e kidneys—the pain in the back ady Bright's dihighly colored nen the slightest ily prevented in come obstinate, proved that all or kidney acid ver pills if taken any tendency to he, Dull Heavy ins in the Back ine with passage ings, Weakness, y troubles.

MEN

ricture, impediments ppage of the water. esire to urinate at Dr. Chase's Kidney-

Kidney-Liver Pills One or two doses of fe. They act gently with disease d Kidn y and RLANE, Mgr. Tel. 449. CO., LTD.

UBLE

Vancouver, B.C. Cable address, "Cove

ther, AND NO ONE SELLS

LAS STREET.

PPOSITE CITY HALL. TICE.

ce that after sixty days I in-he Honorable Chief Com-and Works for leave to purast 40 chains; thence south est 40 chains; thence north commencement. 1896. S. WILLIAMS.

imber limit initial post orth 80 chains; thenc ce south following the ardeau river to point of 1896. P. SNOWDEN. Agent for F. S. Barnard.

he Semi-Weekly Colonist.

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR.

VICTORIA BRITISH COLUMBIA MONDAY DECEMBER 28 1896,

VOLUME XXXIX. NO. 4 to Be Published Next Year.

Dreadful Weather at Sea-The Pope Receives the Season's Greetings.

Gazette says the Queen will personally and the other departments of the road dictate and revise a biography of Her Majesty which will appear in 1897. The El Tiempo, of Madrid, asserts that a Washington to confer with officers of the government there regarding relations between Spain and the United States.

The White Starliner Majestic, Capt. Smith, from New York on December 16, which arrived at 11 o'clock this morning, reports having experienced dreadful weather, especially on Friday last. December 18., when she encountered a terrific sea. The Majestic passed an iceberg on December 19 in latitude 44.50 north and longitude 47.14 west. Senor Romero, minister of finance in the Argentine, has resigned. In a duel, fought with pistols, near Stuttgart to-day between Baron von Wangerheim, secretary of the German legation at Copenhagen, and Lieutenant Count von Gylenban, the former was wounded in the kidneys and the latter in the abdomen. Both were taken to the hospital.

The Pope to-day received in solemn audience the cardinals and prelates, who tendered him the season's greetings. The reception took place in the throne room. His Holiness appeared to be in replied to the usual protests against the position of the holy see. He asked what was the use of laws for the safeguard and dignity of the pope, when even his charitable and disinterested idea of consoling the Italian prisoners in Abyssinia had been made a public target for outrage and calumny.

Great floods in Northern Greece have caused the ove flow of the Salamaria river. Enormous damage has been done, villages have been inundated and a number of persons drowned.

It is believed that the band of men said to number only ten persons, bearing a Republican flag, were Uspersed by provoke a panic and divert attention cargo and some treasure been issued to sanction a new Eastern Chinese railway company with a capital of five million roubles, to construct and work a railway from the western frontier of Hei-Lung-Chiang to the eastern frontier of Kirin, in Manchuria, to connect tain in regard to Egypt and Turkey, the post of Baron de Courcel, French ambassador to the court of St. James, may be left vacant for a while. It is officially stated that the plague is In ministerial circles at Madrid it is wreck occurred off the port of Dos Rosdenied that the government intends to as, Tabas county. call out a fresh contingent of troops. Earl Russell's Riverside residence was destroyed by fire last night. It is ruorigin. Since the trial of the Earl's suit against his mother-in-law, Lady Selina

A special from Kingston, Jamaica, says: "Matters are tranquil at Hayti at present, but it is stated that the revolution is bound to come later. The report that the French government has refused the recognition of Managat, as Haytian minister to the republic, is confirmed here. If he should return to Hayti from Paris, Managat may make trouble. Politics in Hayti are in abeyance on account of the ravages of the yellow fever. which is still epidemic. Among the recent victims of the fever is Henri Pasqual, French diplomatic representative. He was buried with military honor, the president attending the funeral. Heavy rains have flooded the valley of Simeto river and much damage has the war. "Une Idylle Tragique," a four act is about to do so. play from M. Paul Bourget's novel, was produced at the Gymnase last night before a brilliant audience containing a large American element. The play was applauded heartily from beginning to end. Madame Jane Hading's acting was superb, and the costumes and scenery were exceedingly good. Mr. James Gordon Bennett personally supervised the realistic opening yacht scene.

