

Dyspepsia of Women

Caused by Female Disorders and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by a derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes a disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has a peculiar tonic effect on the female organism.

As proof of this theory we call attention to the case of Mrs. Henry Beaubien, 88 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ont., who was completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after everything else had failed. She writes:

"I had been troubled with indigestion and general stomach disorders for nearly a year. I had a soreness in my stomach and was unable to digest my food. I dieted and doctored without success, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me permanent relief. I used three bottles and it cured me of my stomach trouble and built up my general health. I now enjoy a splendid appetite, can eat all kinds of food, have no trouble with indigestion, and know that I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement, or has such a record of cures of female troubles, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Tolstoi and the Bear.

When Count Tolstoi was a young man he took part in a bear hunt that nearly ended fatally. When the bear charged him Tolstoi fired and missed. He fired a second shot, which hit the bear's jaw and lodged between his teeth. Tolstoi was knocked down, falling with his face in the snow. "There," he thought, "all is over with me." He drew his head as far as possible between his shoulders, exposing chiefly his thick fur cap to the bear's mouth till she was able to tear with her upper teeth only the cheek under the left eye and with the lower teeth the skin of the left part of the forehead. At this moment the famous bear hunt leader Ostashkof ran up with a small switch in his hand and cried out his usual: "Where are you getting to? Where are you getting to?" This, says Tolstoi, sent the bear scuttling off at her utmost speed.

Why He Came.

A man rushed into the barber shop and jumped into the first waiting chair, explaining, "Shave in a hurry." The barber was about to apply the lather when he noticed the customer's face. It had been shaved in spots and looked like a worn-out hair rug. "I beg your pardon," said the barber, "but whoever shaved you did not understand his business or must have been near-sighted." "That's all right," replied the customer rather sharply. "Every man to his trade—you are a barber, well, I am not—that's why I came here."

"Chamois" Skins.

Charles C. Druehling has written an article in the Journal of Pharmacy on chamois skins. The commercial article of that name, he says, is really oil tanned sheep or lamb skin lining. The supply of skins from the chamois animal is very limited. Enough could not be obtained in a year to supply the United States for more than a single day. He made special inquiry on a visit to Switzerland about the annual crop of the chamois skins and ascertained that from 5,000 to 6,000 skins would be a fair average yearly crop. This skin is heavier than the skin of the sheep or lamb, also much coarser. For strength and durability the chamois skin is preferable, but for ordinary use and appearance the oil tanned sheepskin lining would in most instances be preferred.

Got Near It.

Druggist—Try it again, little one. What was it your mamma told you to get? Little Girl (with another severe mental effort)—I think it was "I died of possum." I want 10 cents' worth.

Sculptors' Potboilers.

They were walking past a beautiful pink and white house in New York whose door cap was most exquisitely carved. The sculptor pointed to it. "My work," he said. "That's the pot-boiling I do while I work on my masterpiece. It is nothing unusual with sculptors to do such work. Two of the finest pieces that were sold to the Metropolitan museum last winter were done by a man whose regular business it is to make door caps."

The Usual Way.

"Papa," said Jacky, "would you like to have me give you a birthday present?"

"Yes, indeed."

"Then now is the time to double my weekly pocket money, so's I'll have the money to buy it when your birthday comes."

Stung to the Quick.

"Henry, you look very pale. What's the trouble?"

"I was stung to the quick by an adder this afternoon."

"How did it happen?"

"Why, I dropped in at the bank, and the bookkeeper told me my account was overdrawn."

Look out for This Fake.

I a recent issue of The Star I noticed a letter written to you as to the reliability of a certain Montreal firm wanting ladies to do plain sewing at home—good pay, etc. I wish to say I am one who was taken in by the same firm. My mother is an invalid, being the only child, I consequently had to stay from business, and, seeing this ad. in the paper, and thinking it would be quite a help, I wrote, I received a reply stating that on the receipt of one dollar I would get sample, and if satisfactory, would forward me more. I received the sample, and set to work. The one I turned out was exactly as the sample, and, as I am an operator, and have been for a number of years. I was no greenhorn at sewing. I mailed mine, and to my astonishment, received a reply that my work was unsatisfactory, the work was more, and if satisfactory, would forward me more. I received the sample, and set to work. He spent his winters in visiting the different lake ports, giving an account of his work done here.

Prominent Manufacturer Speaks.

"In Vanleek Hill, Ont., no one is better known than Geo. S. Watson. When he says 'Catarhhoze is a real cure,' depend on it being so. 'My wife' he writes 'was subject to bad attacks of throat irritation and bronchitis. Many remedies were tried but few proved at all useful. Catarhhoze was different. It seemed to get right at the sore spots and brought relief quickly. We have found Catarhhoze an absolute cure for bronchitis and catarh.' Nothing cures more quickly so get it to day, two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

She Made Up Her Mind Early.

From Judge. A city grammar school teacher asked her children what they were going to be when they grew up. The boy pupils declared intentions in the way of street car motormen, ship captains, burglars, and presidents. The girl children declared they would be school teachers and nurses. One little girl had been silent during the questioning.

"Mable," said the teacher, noticing her reticence, "what do you intend to be?"

"I'm going to be a mother," replied Mable decisively.

Ex Judge Woods Dead.

The Town's Best Man.

The best man we have in our town is the one you will always see on the front seat in the progressive "band wagon." He is the first one to extend an open and warm hand to greet the stranger and welcome him to the best town in the province. He will resent an insult to our town as quickly as he would a slur at a member of his family. He is ever ready to give his just proportion to every public enterprise. He talks up our town at home and abroad and believes it is the best place on God's green earth in which to live, and desires to be buried here when he dies. Let us all try to like this man for a new year and our town will take on a new life and improve as never before in its history.

Royal Sportsmen.

Many women royalties of Europe love sport and are excellent markswomen. The queen of Italy is a dead shot and practices with both gun and revolver on the island of Monte Cristo. The queen of Portugal shoots straight and has received a German medal for saving life. The Grand Duchess Cyril of Russia—King Edward's niece—shoots well enough with gun and revolver, and her sister, the crown princess of Roumania, also shoots and is a splendid horsewoman.

Town Clerk Dead.

Strathroy, Nov. 23.—Town clerk, F. J. Craig, died suddenly at 2:30 this morning, heart failure being the immediate cause of death. The late Mr. Craig suffered a slight paralytic stroke about a month ago, but recovered sufficiently to be around again, although he was not able to attend to his duties. He was seen in the streets yesterday and his death was a terrible shock to his many friends and relatives.

For the Stomach Heart and Kidneys

Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a Cause Cure—not a Symptom Cure.

It is a common mistake to take artificial dressers for stomach troubles—or heart stimulants for weak heart—or so-called kidney remedies for diseased kidneys. These organs do not act separately or of their own accord—they have no control over themselves—and not once in 50 times is the sickness the fault of the organ. It is the fault of the nerves which control the organ—and only through these nerves can stomach, kidney or heart disease be cured. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wisconsin, learned early in his medical experience that these inside nerves were the power through them only was it possible to digest, heart, backache, heart weak, Bright's disease, etc. of the kidneys. For all of these ailments are not separate as such. They are merely symptoms of inside nerve weakness, and when the nerves are restored the symptoms and the sickness disappear. The remedy which Dr. Shoop prescribed for these ailments is known as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. It relieves the pain and distress of kidney, stomach and heart troubles quicker even than those medicines designed simply to give temporary relief. Dr. Shoop's Restorative (Tablets or Liquid) can now be had of druggists everywhere. For sale and recommended by T. B. TAYLOR.
