

Applications for HOME and FOREIGN PATENTS prepared by
DONALD C. RIDOUT & CO.
Solicitors of PATENTS.
100 King Street West, Toronto. Telephone No. 816.

THIRTEENTH YEAR.

CLEVELAND AND STEVENSON.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES AT CHICAGO YESTERDAY.

The ex-President had everything his own way. The friends of the Governor of Indiana made a hard fight for their favorite for the Vice-Presidency, but he was never dangerous.

FOR PRESIDENT—Grover Cleveland was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT—Hon. A. E. Stevenson of Illinois, first Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, was nominated.

CHIEF JUSTICE—Chief Justice of the United States, William Howard Taft, was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

ATTORNEY GENERAL—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY—Hon. Charles D. Smith of New York was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF LANDS—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF MINES—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF FOREST SERVICE—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC LANDS—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF GENERAL LANDS—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF SURVEY—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC UTILITIES—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC EDUCATION—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC HEALTH—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC CHARITIES—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE—Hon. J. C. McMillan of Ohio was nominated. He received 616 votes. He was re-nominated and defeated in 1888.

EMPIRE TRADE CONFERENCE.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER ON FREE-TRADING DUTIES.

He Urges That Canadian Grain Should Be Admitted to England Free, Which is a Duty of Five Shillings Per Quarter Should Be Placed Upon the United States Product—Sir Donald Smith's Speech.

LONDON, June 23.—The Empire Trade Conference lasted all day today. Many leading colonists were present, including all the Canadian delegates.

The Right Hon. James Lowther presided. He said Lord Salisbury sympathized with the desire of the league, that preferential rates be established, but he wanted evidence that it was not undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

He said that even if Great Britain had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain, he would not have undertaken to legislate on the matter. Mr. Lowther said that in his Hastings speech Lord Salisbury had shown that he no longer ignored the essential elements of the commercial situation in Great Britain.

SHIRKING BACK AT CANADA.

A Senate Resolution to Retaliate Through Reciprocity Bill, Marie Telle.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Inspired by the President's message suggesting retaliation upon Canada for discriminating against United States in canal tolls, Senator Davis introduced to-day a resolution giving the President power to levy a toll of $2 a ton on freight and $5 a passenger car in transit in Canadian cars or traffic through the Sault Ste. Marie Canal between Lakes Superior and Huron.

INDISCREET AND UNBECOMING. Baptists Investigate Charges Against Rev. A. H. Munro of St. Thomas.

ST. THOMAS, June 23.—A court consisting of several Baptist ministers and an equal number of laymen have been engaged considering the question of the recognition of the church of England in the view of the circumstances connected with the resignation of the pastorate of Centre Street Church, by Rev. A. H. Munro, who was a member of the church for many years.

The court sat Thursday afternoon and Friday again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, reaching a conclusion, embodied in three resolutions, on the latter evening.

The first resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The second considers the alleged confession in not to be taken as evidence and that the church should disown him.

The third resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The court sat Thursday afternoon and Friday again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, reaching a conclusion, embodied in three resolutions, on the latter evening.

The first resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The second considers the alleged confession in not to be taken as evidence and that the church should disown him.

The third resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The court sat Thursday afternoon and Friday again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, reaching a conclusion, embodied in three resolutions, on the latter evening.

The first resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The second considers the alleged confession in not to be taken as evidence and that the church should disown him.

The third resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The court sat Thursday afternoon and Friday again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, reaching a conclusion, embodied in three resolutions, on the latter evening.

The first resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The second considers the alleged confession in not to be taken as evidence and that the church should disown him.

The third resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The court sat Thursday afternoon and Friday again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, reaching a conclusion, embodied in three resolutions, on the latter evening.

The first resolution declares Mr. Munro's conduct towards Mrs. White indiscreet and his familiarity with her unbecoming the evidence of witnesses, and that the church should disown him.

The second considers the alleged confession in not to be taken as evidence and that the church should disown him.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN.

Arrival of the Detachment.—The Line of the Knights of St. John has taken possession of the town.

Every train yesterday brought in fresh detachments, and they are still coming. Detroit and Buffalo have sent the largest number, but many are present from nearly every part of the United States. They are all an orderly lot of men and in the crowd last night not an angry word was heard. The hotels are entirely inadequate to accommodate the rush of visitors, and in many of them three and four guests are packed in one room. The convention promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the organization. The following is the program for to-day:

The delegates will assemble at the Rosin House at 7:45 a.m. and proceed to St. Michael's Cathedral, where High Mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock. They will then proceed to the Horticultural Gardens, where the parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

Promptly at 1 o'clock p.m. all commanders of the various orders of chivalry, with their respective detachments, will report at the Horticultural Gardens, and at 1:30 sharp the parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade. The parade will be reviewed by the Mayor and city officers, after which a display will be given by the fire brigade.

MCCARTHY CALLS FOR AID.

FRIENDS OF IRELAND APPEARED TO FOR ELECTION FUNDS.

IRELAND'S Fate To Be Decided For This Generation—McCarthy's Call For Aid—Confidence in Gladstone—Gladstone's Success Means Home Rule—Salisbury's Return at the Polls Signifies the Destruction of Irish Hopes.

LONDON, June 23.—The following address has been issued to the friends of the Irish cause in America, signed by Justin McCarthy, Thomas Sexton, John Dillon, Timothy Healy, William O'Brien, T. P. O'Connor, Arthur O'Connor, David Sheehy, William Abraham and Michael Davitt:

The Corcoran Parliament will be dissolved in a few days, and the general election which will follow, will decide the fate of Ireland for the present generation.

The great prize of national self-government, for which the Irish race has made untold sacrifices during a long course of years, is within our grasp. Home Rule for Ireland is the issue upon which the general election will be fought, and to which all other questions by common consent have been subordinated.

Gladstone's Loyalty. There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

There is a shadow of a reason to suppose that Mr. Gladstone's ardor in the Home Rule cause has abated or that his fidelity to his engagements regarding the future of Ireland has been in the least degree shaken. Within the past week he has given renewed proof that he regards the Home Rule as the paramount object of his remaining days.

INDIA RUBBER GOODS.

Of Every Description.
Toronto Rubber Company of Canada, Limited.
King-Street West. Factories—Port Huron.

ONE CENT.

A HEALTHY SIGN AT OTTAWA.

FIVE CONSERVATIVES CUT 1008 FROM PARTY LINES.

The Member for East York and Messrs. Cockburn, Denison, Dickey and Weston. Against the Government's proposal to amend the Redistribution Bill—Considerable comment in the Lobby.

OTTAWA, June 23.—The only feature of the House to-day was the discussion on the clauses of the redistribution bill that apply to Prince Edward Island. At present the province is made up of three counties, each of which sends two members. Of these three members two are Conservatives and one is a Liberal. By the redistribution under the last census the island must lose one seat. The Government bill proposes to meet this situation by cutting the island into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader, has urged that the province be divided into five ridings, one result of which is to take three townships out of one county and two out of another and put them into ridings in adjoining counties. In this way complete equality of population is secured, but county lines are broken into.

At one time the Opposition have been urging as the principle of redistribution that of equality of population, at another time they have urged that of equality of representation. In the case of Prince Edward Island, the Liberal leader, Mr. Davies, the Liberal leader