Musical Attractions At the Fair. Signor Ernesto Baldanza, the celebrat ed tenor robusto, has been secured by Manager Hill of the Industrial Fair, to 1-2c. take place in the grand, novel and unique spectacular entertainment in front of the grand stand each day. Signor Baldanza, who is a native of Bologna, Italy, and was introduced to the American public by Col. Mapleson, has had a long and brilliant European career. He has been on the stage for nearly a quarter of a century, and latterly has filled engagements with such prominent musical organizations as Thomas', Gilmore's and Sousa's bands, and also sung at the World's Fair, where his phenat the World's Fair, where his phenomenal vocal powers excited much enthusiasm. His voice is one of wonderful compass, tone and clearness, which have not been in the least impaired by lapse of time. Musical critics speak most favably of his dramatic as well as his vocal talent. As he returns to Italy at the expiration of his engagement, this will be the only opportunity to hear him. The Quaker City Quartet, an organization of continental celebrity, has also been secured. This combination holds
