A FIRE PANIC

Hundred Tenement-Dwellers

Given a Bad Scare. New York, July 21.-One person was killed, another is missing and three hundred tenement dwellers were driven from their homes in a panic as the esult of a fire which early today burned out the three upper floors of and Rivingston streets, near the Manhattan end of the Williamsburg bridge. The dead man was Parrish Eged, a Welshman, whose burned body was found on the sixth floor, where he had fallen while trying to escape. An unnamed boy, who was given permission to spend the night on the roof, is beieved to have perished.
