The Record Beaten in a Fast Type-Setting

NEW YORK, June 4.—The typographical union convention to-day voted, by a large majority, that the beyoutting of an office majority, that the beyoetting of an office or person should cease immediately upon compliance with the boycotter's demands. A plan for the benefit of a printer traveling in search of work, by which they should receive mileage and per diem, was voted down. A proposition to re-establish the sub list system was lost.

The type-setting contest between Jeseph McCann of the Herald and Ira Sommers of the World for a purse of $500 was decided to-day. Hundreds of delegates to Typographical convention were present. The men set for three hours, McCann putting up 6325 ems of solid minion without paragraphs and Sommers 6022. In the first hour McCann set 2123 ems, beating the best previous record of 2064, made by George Aaronsberg some years ago.

About 300 delegates sat down to a banquet in the Irving hall to night as the guests of the Typographical union No. 6.

ening of the Celebrated Libel Case in the Court of Appeal.

London, June 4.—The action of libel against Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, brought by Charles Mantell Adams, and brought by Charles Mantell Adams, and based upon attacks on his character made by the defendant in letters to a mutual friend for the purpose of prejudicing Mildred Coleridge, whom Adams was courting, against him, was brought up for trial in the court of appeal to-day. Adams appeared as his own counsel and opened the case.

London, June 4.—The house of commons reassembled to-day. Mr. Gladstone, replying to inquiries, said it was not the replying to inquiries, said it was not the intention of the government to establish regular diplomatic relations with the vatican. The agotiations between England and Russis concerning the delimitation of the Afghan frontier, he said, remained unconcluded. He would to-morrow answer interrogatories in regard to the question of submitting the dispute to arbitration.

London, June 4.—The cabinet meeting announced for to-day was postponed until to-morrow. There are reports of renewed dissension in the cabinet on the crimes act compromise. It is also reported De Giers has asked Earl Granville to explain the position of the ameer toward England—whether he is an independent sovereign, free to negotiate, or a vassal.

The Toronto Press Cigar.

Eichhorn & Carpenter of 64 Colborne street, Toronto, have just brought out a new brand of cigars which they have dedicated to the Toronto press. The cigar is done up in boxes of fifty and retails at ten cents. The label on the boxes is a unique and handsome scroll, bearing a fac simili in miniature of the headings of all the daily and several of the weekly city papers, and inscribed with the following words: "The Toronto press; the pen is mightier than the sword; respectfully dedicated to the Toronto press by Eichhorn & Carpenter." The World returns thanks to the firm for a box of their new smoker, which was tested by the staff last night with the most delightful result, the cigar being well made and finely flavored. George T. Robinson, the genial traveler for E. & C. says it is going off like hot cakes. Try a Press puffer.
