LUMBERMAN PAIN WHEN

[Canadian Press.]

St. John, N. B., June 18.-James Robinson, former M. P. of Millerton, N. B., was the first witness at the Dugal inquiry this morning. He held about 140 miles of crown lumber lands in his own name, and was president of Lynch & Co., which holds 122½ miles. The licenses were renewed last year, he said. W. H. Berry had told him about the campaign fund; that he expected to get about $15 a mile; that the others were paying that. Witness said if others were he would do the same. As to the Lynch lands, Robinson said he told Berry he did not feel like contributing anything on them. Berry urged it, and witness asked if Hon. John Morrissey, public works minister, knew about this. He said no, and he did not want him to know it. Witness said Berry did not give him any reason why he should pay, but

$140,000 IN PERMITS

Building Inspector's Record for Month, So Far, Total That Amount.

If women were given the right to go During the first half of June Building into vestries, he said, it would be just as reasonable to say that they should have the right to be members of the synod and the teachings of Scripture, be declared, were against this.

Canon Craig said he had been convinced by the synod synonymers. Inspector Piper issued 105 permits aggregating $140,000. Permits issued today were for two frame dwellings on Edna street being erected by F. Corby at a cost of $1,100 each; repairs to ed by personal parish experience that the system under which women were excluded from vestry deliberations, was wrong. Answering Mr. Henderson's arguments, Canon Craig declared that St. Paul had many women workers associated with him. This was a fact which could not be controverted.

Would Defer Judgment.

Prof. T. G. A. Wright, of Huron College, while not opposed to the principle of admitting women to vestries, thought that the change would affect existing legislation to so great an extent that it would be wise to defer judgment until every plan of the question had been considered carefully by a special committee.

Canon Downie, of Port Stanley, created some amusement by declaring that he Stanley Snow on Jasephine street, to cost $1,300; garage for H. E. Boomer at 181 Dundas street.

"Has not a woman enough to do in the home without coming into our vestries? And have not we enough men to conduct our affairs without asking women to take some of the load on their shoulders? I am not opposed to women in vestries, but I cannot see why you want to add to their already heavy burdens by asking them to take part in our business deliberations. near Delaware, and eats automobile coats. It ate the sleeves and tails out of both the automobile dusters, belonging to Messrs. Tillmann and Jennings, when they were absent fishing, Tuesday afternoon. The coats were left lying over the backs of the front seats of the two cars on the roadside.

When they returned from the river, some distance away, they found what had been good coats, with sleeves raggedly chewed out, and tailless, too. Some small boys in the neighborhood told them the cows were responsible. Messrs, Tillmann and Jennings think it was goats. If cows are guilty, then cows are cruel near Delaware, for only last year, Messrs. Tillman were taken in a group photograph with these very same cows that fed on their coats.
