at the pros pect of losing their blood-bought rights (cheers) as British subjects (more cheers) to part with their money to a lot of bookmakers from Yankeeland (loud and prolonged cheering).

A SCANDAL EXPLODED.

The Richibucto, N. B., wharf mystery, which has been figuring in the Opposition press as a scandal, has been cleared up.

The wharf was sold to the depart-

It was proven before the public accounts committee at Ottawa on Wed- opened by mistake, also a man who i nesday that the part of the property sold by the original owner for $700 ty, 10 Madison street.

Louisville, Ky.—Kentucky International was only a small partion of that afterwards transferred to the Government. It was shown also that the price paid by the Government compared favorably with that awarded by arbitrators in a similar case in the same neighborhood, and that so far from the transaction being a scandal it ish House of Commons remain to be was one which was most advan-allies may not have a majority inde- will be given to this explanation as to fellow-men at heart are urging the unpendent of the Nationalists. The situa- the accusations of graft which were

Information of considerable interest light, little fresh air, and rarely share in to Canadians is contained in a report the family life even of their own homes. on trade between this country and Various plans are suggested to better, if Newfoundland just issued by the de-things. The archbishop is very active in partment of trade and commerce. The this matter, and has already gained the report was prepared by Mr. J. E. Ray, name of the working-baker's friend ised a measure of self-government to Canadian trade commissioner at St. (L'ami du mitron). He insists that the Johns, Nfld., and deals with the com- master bakers must at least arrange for mercial possibilities of the island be free from work and not obliged to

That Canada holds supremacy in the the night's baking. And he bids all his Newfoundland market is shown by the clergy use stale bread for the "pain latest return of the colony's imports tain service is handed round among the available-that for 1907-8. These fig- congregation. ures show Canada to lead, with $4,though he had been negotiating with 257.647, as compared with $3.859.892 for the Irish party before the election, the United States, and $2,668,802 for

Wales to support Conservative candi- every effort will be put forth by them air. dates. All these circumstances are re- to take further advantage of it. In that market Canada is on equal geographical footing with her chief com-With the Nationalists again in con- petitor, the United States, and that the trol British politics would become even Dominion is able to outstrip the re- At plain, hard work he didn't shine; more dramatic than in the past year public in the race for that trade is He'd shirk it ten times out of nine its final stage because of their op- terests in Newfoundland are in good He never would her burdens share position to one feature only—the hands, and those interested in trade

The Foster-Macdonald libel suit has re-introduced they would allow the again been postponed. It is becoming But when a hard job was on hand

In Canada the land is regarded for In telling how the work should go its productivity. In Great Britain He mestly occupied the hours there is an idea that it was created for In settling questions for the powers, equally inconceivable that Mr. the amusement and amenity of a small At navigating slaps of state class of superior beings

The English tenant farmer, farm Government. The Nationalists are no laborer and villager votes Liberal at About the sun and moon and stars; more eager than the Liberals or the his peril in this election. The favor of And other subjects manifold. Laborites to incur the expense of an- the lord of the manor is his bread and

> In his first tariff reform speech at Glasgow a few years ago, Mr. Cham-

"I propose to put no tax whatever maize, because maize is a food of the very poorest of the people. I that will enable her to dodge dishwashpropose to exclude bacon from pro- ing. tection also, because bacon forms the staple food for many of the poorest of the population." If the foreigner pays the duty, why halt at a duty on maize or bacon? The meat boycott in the United States would be a capital stroke if it hit only the pockets of the meat trust. Nothing so simple happens in this day of complex industrial organization. The prison this afternoon. wa in detence of legalized race-track men who work for the trust, the traingambling is neither good morals nor men who transport the meat, the good logic. Abe Orpen, of Toronto, who butchers who sell it, and a host of inhas made a fortune on the race-track termediaries and "innocent bystandwithout owning a horse, is not the ers" will feel the effects. The readiest only one open to this reproach. Some and least injurious method of bringing general," replied the native; "but it o'clock, of the foremost men of Ontario frankly down prices to the natural level would doesn't apply to this town." take the position that professional turf be the removal of the tariff; but so gambling should have the sanction of long as the people vote with the trusts