LIEUT .- GOVERNOR M'INNES.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 24.—(Special)—A Vancouver dispatch published here says: "It is learned on good authority that Senator McInnes, of Victoria, B.C., will succeed to the Lieutenant-Governorship of British Columbia on the retirement of

CAR STRIKE.

Boston, Dec. 23.-The tie-up of the West End road, if it should prove as complete as is now predicted, would city residents, but to suburban residents for miles around. That the strike question is not a sudden decision is indicated by an interview with a union official. The official said: "The trouble between the corporation officials and the men has been brewing for some time. ' From the nine divisions of the road complaints have been received at the Union's headquarters that the divisional London, Dec. 23. - The St. James superintendent, the claims department have been crowding the men, overworking them, also letting them off and discharging them without sufficient cause

"The climax came when several emhigh political personage is to be sent to ployes who made individual complaints of their treatment were summarily dismissed. The effect of the treatment was that the men joined the divisional unions, and when they were sufficiently strong the union officials prepared an agreement which would obliterate the cause of complaints, which have been gradually increasing since the agreement of 1894 went out of existence.'

On presenting this new agreement to President Little he referred the conference committee, who had charge of the matter for the union, to Superintendent Rugge, with the statement that the latter official had full power to adjust matters. Two conferences were had between Superintendent Rugge and the committee. They reported to the joint unions that practically all the things asked of the management had been conceded excepting the request for $2.50 a day, an increase of 25 cents on wages at

Owing to this demand the only objection to the completion of the agreement, the Union voted to leave the wages as before, namely, $2.25 a day. This action of the Union was conveyed to Superintendent Rugge by letter. The latter rement, and referred the committee to President Little. A request was immediately sent to President Little for a conbut up to the present time no reply has been received by the com-

OVER A DOZEN LIVES LOST.

The Jamaica was bound from Campeche Petcoff. of bandits, although the report is spread that they were paid by Cuban agents to Vera Cruz and had a valuable As long as the ship remained in An Imperial Russian ordinance has good condition she was sent scudding cident finally made it impossible to live with branches of the Siberian railway. It is provided that the holders of shares must be Russians or Chinese.

Le Figaro intimates that owing to difficulties between France and Great Britain in record to Foynt and Turkey the upon himself and, clinging to a barrel, tried to reach shore. The survivors saw him sink, owing to the weight of the metal. The sight was terrible; one passenger after another sank, the boats increasing at Bombay and Karachi. The proving unmanageable. The crew were seaport of Sinde is also declared to be all drowned and only three men and a boy escaped of the passengers. The ADVICE OF THE "TIMES." London, Dec. 23.—The Times this morning has an aditorial in which it "They can afford to the Times: ignore the insolent menaces the senate committee, even if they are adopted by both houses, because indications are that the American people support President Cleveland's attitude. But Spain must endeavor to procure peace in one way or another, otherwise the time will come when the Cameron resolution will be adopted in substance by the President."

RAILWAY COMPETITION.

Spanish securities were strong on the Paris bourse to-day owing to the report that a dispatch had been received from Washington which in the control of the Canadian points to points in Eastern Canada and New England, to which objection has been made by the Canadian Tulian Powerfeld Canada and New England, to which objection has been made by the Canadian Tulian Powerfeld Canada and New England, to which objection has been made by the Canadian Tulian Powerfeld Canadian Tulian Powerfeld Canadian Tulian Powerfeld Canadian Po Washington which indicates that the United States was ready to recognize the continuance of Spanish sovereignty in Cuba on condition that the United States is invited to intervene and end the Soo" line keeps up its competition. The British Fremier and be returned to Washington in time to be presented to the senate for ratification. ances that the "Soo" line has done or port of prospects in Behar says that the C. E. Wing, collector of customs here, total reported for 1895, and is the small-there on peril of his life. rainfall has had hardly any effect in his resignation and to have Mr. McAllislowering prices, which are still at famine rates throughout Bengal. The danger of famine has been removed in South Behar, but there is the gravest anxiety in many Northern districts.

AT FAMINE RATES.

LEAVING LAURIER.

