

THE CALL TO PRAYER.

culcates many lessons of love to man. The chief designation of God is the "All-compassionate," "the All-merciful," and notwithstanding its false teachings, the soul of goodness that inheres even in things evil makes the followers of the religion of Islam the most difficult to evangelize.

Nor are these teachings without their effect on daily life and character. Mohammed Ali, our guide, philosopher, and friend in