-and they deserve none. Mr. Borden reads City Treasurer Ellis, of Ottawa, out of the party if he We seem to have been able to declines to withdraw from the field. asked. breed thoroughbred cattle and hogs, to raise first quality fruit, and grow 1 hard wheat without finding jingo candidate. He favors giving two employment for an army of profes- Dreadnoughts at once to the British takers of foolish people's Government, and then building a Can-It is hard to make out a case for adian navy, over which the Canadian gambling as an adjunct to the horse- Parliament should have no control in time of war. This pretended distrust system of race-track of the Canadian Parliament is at botgambling a necessity to the sport of tom a covert attack upon Sir Wilfrid The "good old gambling days" of the early sixties, when the Hen-Laurier, but Mr. Ellis' policy in no way rietta, Fleetwing and Dauntless raced by Mr. Borden himself. The official for a stake of $90,000-$30,000 a side Opposition candidate, Dr. Chabot, must stand on such a platform. MIXED DATES.

"The shameless grafting that goes on n New York," said the well-known recent address in Memphis, "makes me think of a conversation between two crooked storekeepers. These two men, meeting at the club, shook hands, and the first said: "'I congratulate you, old chap. That was a splendid fire of yours last Thurs-

"The other frowned. "'You're mixed,' he said. Thursday; next Thursday."

THE LESSER EVIL. [Buffalo Express.] "Don't you find it dangerous riding freights?" asked the philanthropist.

"Yes," assented the hobo out of race track gambling privi- he is likely to be bumped by an automobile. I believe in taking the lesser of two evils.

> HAVE 'EM OR GET 'EM. [Philadelphia Telegraph.] "It is said that impetuous people have black eyes.'

> "Yes, and if they don't have them they are apt to get them.'

DYSPEPTIC PHILOSOPHY.

Most good fellows are only that way away from home. Of course, two can live as cheaply as After they get married they generally find that they have to. The only idea some men have of getting to the front is by pushing others

The people who have the greatest opinions of themselves are frequently the Some men would be willing to pay longdistance telephone rates to tell their

It sometimes happens that a letter i operated on for appendicitis.

THE ARCHBISHOP AND THE BAKERS

[Manchester Guardian.] Christian Socialism is likely to get of Paris has put himself forward as its "I am a Socialist because day or two ago. He has taken up the cause of the working bakers. French hard if kept even a day or two. There fore all French baking goes on at night It is to be hoped the same publicity People who have the welfare of their healthiness and injustice of this system, meaning, as it does, that a very large during the night only, when other people Sunday to be a day when the men may spend it in bed in order to get up for benit"-the blessed bread which at a cer-

MIXED METAPHORS.

HIS PERMANENT JOB

(Chicago News.)

When cold and hungry were his broc

Then greatly would his chest expand. And he most eloquent would grow

Ah, there the man was really great! Then he could talk to beat the cars About the polar regions cold

His head was full of heated air: The pressure sought adjustment there, And so his tongue could never shirk, But, like a piston, had to work.

FEMININE AMBITION. A girl's idea of culture is something

HIS AWKWARD BLUNDER. "Cohen's ill in bed, I hear

"Yes. He smoked a cigar from the wrong pocket."

THE WEEK IN LONDON. "Is Lady Jane in?" "Very sorry, sir, but mistress is DIFFERENT LOCALLY.

[Chicago Evening Post.]
"Well, how true it is," sighs the visitor, that one-half the world doesn't know just one week before his death. now the other half lives."

CASEY'S VACATION.

Casey's wife was at the hospital, where she had undergone a very serious operation a few days before. Kelly called to inquire as to Mrs. Casey's condition. "Is she restin' quietly?" Mrs. Kelly

"No, but I am," said Casey. A VITAL DIFFERENCE. [Exchange.]

"What did you say last night Jack asked you to marry him '

"Sideways, or up and down?" THE SWEETEST MUSIC.

I love to hear the singer who can warble like a bird. The lady who pulls down two thousand

When I hear the voice of Melba I am most profoundly stirred, I am better, nobler, after hearing her.

I like to hear the jingle of hard money in the till. I like to hear the clang of distant bells: I like to hear the ripple of the unpolluted rill.

I am gladdened by the songsters in the

I love to hear the crooning of a mother who is young. I love to hear the wind blow through I am gladdened when I listen to a sweet love lyric sung, I'm exalted by the poet's lilting lines. But if one wish might be granted-the one wish to me most dear-I'd wish to wake tomorrow, just

With a June breeze blowing o'er me as I cocked my head to hear The rattle of the mower on the lawn,

Last Week of January House furnishings Sale

The success of this sale has been far beyond our expectations, and we expected big things. Now for the last week. It must end with a blaze of honor. We have determined that the great selling record of the last three weeks must be broken, and have added many lines particularly interesting. Here's a suggestion of how the prices run. On every item in Homefurnishings Kingsmill's can save you money. Come Monday.