Hon. Mr. Dewdney. Mr. J. C. Mc-Lagan, of the Vancouver World, would then succeed to the vacant senatorship. Lagard to the Manitoba school question.

Her Majesty Preparing a Biography cause widespread discomfort, not only to Opening of the Trial-Some Startling Testimony Offered to the Court.

> Brutal in the Extreme-Stabbed, Shot, Hacked and Terribly Beaten.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 23.—The trial of the persons accused of the murder of ex-

Premier Stambuloff, who was stabbed in the streets of this city in July, 1895, rework will tell the story of the longest reign in the history of England, as the Queen herself regards it.

Charging them without standent cause. Sulting in his death on July 18, was formulated the story of England, as the obliged to take cognizance of the complaints.

Charging them without standent cause. Sulting in his death on July 18, was formulated the story of England, as the obliged to take cognizance of the complaints. who drove Stambuloff from the Union works here, and brother of Dimitri Tuffektcheff, who died in prison, as is as stantinople to be properly instructed. serted as a result of torture inflicted by the direct order of the prime minister. Tuffektcheff was accused of complicity in the murder of the minister of finance, who was assassinated in the street in the presence of M. Stambuloff, for whom he was mistaken, on March 28, 1891. A letter written by the murdered statesman to a friend some three months before his death was read by the judge amid profound silence. The letter was dated Sofia, March 16, 1895, and gave in detail the plot for Stambuloff's murder. This information, the letter asserted came from one Ch. Zachariew, who was touch with a band o in close ten or fifteen assassins, who had sworn to free the country from "the tyrant Stambuloff." The letter declared that the assassins expected clemency from the prince after a short imprison plied a few days later, saying that le ment, and that a plot was also afoot for did not have the power to sign the agree- the murder of the prince himself. It the murder of the prince himself. It implicates a number of other political agitators besides those now on trial.

The letter concludes:
"These statements I have written in order that it may be known that the plan of the murderer was known to me, and that sooner or later my friends and my children may demand their punish-S. STAMBULOFF.

The murder of M. Stambuloff was San Diego, Dec. 23.—A terrific storm brutal in the extreme. He was stabled, occurred in the Gulf of Campeche, on the 11th and 12th of this month, and rible manner by his assailants, who among other casualties reported is the stopped his carriage while he was returning home, during the evening of Iuly 15, from luncheon at the Union sengers and flust of the crew lost. Olub, accompanied by a colleague, M.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION.

outlined the life of the general arbitra-Cruz was sighted, but accident after action treaty between Great Britain and in the enormous seas. With almost all the United States is purposely made the sails blown away the Jamaica re- very short—only five years—but him not to go down, but he recklessly turned and attempted to get back here this is with the expectation of a renewal for a longer period if it shall prove to work well, and also to afford easy opportunity for adoption. Its purpose is to dispose peaceably and honorably of such questions as arise between the United States and Great Britain, and will not admit of adjust-ment by the ordinary methods of diplomacy, excluding, of course, questions involving the national honor. The personnel of arbitration commission is to be of the highest character-men selected from the judiciary of each country in equal numbers, three from each side, and provision is made against a failure through a tie vote by the bringing in of an umpire. Neither the Venezuelan question nor the Behring sea issue are to go before this commission, but its first work will be to close up the Alaska boundary conplayed towards the United States. Says to the U.S. senate for ratification. the Times: "They can afford to The fate of the project in congress can of only be conjectured at present. Some fear is expressed that the issue made crowning piece of diplomacy by inviting criticism and the display of ill-feeling on the part of some senators, who feel that their prerogatives have been invaded. There is no longer any doubt that the general arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain is practically completed to the satisfaction of both governments and that its presenta CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—The Western roads near future. Several minor amendments tion to congress may be expected in the say that they will not abandon their have been suggested and accepted from large commissions on business from time to time during the progress of the year after the eggs are spawned. jection has been made by the Canadian Julian Pauncefote, about a week ago, appointed to inquire into the charges that during 1896 only 1,802 miles of railLondon, Dec. 23.—A Times dispatch that George Guillet, M.P., and others way lines were built in the United had been set the robbers drove Frier from Calcutta says; "The official re- had negotiated to obtain from the late States. This is one mile less than the telling him at the same time to remain been proven.

