Stove Leaguers' Chatter

Friday night's meeting of the Southern League may mean still cheaper amateur baseball. A straight 25 cent admission fee is being urged for London and this would probably jam the park.

pitchers cannot be developed if more time were paid to them. Young Daugherty of Woodstock was picked Pitching is the hard thing to get here tonight. If the losers had been able to hold the Red and White, who the professional pastime. Hurling is went on a goal-batting rampage at the one big outstanding feature, and the beginning of the second, the count would have been a tie. It turned out much of a ball game. Baseball is different than almost any other game in this respect.

Woodstock and St. Thomas are Edward waging a verbal warfare over anta-teur baseball. St. Thomas accused at the end of the first, and both teams netted the same number in the final canto.

London took the offensive at the commencement, but the excursions were checked, and after five minutes Smith broke through and tallied. A minute later Goyer batted the disc to the London goal post from where to the London goal post from where the through and tallied. A minute later Goyer batted the disc to the London goal post from where the through the first with more bombs, a few of the content of the first model. St. Thomas accused Woodstock of "cold feet," and then the defence of the chilled trilines Woodstock says pasty things about St. Thomas and the "grabitis" they were afflicted with before Jan. 1. The St. Thomas man returns to the first with more bombs, a few of SixTH RACE, mile and an eighth:

The Londoners were dazed at Woodstock's rally to open the second, and before the spell passed away the score board was reading 6—2, and remained that way until the end.

A parade to the penalty box featured the final act. Moore, Barrett, MacMillan, Goyer and Jimmie Smith all being sent to the rock pile. Jemmett notched the first tally about the middle of the canto, and then the gave the alleged 'hand-picked, cautiously-culled' Saints a real run for dock snoozing, and MacMillan ticked the twine on a shot outside the local defence. their money. All honor to London, having categoried the Bards with Woodstock in 'Cold Feet.' It was manifestly unfair of us, and we should not blame Stratford for resenting it, even to the point of challenging us to engage in mortal com-

> And such language! "Stratford stuck in the S. O. B. L. o the last game, and so did London. Woodstock is the only team that 'skunked out,' and the 'skunking' was lone just when Stratford stood the chance of reducing its losses for the season in a scheduled home game with Woodstock. That is an act that we shouldn't feel particularly proud of if we lived in Woodstock."

If women folks would only keep their noses out of baseball "Buzz" Wetzel might be able to muster a winning team for Hamilton. Two players that the Hamilton pilot wanted, were as good as in uniform, to but changed their minds, all owing to the orders of friend wife. "Bud" Allen, a second baseman on whom Wetzel is very sweet, signed with Hamilton during the minor leagues' meeting at Chicago last December, but Mrs. Allen thought that the fig-6 ures were not high enough, and just 6 by way of showing dear hubby that 6 she was the best business person of the family, she wrote to York, Pa., and secured him an offer of fifty dol-lars a month more than his Hamilton contract called for.

If Hamilton's claim is upheld, Allen may be traded to the Buffalo International League club for a good pitcher, but that pitcher will not be loe Reddy, for Buffalo looks upon the former Hamilton player as its pitch-ing ace for the coming season. Mickey Lalonge is the other player who had to bow to friend wife. He wanted to sign with Hamilton, but she got busy and found him a more 32 40, won ucrative situation, and the former Brantford pilot will not be seen in se these parts this year.

But all the news from the Hamilton camp is not disappointing. Wetzel has announced that he had traded "Swede" Edgren, pitcher, to Rocky Mount for "Sandy" Woods, a atility man who can fill any of the infield or outfield positions. From the start these women appeared to be in sympathy with Gans.
In fact he was the favorite of most everybody before the fight had gone ten rounds.

Never Anything Like It.

Gans started it by jabbing Nelson with his left twice in rapid succession. From that moment the crowd saw what I regard as the greatest fight ever held in America. For sheer grit and endurance I have never seen anything like it—never expect to. It did not give me a thrill like the Dempsey-Firpo fight, for example, but for real fighting the Gans-Nelson affair stands out.

For just a minute Nelson attempted great pain.

Without hesitation or waiting for with his left walked over a protest, Referee Siler walked over and disqualified Nelson, declaring Gans the winner.

Cheers for the Referee.

There is no question in my mind that the foul was deliberate, Anyway, it was a foul blow that everybody in the great crowd could see. There has been much argument about this. On that afternoon, though, the whole crowd agreed with Siler. The only holler came from Nelson's seconds.

Gans' backers and seconds insist to this day that Nolan instructed Nelson to foul Gans.

Here is what Referee Siler said to me and to those near him:

There is every chance for the doners. They should beat St. Marys at home and here, they will surely beat Glencoe, as they've done it once and they have a better chance against Sarnia at home than on the ice here, local critics claim. However, after

ST. THOMAS DEFAULTS

Black and White May Meet Brantford in Next Round.

Special to The Advertiser.

Woodstock, Jan. 29.—Woodstock's victory after a long overtime struggle with Tillsonburg last night really meant the winning of the group, as St. Thomas has defaulted all its games of the season, since it used both Graham and Evans from Galt, who are unable to qualify under the O. H. A. residence rules.

It is likely the locals will be pitted against Brantford in the next round, but no official announcement of the dates has been made by the O. H. A Tillsonburg's talk of protesting is not treated seriously here. The discannot compare with the Woodstock tally that was not allowed by the goal umpire or referee, and several of the Tillsonburg officials admitted themselves that the goal should have counted. King, who is charged with dirty playing in reports from Till-sonburg, drew but two penalties for minor offences, while one of the Pan-Drieds visited the penalty box more