\$1.25 yard Brussels, border and stairs to match, for \$1.09 \$1.00 yard Brussels, with borders to match, for.......75¢ 25c yard Dutch Carpets, 34 inches wide, suitable for \$8.50 Tapestry Rugs, size $3x3\frac{1}{2}$ yards, for only \$6.50 \$10.00 Chenille Curtains for\$4.00 \$5.00 Nottingham Lace Curtains for\$3.50 Buy Housefurnishings now. We will keep all goods until you want them delivered.

For Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums, etc., bring room

Bargains in Linoleums, Rugs, Mats, Blinds and all Housefurnishings. Remember the Place

Mail or phone orders receive prompt and careful attention. faction guaranteed. Mysmills

Mail or phone orders receive prompt and careful attention. Satisfaction guaranteed.

SARNIA ODDFELLOWS VISITED DETROIT

Time With the Brethren -- A Sudden Death.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Jan. 22.—The degree team Sarnia, Jan. 22.—The degree team of the sarnia, Jan. 22.—The degree team of Sarnia Lodge, No. 126, I. O. O. F., accompanied by about 100 brother Oddfellows and friends, left by special train for Detroit, where they visited Jubilee Lodge, No. 462, I. O. O. F., and exemplified the third degree. A most Great Britain.

Canadian manufacturers realize more than ever that our sister colony offers a profusble market for their products, and electric power than ever that our sister colony offers and it is but reasonable to expect that our sites and the colors have a profusble market for their products, and it is but reasonable to expect that our sites and machinery to equip this extensive farm.

Jubilee Lodge, No. 462, I. O. O. F., and extensive farm.

Willard. The secretary presented the following communications:

Willard. The secretary presented the following communications:

From A. Devine, for electric light for house and barn, and electric power for house and barn, and electric power for a 3-horsepower motor; referred to an other verdict was given to the prize for dairy competition for house and barn, and electric power for a 3-horsepower motor; referred to superintendent to report on cost of year throughout the province.

Boaus Check Artist. was the cloven hoof of Protection in the ing the boys felt that the time had poles and wiring, etc. been well and usefully spent. The de-gree team of Sarnia Lodge has the electric light, Commissioner Weir last week from Sarnia, and succeeded reputation of being one of the best in moved that J. Brown have a light at in inducing two of our merchants to reputation of being one of the best in moved that J. Brown have a light at in inducing two of our merchants to cash his paper, which proved worth-the L. O. O. F. jurisdiction, and this 25 cents per month. This brought up cash his paper, which proved worth-their performance last night. The or, who objected to the price as being measure.

The occupance which proved worth-their performance last night. The or, who objected to the price as being measure.

Chickenpox and measles are quite that the was not as cheap as Commissioner Weir replied to the prevalent around town among the excellent character of the young man grand, J. B. Williams: high priest, W. shore Reesor's. The matter was left children grand, J. B. Williams; high priest, W. sioner Reesor's. The matter was left children.

J. Mills; vice grand, W. J. Batten, past over to the next meeting to investigrand, C. H. Blacker, and the following gate.

In Blacker, and the following gate.

Thomas O'Dett sent in a complaint wilkins, Bert Ross, A. V. Lee, Fred re electric light bill for December, Re Cents per dozen.

Mr. Charles Gordon, banker, of The full details of the shocking formerly of Strathroy, are only now coming to light.

Dryden, Ont., formerly of Strathroy, The whole pure portion of his lead

> Winters, G. Murphy, A. Parsons, A the minutes. Maiklin, P. Semple, Thos. Bulman, W. On mation Granger and Roy Mills. Boy Taken From Parents. Thompson, the thirteen-Monday evening and charged with man this afternoon for sentence. The magistrate, considering the age of the of the G. T. R. wanted electric lights oy, thought it best to take him from in the freight sheds, and he also was his parents and give him to the Chil- writing to G. T. R. authorities in refhis parents and give him to the Chil- writing to G. T. R. authorities in refing. There are few destitute families in they are looked after, even in town and they are looked after, even sought after, by the charitably disback to Russia, and is believed in Secretary Wilkinson, of the Children's Reynolds will report on the cost of posed. Aid Society, will seek a new home for poles, wires, etc.

are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. (Chief) when contracted and the amount, Car- were united in marriage on Saturday County Council. The contest for the warden's chair will be between Reeve Darvil, of Brooke, and Reeve Anderson, of Oil Sudden Death.