CHARGES AGAINST MR. GUILLET

COBOURG, Dec. 22.—The commission AT FAMINE KATES.

Indianapolis, Dec. 23.—General Harrison has recovered all the goods recent-

WILL BE COERCED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 23.—All ambassadors have now received instructions to act in concert for fresh proposals with a view of improving the situation in the Ottoman empire. The proposals before being submitted to the Sultan will be referred to their respective governments. All the powers, including Russia, have repeatedly announced during the past few months that they have agreed on the expediency of employing coercion should the Sultan be recalcitrant. But the form of coercion to be employed will not be determined upon until the emergency arises. London, Dec. 23 .- As frequently an nounced from various capitals, since the visit of the Czar to the Queen at Bal moral in September last, the powers sulting in his death on July 18, was formally opened in the court house before a mixed tribunal and was continued yesterday. The accused are: Boni Salisbury on Monday last summoned Georgeoff, a former servant of Maj. Pan- the ambassadors to the foreign office itza; Atzoff, a Macedonian, the coachman and communicated to them the views of the British government on the definite proposals to Russia for a joint intervenclub to the scene of the crime; Naum tion in order that each ambassador Tuffektcheff, an employe in the build- might communicate them to his own ing department in the ministry of public government and thus enable the representatives of the great powers at Con-It is believed that unless the Sultan within the next ten days shows deference, which is at present little suspected, decisive steps will be taken by joint powers. In this connection, the Novoe Vremya, of St. Petersburg, says it is probable that within a few days the Russian Black Sea fleet will appear in the Bosphorus, where it will be joined by the squadrons of other powers from the Dardanelles.

BURGLAR CAPTURED.

NANAIMO, Dec. 24.—(Special)—Word was received at the provincial police headquarters last evening that a cabin at Nanaimo river had been broken into hard. He says he cannot tell how much while its occupant was at work, and that was taken. When seen, he said; gun, new suit of clothes, overcoat, etc., ad been stolen; also a pair of blankets and $4.50 in cash taken from an adjacent Chinese cabin. Constable McLeod found that the gun had been offered for sale at a second-hand store, but was disposed of at another place.

About 8 o'clock this morning the constable who had spent the night in an unsuccessful search for a further clue entered Taylor's secondhand store and had been there only a short time when he man who had sold the gun reappeared and offered the blankets for sale. The constable noticing a pair of pants under the man's coat suddenly pulled them out and asked if he was going to sell them also. The man tried to suppe warm scuffle ensued, the man proving exceedingly strong. He was, however, INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—As already led off to the Provincial jail. he bolted with the constable at his heels and made for the steep cliff behind A. R.

> jumped over the bluff with his hands fastened. Constable McLeod made after him, the two rolling over each other all the way down until stopped by a big boulder. The man appeared to be somewhat injured and was therefore taken to the jail an express wagon. He again offered some resistance when he reached the jail and refused to give his name. He ppears badly used up by his fall, though the constable fortunately escaped with a few scratches. The burglar is a tall young man with large cheekbones and a light moustache. He was unable to appear for preliminary trial to-day.

COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The report on salmon investigation conducted by the Scott, and three others, his lordship has been the recipient of several threatening calm demeanor they have already dis-Unlike the Venezuelan U.S. fish commission at the head-waters corner and, with two shotguns held at been completed and published. The inquiry was begun July 20, of last year, and both the large and small fish had after the robbers had secured the conmed up as follows:

It is probable that both the large and small forms of redfish are anadromous, though the evidence that the smaller comes from the sea is not complete. The mutilations, sores, fraying out of fins, etc., are practically all received subsequent to reaching the spawning grounds. The redfish all die soon after sequent spawning. The young redfish remain in the lakes and connecting waters for at least one

The chinook salmon, which come these waters, die after spawning. The young chinook salmon appear to remain for about one year after the eggs are laid near where they are hatched.

RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. The annual state-his resignation and to have Mr. McAllister appointed in his stead, concluded its The number of lines on which this track proceedings yesterday. The charges was laid is 163, which is 11 less than the boarded the engine and went at a high home of her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Wakewere declared by the commission to have number of new lines added in the pre-rate of speed about two miles, where it ley, at Rossburg. On her death bed she vious year. Track was laid in 38 of the was abandoned. 49 States and Territories. The longest

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Train Held Up in the Blue Cut Near Kansas

The Scene of Several Extensive Operations by the James Gang.

