OBITUARY

A very sad event occurred on Thursday, Dec. 26th, 1912, in the death of Alexander D. McIntosh, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McIntosh, of the 6th line of Enniskillen, which took place in the hospital at only one week. In his early years deceased suffered from poor health, but during the last five years in which he had made his home at the Soo he had enjoyed the best of health until the illness which resulted in his death. Deceased was just in his twenty-sixth year and being possessed of a remarkable energy, ability and ambition, he had a bright future before him, and it seems hard that a bright young life should go out on the threshold of its usefulness. Although naturally of a very quiet and retiring disposition, he made many friends and no man ever left Enniskillen who was more generally liked for his many good qualities. The remains arrived in Petrolia on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 31, accompanied by his cousin, Mr. Will Harrison, of the Soo, and were taken to his father's home in Enniskillen. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Thursday morning, January 2nd, 1913, from his home to the Arkona cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Mr. Geo. Hicks. The pall bearers at Enniskillen were his old school friends, Orval Lloyd, George Atkins, Nathaniel Metcalfe, Herbert Johnston, Logan Lourie and Stanley Graham. At the Arkona cemetery his six cousins acted as pall bearers, J. M. Evans, W. G. Evans, L. Evans, W. Evans, R. H. Stoner and W. P. Baldwin. The deceased is survived by his father and mother and four brothers, James, George, Charlie and Lloyd, and one sister, Maybelle, and his aged grandmother, Mrs. James Evans. The deepest sympathy of many friends is extended to the sorrowing relatives.

Fatal Accident.

A sad accident occurred on Tuesday, Dec. 31st, by which a fine young man named Reuben H. Alexander, aged 21 years, a son of Mr. Geo. Alexander, lot 21, con. 12, Enniskillen, lost his life. He was engaged in loading logs on the premises of Mr. John Oliver, lot 18, con. 13, when the logs started to roll and falling on him caused such severe internal injuries that he died from the effects in the Petrolia hospital on Saturday. The funeral took place on Wednesday to the Watford cemetery and was very largely attended, deep sympathy being felt by the neighbors and friends for the family. The pall-bearers were Willard McMahon, Wilbert Napper, Elmer Meritt, Robert Jeff, Wallace McMahon and Newton Metcalf.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the meeting of Court Pearl C.O.F., held Tuesday, Dec. 31st, the following resolution was passed unanimously:—

To Mrs. A. J. Davis and family,—
The officers and members of Court Pearl, No. 306, C.O.F., learned with sincere sorrow of the death of our esteemed fellow member, your husband and father. His kindly disposition endeared him to all with whom he was associated and in his removal the Court and the community at large have sustained a great loss. We assure you of our heartfelt sympathy in this your hour of bereavement and can only ask you to look to the Great Comforter for the consolation that He alone can give, who cheereth the wounded heart and helpeth the sore distressed. We commend you and yours to His tender care, and, when this life is ended, may we one and all meet in that land where sorrows are no more.

Signed on behalf of the Court,
CHAS. JAMES, Chief Ranger.

When a man is exceedingly critical of others it is an unfailing sign that he has just turned over another new leaf.

Make few promises, but once made keep your pledges at any cost—go straight. Dishonesty is always discovered; lies are always detected; sneaks are always unmasked.

Father (impressively)—Suppose I should be taken away suddenly, what would become of you, my boy? Irreverent Son—I'd stay here. The question is, what would become of you?

38 Tons of Paper

This enormous quantity of paper was used in printing the 1913 edition of the Na-Dru-Co Almanac, just off the press. As each Almanac weighs a little less than two ounces, this means that 700,000 copies were printed—one copy for every 11 individuals, or for every two families, in Canada.

Stronger evidence could scarcely be given of the wonderful popularity which has already been won by the Na-Dru-Co Almanac now only in its fourth edition. This is due to the rich fund of useful information which it contains, and to its valuable hints on health and physical comfort.

Your Druggist has a copy for you. See that you get it.

From Old Subscribers.

T. H. Collier, Vancouver, B. C., writes:—Enclosed find one dollar to pay subscription for the Guide-Advocate for another year as I do not want to do without the old home paper. It comes like a letter from home. I suppose you are having cold winter weather "back east" now while we are having it very mild and plenty of rain with grass as green as summer and a few days ago I picked daisies from the garden. The concrete men are working on the sidewalk on our street and building operations are going on like spring time. Wishing you and all old friends in Watford a happy and prosperous New Year.

S. P. Morris, Lacombe, Alta., writes:—"I am always pleased to receive the Guide-Advocate as it brings to me the news from the home land. We have had a fine fall in this part of the west no snow and not much cold weather. Best wishes."

It is an act of humanity, and one of the highest human virtues, to extend to others that love which we feel for ourselves; to lighten the burden and promote the happiness of our fellow-men.