John Charles Cowan, who was in his thirty-ninth year, died at the home of his father, Robert Cowan, lot 22, concession 10, Moore Township, yesterday. Deceased had only recently come from Cleveland, where he had been engaged in building automobiles. and had made arrangements for moving his household effects to the farm this afternoon before Police Magistrat he had just purchased, when he was Noble, Mr. J. B. McKillop, crown attaken suddenly ill with pneumonia, torney of London, was the prosecutor, funeral will be held to Froomfield prisoner. Cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2:30

VERY NARROW ESCAPE FOR ST. MARYS LADY

Struck by a Mass of Ice That Fell From Roof—South Perth Agricultural Society.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Marys. Jan. 21.-Mrs. John Wilson, Water street north, had a narrow escape of serious injury on Tuesday. On returning from shopping with an armful of parcels the thaw caused an avalanche of ice to slide off the root witness, on being shown several things continues to rise rapidly. It is stated of the three-story stone building ad-joining Maclean's drug store. A por-to him—a gold watch and chain and a flood tomorrow. There is 61 feet of tion of the ice struck Mrs. Wilson and suitcase. parcels on the street. Mrs. Wilson Albert coat, some cuffs, vests, under- de la Trinite. A portion of the Boule knocked her down, and strewed the dazed condition, but after resting longed to him, and were stolen from way has caved in. Hundreds of facwas able to go to her home.

South Perth Agricultural Society. At the annual meeting of the South Perth Agricultural Society, held here on Thursday afternoon, the following officers and directors were elected for President-D. G. McBeth, Downie.

First Vice-President-Archibald Mc-Donald, Blanshard. Second Vice-President-James Henlerson, West Nissouri.

Directors-R. J. Heine and F. E. Maclean, St. Marys; J. H. Robinson and Wm. Mossip, Blanshard; Wm. Porter and J. H. McCully, Downie; evening: President, Miss Bella Cam-John Bolton and D. M. Cole, East eron; vice-president, Miss A. T. Mit-Nissouri; Stephen Daly, West Nis- chell; treasurer, Mrs. McKenzie; secsouri; John Hodge, Fullarton. Honorary directors were also elected from the above various named date to be decided on later. The treasurer's statement showed ment in health. total receipts for 1909 of $1,369; balance on hand $50. Municipal Business. The first regular meeting of the early in the spring, where he will per-Longley, M. Swafford, A. Vanalstyke, ferred to superintendent.

A. G. Wheeler, W. Dougherty, G. S. Williams, R. Myler, J. Dagan, J. C. Winters, G. Murphy, A. Parsons, A Maiklin P. Semole, These Rulman W.

amounting to $304 05

Commissioner Weir moved that Miss class structure, was orened to the Rev. Mr. Baker, of Thedford, will Long, treasurer, have the assistance public this morning.

ried. The Lambton county council for EXTENSIVE ROBBERIES IN STRATHROY

The Alleged Perpetrator Sent for Trial PARIS FLOOD MENACES -Death of Mrs. W. B. Davis.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Strathroy, Jan. 21. - The preliminary trial of Gordon LaMotte, who is of Mr. Robert McAlpine, and the residence of Mr. David Evans, took place The while Mr. W. Bixel appeared for the being entered on the evening of Dec. 10, and a quantity of goods being taken tions of a catastrophe. The water at to the value of about $70. On being 2 o'clock had risen a foot since mornshown goods which the prisoner had, ing. The foundations of many buildas those stolen from his shop. ed about the arrest and the recovering in danger of collapsing.

said, were found in Detroit and some communication is interrupted throughin Port Huron. coat worn by the prisoner, and a pair Many bridges have been swept away of trousers produced, were made of the and canal traffic has been abandoned same material.

house of Mr. D. Evans, was then pro- ation in Paris, however, promises

Mr. Ewart Evans identified a Prince was taken into the drug store in a wear, watch and pin, as goods that behis father's house on Dec. 19. Chief Wilson said the watches which were identified by the last two witnesses were found on the prisoner when he was searched. In connection with the second charge the prisoner said nothing. Police Magistrate Noble committed LaMotte to stand his trial at the next criminal assizes, to be held in London in March next.