St. Louis, Dec. 24.—The Chicago and Alton express which was held up by been arrested and are in jail. Their Independence, Mo., made famous by the this afternoon. V. G. D. Frier, the solid rock, and, except in broad daymessenger in charge of the robbed car, two trainmen and the Pullman car porthe crew on board. The story as obtained from these men stated that the robbery was one of the cleverest and best pieces of work done by road agents during the year. Messenger Frier is in a bad state of mind. He feels terribly broken up over the matter. The first thing he said when the train men asked him how he had fared was that the company had been hit was busy, especially so that trip, thought we had stopped on account of a breakdown or something of that sort. I heard no voices outside. When the knock came I supposed it was a braketainly knew their business and were Craighill, brigadier-general, says:
very polite, but it would not have been "The above estimate is submitted in very polite, but it would not have been safe to have resisted them. The politeness of the robbers impressed all who saw them. The trainmen said they were well dressed. The leader was a was so jovial that when he took $4 from Conductor Nicholes, he gave $2 of it back but the constable grabbed him and a but the constable grabbed him and a thus: About five misutes after the express car was detached from the train he heard a rap at the side door, and, thinking it was a train man, he opened, and a man with a shotgun compelled him to is expected, will be in force January to throw up his hands. The men then pulled him from the car and asked him Johnston's house. The constable warned if he had any money. He was too excit-They then picked him up and threw him bodily back into the car, and one of the men who wore a mask, as did the others, climbed in. The man got out a case and proceeded to the large safe and threw down a kit of tools in front of it. The other two held guns at Frier's head, while the third one pro-little under the influence of drink. He ceeded coolly to break open the safe. Frier told the man who was at work on the large safe that it was useless for him to blow it open, as there was no stood at the door covering Frier all the ally set aside by the last congress. time with a revolver, then said: "Well, d-n you give us the keys for the small safe.

Frier refused to do this, and the two men, who had remained on the outside, able before her repairs begin. The jumped into the car. They leaped on gunboat Petrel, which was placed in Frier, pinned him to the floor and took the keys of the small safe away from dock fitting out with stores for a three him. He was then chucked up into a years' cruise on the China station. She

The third man then took the keys, opened the small safe and took from a number of packages of money and by Secretary Olney over the Cuban reached Idaho falls then. The import-question may somewhat jeopardize this ant results of the investigation are sumtempted to open the large one. A small hole about one-eighth of an inch was made in the large safe and two sticks of dynamite put in. Frier again told the was not a penny in the large safe.

At this they desisted from their attempt to blow it open and prepared to leave. Before they went away one of the men walked over to Frier, and, taking a $2 bill from his pocket; said:

"Here, help yourself to a Christmas present. We made a good haul." They then started to leave the car, but in doing so turned to Frier, who by this time was greatly excited, and told him that they had used him fair and that he ought to give them something out of his salary. Frier said he did not have any money on his person, but they did not believe him, and made a search of his clothing. Two of the men then jumped from the car, but the third one pushed ment of construction to be published by side of the track. They then compelled Frier through the open door down to the the "Railway Age" this week will show him to climb up on the front end of the back into his car and closed the door,

As soon as the express messenger had been driven into the car the robbers The story is thus detailed in a Kansas

The Railway Age states that many left Kansas City at 8.45, was flagged to be given to him when he came of age. allway enterprises were under way at Blue Cut, and came to a stand-parly in the year which would have add-still. Masked men immediately covalout $150, having never told the boy Quebec, Dec. 23.—(Special)—It is reported that Charles Angers, M. P. for Charlevoix, has written to Hon. Mr.

