CANADA. The Quebec Morning Chronicle of the 15th inst, in an article on the prospects of the Abnexistonists in Canada effecting their object, holds the following language on the subject.—The Chronicle is a sensible, well-informed journat, but sppears to favour the idea, that annexistion to the neighbouring Republic would prove advantageous to that Province:—

"All the de lared opinions in the world hints, and apolegatic explanations, as to the about its being for the good of the coun-course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of this administration on the Nicabagua try, never will induce England to grant us a course of the second is dead against the movement; and we may as well say that Lower Canada is of Nicaragua, and that he was instructed to represent that this Government would resist the acquisition of any. territory on the conti-tat sonexation is destrable.