Officers of Y. P. H. S.

The following officers were elected by the Young People's Helping Society, retary, Miss L. McBeth. Death of Mrs. Davis.

tary-treasurer, Traders' Bank, St. at her home. She was a daughter of ROY SHORE'S DEATH Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank, of Adelaide. Messrs, J. Bolton and D. M. Cole The remains were brought here for were appointed representatives to the burial, the funeral taking place on Fairs' and Exhibitions' Association, Toronto; Arch. McDonald and D. M. Rev. W. M. Kannawain officiated. De-'ole were appointed representatives to ceased leaves a husband and two Degree Team Had an Enjoyable the Western Fair Association, Lon- young children, aged 10 and 8 years. The many friends of Mr. S. M. A spring fair will be held here, the Smyth, president of the S. F. Company will be pleased to hear of his improve-

Going to Moose Jaw. Mr. E. Zavitz, of Caradoc street, intends moving to Moose Jaw, Sask.

Weir, Institute was warrants were issued for accounts on Friday. Miss B. Douglas acted as chairman in the absence of the pres-Mayor Willard suggested that Su- ident. Miss B. Douglas acted as exchange pulpits with Rev. Mr. Baker, of Superintendent Reynolds to render Mr. John R. Collins, formerly of of Thedford, on Sunday.

Our new postoffice, which is a first- be in the United States.

Alies Alice Taylor, of London, and outstanding accounts up to Jan. 1. Sadie Wood, a well known and highly Miss Violet Barker, of Buffalo, N. Y., 1910, and also all arrears, giving date respected young lady of Waterford Jan. 15. Congratulations C. M. Brookfield, of the North Ward,

McKnight, of this town,

Miss Mary Cropp, of Aylmer, is vis THE EIFFEL TOWER

accused of breaking into the tailor shop Great Structure Threatens to Collapse Through Inundations at French Capital.

Mr. R. McAlpine told of his shop Seine threatens to assume the propor-Mr. McAlpine recognized some of them ings and notably the Eiffel Tower have Chief of Police Wilson was question- been infiltrated and the structures are of the goods. Some of the articles, he Railroad, telegraph and telephone Mr. McAlpine, recalled, said that the out Eastern France today by the floods The streets in scores of cities On being asked if he had anything villages are under water. Lille, Chalons to say on this charge, the prisoner said and Troyes suffered most.

A Second Charge.

Marne with their tributaries were reported at a standstill today. The situ ceeded with, Mr. David Evans, the first be worse than yesterday as the Seine water in the new subway Place de la Concorde and the Passage vard of St. Germain above the sub-

> Charleroi, Belgium, Jan. 22.-A large building in the course of construction near the viaduct, the foundations of which had been weakened by the rains, fell today, burying the workmen in the mins. Twelve men were killed and a score of others injured.

BRANTFORD HARD HIT BY THE BLIZZARD

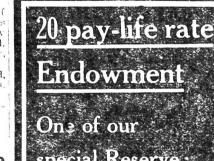

Brantford, Jan. 22.-Brantford is today experiencing a heavy storm. Early this morning a snowstorm start-ed, accompanied by a high northeast Already about eight inches of snow has fallen on the level, and in The many friends of Mrs. W. B. some places the drifts are very bad. Davis, of Raleigh, N. C., were pained The electric cars are out of business A. Carman was reappointed secre- to hear of her death, which occurred and all travel is about suspended,

DUE TO AN ACCIDENT

Coroner's Jury Decides He Was Killed by Discharge of His Own Gun. [Special to The Advertiser.]

CONDEMNED TO DEATH St. Petersburg, Jan. 22.- A court who was arrested on perintendent Reynolds take an inven- very pleasing solo. Miss H. Robert- martial at Riga has condemned Jan tory of supplies on hand, and keep a son, an instrumental. Mrs. T. Statham's Pouren, who was accused of nurderstealing various sums of money from the local Salvation Army officers, to which he pleaded guilty in the police court, appeared before Magistrate Gorgon Wayson Villard stated that the nagent owing to the absence of Mrs. Statham. Mayor Willard stated that the agent owing to the absence of Mrs. Statham. revolutionist who was arrested in New special Reserve Dividend Policies You pay the ordinary 20 pay life premium, and policy will mature as an Endowment at expectation

Booklet Free.

GEO. McBROOM, Inspector. GEO. F. EMERSON, District Agent. R. P. PEARCE Supt. Industrial Branch