In examway Age states that many left Kansas City at 8.45, was flagged railway enterprises were under way at Blue Cut, and came to a stander way enterprises were under way at Blue Cut, and came to a stander which would have added bundreds of miles of track, but were stopped by the financial agitation preceding the election. Fully 2,500 miles At the same time another member of ceding the election. Fully 2,500 miles ceding the election. Fully 2,500 miles At the same time another member of would have been built in 1896 but for the band uncoupled the express car quickly climbed on board the locomo- $11,000.

tive and express car, and before the surprised trainmen had had time to collect their wits the bandits were speeding down the steep grale beyond Blue Cut with the engine and express car. The express messenger, A. J. Frier, of St. Louis, was a prisoner in the express

It was at Blue Cut in 1885 that the James' gang held up a Chicago & Alton express train and made one of the biggest hauls in the history of train robbing. A few years later another big train robbery was committed at the same place, and two months ago to-night, on October 23, the held-up at Blue Cut occurred. The men who planned the robbery in October were local novices and got shot. Two members of the gang have since masked bandits in the Blue Cut near accomplices are known and are fugitives. Though Blue Cut is less than 15 miles exploits of the James and Younger bands, settled section, and an ideal spot for Wadnesday night arrived at St. Louis such outlawry. It is a deep cut through light, is almost as dark as a tunnel. For a long time it was patrolled day night, but a few years ago, after the banter and conductor were the only ones of dit gangs about here were supposed to have been effectually broken up, the guards were withdrawn. It is predicted that two train robberies there within as many months will result in a return to the old precautions.

TO FORTIFY PUGET SOUND.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.-In the estimates required by the various departments to meet urgent demands for the service is included a request from the secretary of war for a lump sum of $2,500,-000, to be used at once in the construction of fortifications and other works of man and opened the door, then I was help-less. The robber threw my shotgun out of terres and other fortifications to be erectdefence, including gun and mortar batcar and broke it to pieces. They cer- ed on Puget Sound. A note from W.P.

order to comply with the provisions of the act of June 6, 1896, as follows: Provided, that the contracts may be entered into, under the direction of the secretary of war, for materials and work for con-struction of fortifications, to be paid for as the appropriations may from time to time be made by law, to an additiona

Arranger ing contracts for materials and work in accordance with this proviso. These, it retreat into the car, while two others 1897, and the sum of $2,500,000 will be followed with revolvers and ordered him required for expenditure during the present fiscal vear. This $2,500,000 is in addition to the $2,400,000 aiready provided by congress for such works in the last fortification bill, and will probably result in work being begun at various points on Puget Sound early in the coming year. VALLEJO, Cal., Dec. 24.—Though work has slackened somewhat at the navy yard, owing to the discharge of a part of the force because of a lack of funds, there is still a fair amount of work in progress, some 600 men being employed. Work still continues on the Baltimore, Concord, Mohican, Ranger and Pensamoney in it. One of the other men who cola, for which ships money was especi-

The cruiser Charleston, however, did not come under this head, and will probably have to wait until the appropriations of the present congress are available before her repairs begin. The commission on December 16, is at the dock fitting out with stores for a three will probably be here for two months more, during which time she will be inspected by the board of inspection.

TO SHORTEN THE PASSAGE.

MONTREAL, Dec. 23 .- (Special) -Robert Reid, of Montreal, who built the railway across the island for the Newfoundland government, has just awarded contracts men they were wasting time, as there in London for the building of fast steamers 250 feet long and 32 feet beam to ply between Port au Basque, Newfoundland, and Sydney, Cape Breton. The steamers will make the trip in about three hours, thus bringing Montreal, Boston and New York into closer connection with the island colony. Mr. Reid will sail for New York shortly. The railway which is now in operation is owned by New foundland.

Detective Goldson, of Pittsburg, Pa. who came on here and arrested one Louis Levi, has been annoyed by tele-grams sent to his wife saying that he was in trouble with the police authori-ties here. Judge Dugas will render judgment in the extradition proceedings

EKILLED BY HER ADOPTED SON.

Nunda, Dec., 23.-Mrs. Sarah Jane Willet, who was bound, gagged and left tied to a bedpost at her home near here a few nights ago, died to-night at the home of her daughtrr, Mrs. H. S. Wakeconfessed that one of the men who maltreated her was her adopted son, George H. Willet. She stated that the father of mileage was built in California, 187 City dispatch: At 9.20 o'clock the St. H. Willet. She stated that the father of miles on eight lines.

City dispatch: At 9.20 o'clock the St. H. Willet. She stated that the father of the adopted son gave her $4,000 in cash that his father had left any money him. would have been built in 1896 but for the band uncoupled the express car the uncertainty developed from the poli-from the rest of the train. The robbers dry goods, have failed with liabilities of